DISCLOSING plans for their marriage on Sunday afternoon, July 29, are Mrs. Ora F. McIntyre and Robert Hutcheon, prominent Salemites. The couple will be married at a quiet ceremony in the garden at the North Liberty street residence of Mr. and Mrs. Charles S. Pratt. Members of the two families and a group of intimate friends will witness the impressive service.

Mrs. McIntyre will have her daughter, Mrs. Horace J. Thomas, as her matron of honor and Mr. Hutcheon's daughter, Mrs. Lloyd Davenport, will be her bridesmaid.

A reception will follow the ceremony and later the couple will leave on a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches.

Mrs. McIntyre has been an important figure in the business, civic and social circles of the capital. She is owner of the Capital Business College, with which she has been connected for many years, and is a prominent member of Zonta International, Salem Woman's club, Writers' club, Pro-America and has served as matron of the Order of Eastern Star.

Mr. Hutcheon is owner of the Hutcheon Paint Store and is a prominent member of the Salem Rotary club. He has been prominently identified with civic activities in Salem.

Mr. and Mrs. Breyman noise and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry are enjoying a stay at the Boise summer place at Seal Rocks.

Visitors in the capital Tuesday were George Guthrie of Portland and his daughter, Miss Sally Guthrie, of Pittsburgh, Calif. Miss Guthrie, a graduate of Leland Standord, is now engaged in scientific research work in Pittsburgh.

Mrs. W. Carlton Smith is enjoying a stay at her Neskowin beach home.

MISS MARY ANN BRADY, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert G. Brady, who was elected to membership in Spinsters this spring. Miss Brady attends Willamette university, where she is affiliated with Pi Beta Phi. Her sister, Miss Carolyn Brady, is president of Spinsters. (Jesten-Miller)

BETROTHAL announcements and furlough weddings keep the capital's younger set in a complete dither these mid-summer days. With many servicemen returning to the States from extended duty overseas plans are completed in rapid fashion for furlough weddings, with many brides-elect acquiring their trousseaux and completing wedding details on a few hours' notice.

Splash parties and al fresco dinners and teas continue to dot the social agenda and many affairs, too, are being planned in compliment to visitors in the capital.

Women of Rotary are planning a desert supper honoring their husbands in the gardens at the North Summer street home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith next Wednesday evening.

The affair will start at 7 o'clock and an informal program of entertainment will follow the dessert hour.

The committee arranging the affair includes Mrs. Homer Smith, Jr., Mrs. Charles A. Sprague, Mrs. Bruce Spaulding, Mrs. L. R. Tweedie and Mrs. Ivan Lovell.

LEAVING THURSDAY night for New York was Pfc. Gerald W. Naderman, United States army, who has been visiting at the home of his parents, Mr. and Mrs. George V. Naderman, since his return from the European war theater, where he was a prisoner of war in Germany for five weeks.

At a ceremony in Manhattan on July 28, Pfc. Naderman will take as his bride, Miss Rhoda L. Herman, daughter of A. Herman. The quiet double ring ceremony will be witnessed by a few close friends and relatives.

Following their honeymoon, Pfc. Naderman will report to the Halloran General hospital on Staten island.

Miss Herman is a graduate of New York schools. Her fiancé was graduated from Salem schools and served with the 104th division while serving overseas.

Mr. and Mrs. Glen Siegel of Portland were guests of Dr. and Mrs. John Griffith at their Fairmount hill home last week-end.

MISS PATRICIA WATERS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Waters, is another popular girl to be named to Spinners recently. She attends Willamette university and is president of her sorority, Chi Omega. (Jesten-Miller)

INSTEAD OF its regular monthly dinner meeting for July, the Business and Professional Women's club will hold a picnic in the garden at the home of Miss Ida Mae Smith, club president, at 250 East Lincoln street, on Tuesday evening at 6:30 o'clock.

Mrs. Hallie Eckley, member of the hospitality committee, has charge of arrangements for preparing and serving the picnic dinner. She will be assisted by other members of her committee.

Music for the occasion has been provided for by Mrs. Jessie Bush-Mickelson, music chairman, and will consist of a group of guitar numbers furnished by the Priscilla Meisinger music studio. A business meeting will follow the dinner.

Friends of Mrs. George Herbert Smith are happy to learn that she will return to the capital July 31 after a several weeks' stay in the east.

Mrs. Louise C. Smith arrived home yesterday from a six weeks' visit in Kinsley, Hutchinson and Halstead, Kans.

