

MR. AND MRS. ROY NELSON were honored on their 25th wedding anniversary Monday night when a group of close friends entertained with a no-host surprise party at their home in North 19th street. Supper was served following an informal evening.

Honoring Mr. and Mrs. Nelson were Mr. and Mrs. Roy Follis, Mr. and Mrs. Glade Follis, Mr. and Mrs. Ellsworth Ricketts, Mr. and Mrs. H. J. Thomas, Mr. and Mrs. James McFarland, Mr. and Mrs. Jacob Furber, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Harvey, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Garnee R. Cranor, Mrs. E. Edman, Rev. George Quigley, Mr. and Mrs. Art Kinman of Milwaukie, Mr. and Mrs. W. M. Staple, Mrs. Ray Webber and Mrs. M. Stephenson.

Mrs. Robert Gentzkow and her two sons, Robert and Douglas, have returned from an extended visit in Pottlatch, Idaho, with Mrs. Leslie Lande. While in Idaho the group enjoyed a stay at Coeur d'Alene.

MRS. CHARLES HARRIS OF MANILA, glimpsed with her two sons, Thomas Sheridan Harris and Charles Waddington Harris. Mr. and Mrs. Harris and their sons are popular visitors in the capital as guests of her mother, Mrs. James Waddington. The visitors recently arrived in the States from Manila, where Mr. Harris was connected with the National City Bank of New York before the Japanese occupation. Mrs. Harris was feted at tea Thursday when Miss Dorthea Steustoff and Mrs. G. F. Chambers were hostesses. (Jesten-Miller)

OF MUCH interest to Salemites is the marriage of Miss Betty Andrews, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Charles L. Andrews of Portland, and Jay Savereid, son of Mrs. S. J. Savereid and the late Mr. Savereid. The ceremony will be solemnized tomorrow at the Arlington Heights' home of the bride's parents.

Rev. Bernard Montgomery will officiate in the presence of Salem and Portland friends.

Mr. Andrews will give his daughter in marriage. The lovely brunette will wear a white satin wedding gown designed along princess lines with a full skirt extending into a court train. Her veil of illusion is trimmed with princess lace, which was worn by her mother when she was married.

The bride has asked Miss Eileen Hutchinson, formerly of Salem and now of Seattle, to be her honor attendant. She will wear a frock of light pink taffeta and carry an arm bouquet of pastel garden flowers.

Mr. Savereid will have George New of Chicago as his best man.

The couple will greet their guests at a wedding reception following the ceremony. Later they will leave on a short wedding trip and upon their return they will come to Salem where they will make their home at the Carkins' apartments in North Summer street.

The bride-to-be is a graduate of Willamette university, where she was prominent in campus activities, and is a member of Pi Beta Phi. Her fiancé is a graduate of Northwestern university.

Lt. and Mrs. James J. Walton and their children, Elisabeth and Jeff, have been enjoying a holiday at Neskowin.

From Bexley Heath, England, comes word of the marriage of Miss Joy A. Beaver, daughter of Mrs. R. Beaver, and Pfc Carl S. Beebe, son of Mr. and Mrs. Roy A. Beebe of Salem. The marriage was solemnized recently in England with the Rev. Mr. Moore officiating.

The bride was given in marriage by her brother, Anthony Beaver, and her bridesmaids were the Misses Margaret Mercer, Barbara Hill and Betty Courchier.

Sgt. Herbert Jaquist was the best man. A small and informal reception followed the ceremony and later the couple left for a honeymoon in Surrey.

House guests of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Kirk at their home in South High street are Mrs. Florence Blackley and son, Terry, who arrived from their home in Oakland, Calif., on Friday, and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Cochran and their daughter, Miss Gwendolyn Cochran, all of Tillamook.

Miss Rosalie Daikie has been entertaining as her guest during the past week her mother and sister, Mrs. Anna Daikie and Miss Ruth Daikie of Aberdeen, Idaho.

MRS. BYRON B. HERRICK and Miss Edna Lucker will entertain informally in the gardens at the former's home in Richmond avenue next Thursday evening in compliment to members of the Salem Zonta club.

A dessert supper will be followed by a business session.

GOVERNOR AND MRS. EARL SNELL will be moving into their new home at 180 East Lincoln street early next week.

Mr. and Mrs. Bruce Spaulding are now "at home" in their new residence, 219 West Lincoln street, formerly occupied by Governor and Mrs. Snell.

Eastern Star Social club will meet for all-day Red Cross sewing at the Masonic temple Tuesday. Luncheon will be served at noon.

THE WEST SALEM METHODIST church was the scene of a beautiful wedding at 2 o'clock Friday afternoon when Miss Idabelle Clark, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Floyd J. Clark of Ontario, became the bride of Lt. Joseph W. Rierson, United States Army Air Corps, son of Mr. and Mrs. Elmer Rierson of West Salem. Rev. Nevett Smith officiated.

White gladioluses and palms graced the church altar. Before the ceremony Miss Elizabeth Nyegaard of Eugene, a classmate of the bride at the Emanuel School of Nursing, sang. Mrs. Raymond Martsof, sister of the bridegroom, played the wedding music.

