Deadline for End of World Passes Without Explosion

Pasadena, Calif., Sept. 21 (U.P.)—The deadline for the world's end passed at 7:33 today without comment from its forecaster, the Rev. Charles G. Long. His son, Frank, appeared at the door at 7:34. "The world hasn't ended," he said to reporters and photographers. He invited them to stay until 5:33 p.m., then went back into the house.

Earlier Rev. Long had said the earth might not explode into vapor at exactly 7:33 a.m., but might linger on for another nine days.

The founder and leader of the Remnant Church of God said the Lord told him that he might keep that cosmic bomb behind the pearly gates and not drop it on the world at all "if the peoples repent of their wrongs."

Rev. Long was feeling pretty vexed too, because he just remembered that in that vision back in 1938 the Lord had neglected to tell him whether an ancient or modern calendar was to be used in figuring out the beginning of eternity.

Long had worked out his date with doom on a modern latest model calendar and, as he gloomily pointed out, if the Lord meant him to use the old biblical calendar his present calculations were bound to be way off base.

"Everyone knows that they got things pretty mixed up when they switched from the biblical to the Julian calendar," said Long. "So how am I going to know where to locate my errors?"

But the Lord has whispered flatly that if people don't quit sinning pretty soon, he'll lose his temper and go ahead and let the ethereal thunder rumble—calendar or no calendar.

Stocks Advance Irregularly

New York, Sept. 21 (AP)—A few rails, mines, aviations, utilities and scattered industrials maintained rising inclinations in today's stock market although many leaders were crppled by light selling. Transfers were in the vicinity of 1,400,000 shares.

The inflation angle and the urge to invest idle funds persisted as bullish factors. Accounts were trimmed in numerous instances because of the cloudier labor outlook highlighted by spreading walkouts in oil refining areas. Sales of a stock exchange seat for $72,000, up $4000, was helpful.

Popular most of the time were American Smelting, Cerro De Pasco, Eastern Air Lines, U. S. Smelting, Engineers Public Service, Eastman Kodak, Allied Chemical and Santa Fe. Laggards included U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, Chrysler, General Motors, Texas Co., Standard Oil (N.J.), Sears Roebuck, Du Pont, General Electric, Southern Pacific, Kennecott, International Harvester and Johns-Manville.

Railway bonds exhibited selective strength.

Preliminary Dow-Jones closing averages: Industrials 169.69, off 0.53; rails 58.16, off 0.10; utility 34.18, up 0.07; 65 stocks 66.74, off 0.14. Sales of the big board totaled 1,340,000 shares against 1,500,000 yesterday. Curb volume of 450,000 shares compared with 440,000 Thursday. Bond sales were $6,810,000 against $6,260,000 yesterday.

Fall Wheat at Season Peaks

Chicago, Sept. 21 (U.P.)—Interest centered in evening-up operations on the last day of trade in September contracts on the board of trade today with price changes rapid and September and December wheat and September rye at new season peaks. New seasonal tops in Winnipeg rye, where prices jumped 4½ cents at one point, also had some effect on sentiment.

September contracts went out widely irregular. Rye finished the day off ¾ to up 2¾ cents a bushel; wheat was up ⅞ to off ⅛; corn unchanged to up ¼; oats off ½ to off 2¼, and barley off ½ to up ½.

The trade tended to hold off commitments in wheat until deliveries in the current contract were known. An open interest of nearly 3,500,000 bushels at the start was regarded as greatly reduced before the close.

Some buying in wheat stemmed from reports that the government has secured only about two-thirds of the needed flour for shipment to England. Spot buying, however, by the government agency has been inactive lately.

Consideration was given also to talk of an upward revision in the flour subsidy rate, commercial business being at a standstill because mills claim they cannot sell without loss at present prices.

Bureau Announces Limitation on Hops

Portland, Sept. 21 (AP)—Brewers purchases of the 1945 hop crop will be limited to 150 percent of the amount used to make malt beverages during the year ended June 30, 1945, minus September 1 inventories, the department of agriculture said today.

Domestic requirements will be filled by the 43,000,000 pounds of hops available this year to the American brewing industry, the USDA reported.

The USDA announced a subsidy rate for canned snap beans, 1945 pack, at 11 cents per dozen cans, with adjustments for other container sizes. This is the same as in 1944.

Medford Gets Meters

Medford, Sept. 21 (AP)—This city will start to install parking meters within two months, under a contract signed with Duncan Meter company, Illinois.

"I STOPPED DOSING MY CONSTIPATION A YEAR AGO!"

Says Happy KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN User

If you are still dosing your constipation, don't fail to read this unsolicited letter!

"I'd been troubled with common constipation for years. Tried many kinds of medicines for it. Then, just about a year ago, I tried KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN. I ate it regularly, without missing a day. It helped so much, I have not taken one dose of medicine for constipation since, nor have I confined myself to any diet!" Mr. S. P. Loebe, Charleston, Missouri.

You, too, may be able to free yourself from pills and purgatives for the rest of your life — if your constipation is due to lack of bulk in the diet! Just eat a daily dish of KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN and drink plenty of water! If not satisfied, send empty carton to Kellogg's of Battle Creek. You'll receive double the money you paid for it! KELLOGG'S ALL-BRAN is not a purgative. It's a highly nutritious food made from the vital outer layers of wheat. It's one of nature's most effective sources of gentle-acting, natural bulk.

Get ALL-BRAN at your grocer's. It's made by Kellogg's of Battle Creek and Omaha.