On July 6 Mrs. Smith's mother, Mrs. Rebecca S. Goldschmidt, celebrated her 90th birthday and the Salem matron and Mrs. Raymond Smith entertained with a dinner for her in Kinsley.

MISS NANCY WALLACE, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Paul B. Wallace, who is being welcomed as a new member of Spinsters. Miss Wallace recently returned to the capital from Seattle, where she has been attending the University of Washington. She is a member of Pi Beta Phi. (Jesten-Miller)

EXPECTED to arrive in the capital this week-end is Mrs. Kenneth Walkey of Tulsa, Okla., who will be the house guest of her aunt and uncle, Miss Elizabeth Putnam and George Putnam, at their Lincoln street home.

Mrs. Walkey's daughter, Miss Marilyn Walkey, arrived in Salem from Canada Tuesday. She has been attending the Banff Mountain school during the past school year.

GARDEN PARTIES are always numerous in the capital during the summer season but none will evince more interest than the Spinsters' garden party and benefit bridge, which is calendared for Saturday afternoon, August 11, in the beautiful gardens at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith in North Summer street.

Proceeds from the event, which will be attended by a large group of Salem and out-of-town society matrons and maids, will be used to further the charitable projects of the clubs who will act as the hostess group.

At tea time a fashion show will be a feature with smart fall costumes for the Ester Foster shop being modeled by Spinsters. Tickets for the benefit are being sold by Spinster members and reservations may be made by calling Miss Ann Huston or Miss Dorothy Vandeneinde.

Miss Carolyn Brady, who was recently installed as president of the Spinsters, has selected Miss Edith Moxley as general chairman of the benefit. Miss Moxley's committee chairman will be Miss Lorraine Taylor, tickets; Miss Miriam Becke, arrangements; Miss Florence Duffy and Miss Betty Childs, prizes; Miss Patricia Waters and Miss Mary McKay, tea table.

Arriving in the capital Friday morning to spend the ensuing month at the Fairmount hill home of Mr. and Mrs. James R. Humphrey, were Mrs. Myron H. Soupe of Galesburg, Ill., and Mrs. Thomas G. Harvey of Indianapolis.

The visitors are sisters of Mrs. Humphrey and Mrs. Charles C. Clark, also of Salem. This is the first time the sisters have been together in the past 15 years.

Several affairs are being planned in compliment to Mrs. Harvey and Mrs. Soupe during their stay in Salem.

GREAT BOUQUETS of summer flowers and altar candles will adorn the altar of First Presbyterian church Sunday afternoon at 2 o'clock when lovely Miss Beulah Ann Kearns, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. R. Kearns, becomes the bride of T. S. Paul H. Kimmel, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. Paul H. Kimmel of Elwood City, Pennsylvania.

Mrs. Orrin Vick and Mrs. Frank H. Rhodes will light the altar candles. Mrs. D. B. Kleihege, organist, and Miss Lois Kearns, sister of the bride, violinist, will play the wedding marches and accompany Garland Hollowell, who will sing.

The bride will be escorted to the altar on the arm of her father. She will wear a princess wedding gown of lace fashioned over satin, designed with a short train and sweetheart neck. Her fingertip veil will be held over her titian hair with a quaint ruffled head dress. She will carry a bride's bouquet.

Miss Ruby Kearns will be her sister's maid of honor. She will wear a pale blue dress and carry an arm bouquet of pastel garden flowers. Mrs. Evelyn Haymond, another sister, will be the bridesmaid. She will wear a pale peach frock and carry an arm bouquet of mixed flowers.

The bridegroom's grandfather, Fred Peffer, who arrived Thursday from Elwood City, Pa., with the bridegroom's parents, will stand as best man for his grandson.

A reception will be held directly after the ceremony at the home of the bride's parents with members of the bridal party and the two families attending.

Later the couple will leave for his home in Elwood City, Pa., to visit relatives and friends until the completion of his furlough, when he is to report to Fort Lewis for further orders. He returned only last week from the European war theater, where he served with the famous 104th division.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Salem schools and active in the affairs of the capital's younger set. She has been on the staff of the commission. Her fiancé attended schools in Elwood City before entering the armed service.

Mr. and Mrs. John R. Caughell are returning today from Roseburg, where they were guests of Mrs. Harry Stapleton.

Gay event of next Thursday will be the salmon bake, which will be sponsored by the Izaak Walton league auxiliary at the V.F.W. hall, starting at 6:30 o'clock. Proceeds from the event will go toward the league's building fund.

The decorations will feature the patriotic motif and arrangements of summer flowers in brilliant shades.
