Roths Gather Sunday Reunion

Silverton—A reunion of more than 100 members of the Roth family was held Sunday in the city park with honor guests complimented in observance of the recent marriages of Mr. and Mrs. Christ Rich and his daughter, Helen, to Noel Holzman, all of Orenco.

The Riches, who came from France, are related to the Rothis by marriage. The Rothis are from Switzerland and came to the United States in 1890 with a number of them settling in the North Howell and Salem communities. Christ Rich is president of the Rich and Sons Nursery at Orenco.

Families represented in the large group Sunday included those of the Christ Riches, Theodore Rich, Carl Bestman, David Rich, Sam Rich, Anna Rich, William Rich, Sr. and members of his immediate family, the W. A. Roth, John Roth, Ernest Roth, Henry Roth, Mrs. Ida Herr, the Ralph Herr, Mrs. Marjorie Rinko, the Ben Orenco, Mrs. E. J. Roth of Salem, John Roth, Sr., their granddaughter, Mrs. Lillian Brennan and daughter, the Theo Roth and grandson, Dick, all of Salem; the Rev. Wilbert Rexler family of Pratum, and the Joe Ramsevers.

Divorce Complaints Filed With Clerk

Dallas—Three complaints for divorce were filed Saturday and Monday in circuit court here. Dena L. McDonald charges T. G. McDonald, whom she married in Dallas September 17, 1911, with cruel and inhuman treatment and asks for $75 a month permanent alimony, $100 attorney's fees and $10 suit money.

Susie Bergen asks for custody of two minor children, $100 attorney's fee and $40 a month support money in her complaint charging Bernard Bergen with cruel and inhuman treatment. The couple were married at Herbert, Saskatchewan, Canada, July 4, 1913.

Samuel Hayden Brown charges Mary Jane Brown with cruel and inhuman treatment. They were married January 1, 1938, in Vancouver, Wash. There are no children or property rights involved.

Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Harwood, Allen and Sandra, spent Wednesday in Woodburn visiting his brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Merle Harwood.

Mr. and Mrs. Lee Russel have been in Grants Pass starting a hop-picking machine there the past week.

Mrs. Cleve Robinson, son, Asa, and her mother, Mrs. Josephine Forest left Sunday for a week to take Lt. Leo Forest, brother of Mrs. Robinson, who has been here the past month, to Calgary, Alberta, Canada. From there he will report to Montreal, Quebec, to a veterans' hospital. Lt. Forest, who is with the signal corps, was the first Canadian soldier to enter Rome.

Mrs. H. L. Cox underwent an appendectomy in the Salem General hospital last week.

Mrs. Joe Wilson and daughter, May Russell, have returned from a visit with Mrs. Wilson's sister, Mrs. J. R. Kaughman, at Sulphur, Okla.

Mrs. Robert Mercer has left for Angels Camp, Calif., after a visit with her sister, Mrs. C. H. Harwood.

Visitors in Brooks
Brooks—Mr. and Mrs. Robert Vinyard and daughter Cynthia, and Roy Vinyard, all of Portland, were guests the past week of their mother, Mrs. Willa Vinyard, and brother, Charles Vinyard.

Medcalf Back Home From Mexican Trip

Silverton—John Medcalf of the high school faculty returned to Silverton Monday from a two and a half months' stay in Mexico, continuing courses in language and social life of the people and doing considerable writing.

Medcalf spent most of the summer of 1944 among the Mexicans. He is remaining part time in Salem, where his mother is being cared for, until the opening here of the autumn term of school.

Independence Population Up

Independence—The report of census enumerators who took the census of Independence last week shows a population of 1,605 for the city against 1,372 for the 1940 census. This is an increase of 233, or 16.9 per cent.

The work of taking the census was done under the direction of the secretary of state with the supervisor and enumerators being appointed on the recommendation of Mayor Maurice J. Butler. Mrs. Frances Hunnicutt acted as supervisor and the enumerators were Mrs. Lida Frantz, Mrs. Elizabeth Lawrence, Mrs. Laurene Newton, Mrs. Elsie Boll, Mrs. Alice Hill, Mrs. Barbara Mattison and Mrs. Bernice Frazzke.

Harold F. Philippe of the secretary of state's office organized the work here and laid the city out into seven sections. A. F. Lefor of the same office took the reports of the enumerators and expressed appreciation for the splendid work. Mayor Butler also expressed appreciation of the work of the enumerators and the cooperation received from citizens.

Celebrations Attended
Monmouth—Mr. and Mrs. Miles Pierce and son Sydney Pierce, drove to North Bend over the V-J celebration on business. Flags were displayed, trumpets played, streamers and flags were flying. Warren Nowowiejski joined in the Monmouth and Independence parade celebration.

Silverton—Mrs. Julius Alm submitted to major surgery at the local hospital during the past week and is reported as progressing satisfactorily.

Nichols Heads Fire District

Scioto—Field representatives Taylor and Gilson of the state forester's office at Salem attended a meeting Saturday night in this city of directors of the newly-organized Scioto rural fire protection district.

The state fire marshal's office had been requested by the directors of the local association to furnish certain information and formalities relative to enlarging the district, as additional property owners had signified desire to be included in the territory.

Several matters were discussed at the meeting preparatory to launching a program of activities in the near future in the interest of the local district. Another meeting of directors is scheduled within a short time to initiate important features of the movement.

J. W. Nichols of Shelburn is president and Homer Davis of Crabtree is secretary, other officers having been elected at the organizational meeting of directors in this city a week ago.

Silverton

Mrs. A. C. Dickover has returned from attending the Evangelical camp meeting at Jennings Lodge, having missed only two of the 40 sessions since the meetings were begun.

The Bethany division of the missionary circle of Immanuel Lutheran church will be guests of Mrs. Neils Nelson next Tuesday afternoon.

Miss Betty Hannan, employed at Cambridge, Ida, is at the home of her parents, the William Hannans for a vacation visit.

The Nelson Adams have returned from an outing on the Santiam to care for the harvest.

Polk Teacher Goes to Lane

West Salem, Aug. 21—Mrs. Myrtle Clark, re-elected for the ensuing year as seventh grade instructor, will leave the West Salem teaching staff to accept a position at Eugene as county supervisor of Lane county under Mrs. Lucille Kennedy, county superintendent. Mrs. Clark's new position will be for a three-year period at a much more substantial salary than her contract with the local schools provided.

Mrs. Clark joined the local faculty two years ago coming to West Salem from Woodburn, and in these two years has endeared herself to her co-workers, pupils and patrons. She has taken an active part in 4-H club work and gave her pupils the leadership necessary to bring them top honors in every bond, paper salvage and other war drive directed through the school. Her successor has not been named.

Delayed Missionary Meeting Arranged

Woodburn—Owing to the victory holiday the Missionary meeting of the Presbyterian church, scheduled for last Wednesday, was postponed until this Wednesday at 2:30 o'clock in the main floor social room of the church.

The program will be as previously announced, following a short business session and the devotional period with Mrs. H. F. Butterfield and Mrs. Phillip Zastoupil in charge. Mrs. Zastoupil will illustrate the studies on the blackboard on the topic for the afternoon which is the mission fields in the West Indies and China. Those having curios, books or pictures relating to these or any other mission fields are asked to bring them to add interest to the meeting. An informal social hour will follow the program.