Mr. Clark gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a wedding gown of white brocade combined with marquisette. The tight bodice was fashioned of brocade and the bouffant skirt was made of the delicate marquisette. Her fingertip veil was held with a Juliet cap and she carried a bride's bouquet of Talisman roses. Her only ornament was a strand of handsome blue heirloom beads, which had belonged to her grandmother.

Miss Lucy Barham of Salem, who was the bride's roommate at Emanuel School of Nursing for three years, was the honor attendant. She wore a quaint model of pink dotted Swiss and her flowers were gardenias.

Wayne Snider, United States Army, was the best man.

Seating the wedding guests were Miss Bonnie Dixon, cousin of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Dick, who was in nurses' training with the bride.

Mrs. Clark wore a navy blue dress and accessories and a corsage of Talisman roses for her daughter's marriage and Mrs. Rierson wore a costume of blue combined with white and a corsage of roses.

A reception followed in the church parlors. Mrs. E. A. Dickson and Mrs. George Lathrop cut the wedding cake and presided at the urns and Mrs. Merle Phillips passed the guest book.

For going away the bride wore a wool crepe dressmaker suit with a white hat and accessories. Her blouse was made of nylon parachute silk, which Lt. Rierson had made into a blouse on the Isle of Capri. Her corsage was of rosebuds.

The bride was graduated from the Emanuel school of nursing this spring. She attended Ontario schools. Her husband also attended Ontario schools and has just returned from Italy, where he has completed his tour of duty as a B-24 pilot. He completed 34 missions. Upon completion of his 30-day leave he will report to Tampa, Fla., for further orders.

Mrs. Wallace Carson and Mrs. Dan McLellan are arranging a luncheon for next Thursday honoring Mrs. Reinhart. The visitor was honored Friday when Mrs. James B. Young presided at luncheon on the terrace of her North Summer street residence.

MEMBERS OF THE General Federation of Women's clubs have sold war bonds totaling $72,509,470 this year to help provide an air armada for the navy, Mrs. Charles W. Robison of Portland, chairman of the Oregon federation, learned this week from the national organization's chairman, Mrs. Mervin G. Pierpont.

The campaign, major project of American clubwomen during the 1944-45 club year, closed June 30. When final figures are tabulated, total sales are expected to reach $100,000,000, Mrs. Pierpont said.

The figure she quoted represented totals for 36 states. Leading the list is Texas with bond sales of over $12,000,000. The Ohio federation was in second place, reporting $6,574,485; Missouri was third with $6,272,100. Others in the top ten were Tennessee, Florida, North Carolina, Michigan, Massachusetts, California and Wisconsin.

Oregon sales reached $811,950, Mrs. Robison said.

The air armada drive was a follow-up to the "buy a bomber" campaign conducted by the general federation in 1943-44, when its women sold enough bonds to "pay for" more than 400 army bombers. Purpose of the air armada effort was to supply the purchase price of eight types of navy planes ranging from Corsair fighters, which cost about $108,000, to Mariner patrol bombers, which cost about $413,000.

Mrs. Sheldon F. Sackett, of Coos Bay, who is the house guest of her mother, Mrs. James Walton, will be in Portland Monday to attend the state board of higher education session.

The home of Mr. and Mrs. G. LaMire was recently the scene of the wedding of their son, Francis LaMire, and Miss Emelia Welkum.

Mrs. Howard Olson played the wedding march and Howard Olson sang.

The bride was dressed in a white gabardine suit with white accessories. She wore a corsage of red roses and gardenias.

Mrs. Charles Warren, sister of the bride, was matron of honor. Mrs. Warren wore an aqua colored suit with light accessories.

Eliwood Obert was Mr. LaMire's best man.

A reception was held after the ceremony at the home of Mrs. Warren. The couple spent a short honeymoon at the Oregon beaches. They will make their home in Salem, where Mr. LaMire is in business.

MORE THAN 600,000 women—all-time high—now are members of the American Legion auxiliary, Mrs. Charles B. Gilbert, its president, announced during the week from national headquarters in Indianapolis.

The 600,000 mark was reached for the first time in the history of the organization when the July membership report showed a gain of 64,359 members over the same date last year. Total enrollment now is 619,231, with additional memberships for 1945 still coming in.

According to Mrs. Earl Templar of Klamath Falls, vice-president and membership chairman of the department of Oregon, membership in this state stands now at 8,278, highest on record. This is more than 1,000 more than the 1944 figures for the same time, which was 7,250.

During the past year the Oregon department has added seven new units Mrs. Templar said, which is the largest number organized in any one year since the early period of expansion in the state group. The new units were chartered at Myrtle Point, Sandy, Independence, Waldport, St. Paul, Central Point and Gold Beach.

New members of the auxiliary are women eligible through the service of men of their families in both World War I and II, and women who themselves have served in the armed forces. Mothers, wives, sisters and daughters of servicemen are not eligible to membership in the auxiliary until the serviceman has been honorably discharged and has become a member of the American Legion. Women members of the families of men who lose their lives in the service are immediately eligible. Women serving in the armed forces are eligible upon discharge.

SGT. AND MRS. BERNARD GENTZKOW of Marysville, Calif., who have been the guests of Mr. and Mrs. Sidney Gentzkow. Sgt. Gentzkow, who served in the Pacific war theater for 22 months, is now stationed at Camp Beale.
