

Dinner is Event of Thursday

By Rovena Eyre

Major and Mrs. Wolcott Buren and Mr. and Mrs. George Weller entertained with a dinner party at the latter's home in Shipping street Thursday evening in compliment to a group of friends.

Covers were placed for 12 at a table centered with an arrangement of pastel tuberous begonias and lighted pink candles.

Major Buren, who has been home on leave after extended service in the Pacific war theater, will report to Fort Lewis on Saturday, for reassignment.

The Fidelis class of Jason Lee church will gather at the church Saturday night at 6:30 o'clock for a no-host dinner.

Out-of-Towners Arrive for Wedding Rites

Arriving in the capital today from their home in Olympia are Mrs. E. P. Miles, Miss Mildred Miles and Beryl Miles, who are coming down to attend the marriage of Mrs. Miles' niece, Miss Roberta Paulus daughter of Mrs. Juanita Eoff Paulus, and William E. Dunn, Jr., of Woodburn, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Dunn, also of Woodburn, which will be a stellar event of Saturday night at First Presbyterian church.

This evening Mrs. Paulus will entertain with a dinner party preceding the wedding rehearsal. The affair will be held at the home of the bride's uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hibler.

Covers will be placed for Miss Paulus and her fiancée, Mr. and Mrs. William E. Dunn of Woodburn, Mrs. E. P. Miles, Miss Mildred Miles and Beryl Miles, all of Olympia, Rev and Mrs. Chester W. Hamblin, Miss Mary Ann Brady, Miss Betty Lou Blener of Yakima, Miss Jeanne DeMytt, Miss Marilyn Hjort, Miss Brenda Grote, Mrs. LeRoy Grole, Marvin Matson of Woodburn, Charles Dalton of Corvallis, Brooks Beckford of Woodburn, Mr. and Mrs. M. R. Eoff of Yakima, Mrs. Althea Hartley of Los Angeles, Mr. and Mrs. P. J. Hibler and Mrs. Paulus.

Christening Set For John W. Ellis

Christening services will be held at St. Paul's Episcopal church Sunday for little John Wiley Ellis, son of Mr. and Mrs. Dean Ellis, Rev. George Herbert Swift, the rector, will officiate.

Godparents will be Ensign and Mrs. Seth Payson Smith, Roger Ky Putnam will act as proxy for Ensign Smith, who is now serving in the South Pacific war theater.

The little boy's grandparents are Mr. and Mrs. Will P. Ellis of Salem and Mr. and Mrs. Hal Wiley of Jefferson. He has an older sister, Miss Diane.

Albany Matrons to Fete Bride-Elect

Miss Dorothy Cornelius, fiancée of Joseph B. Tompkins, will be the incentive for a luncheon and kitchen shower Saturday in Albany when Mrs. J. Fred Braley and Mrs. D. E. Brunskill entertain at the Braley residence.

Motoring to Albany for the affair will be Miss Cornelius, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, Mrs. Rex W. Davis, Mrs. Howard Jenks, Mrs. J. N. Chambers and Mrs. Claude Murphy.

Be sure to cook milk and eggs at low temperatures to prevent them from becoming tough and stringy.

... made with CINCH CORN BREAD MIX Each package contains ALL necessary ingredients. Just add water, mix and bake. Try this! Split muffins, fill with a dab of butter and jelly and replace in oven for a minute or two.

Try Cinch Waffles and Cinch Hot Cakes, Too!

A CINCH FOR FLAVOR

Mrs. T. A. Livesley Welcomed Home

Being welcomed home from a month's sojourn in Geneva, New York, is Mrs. Thomas Albert Livesley, who went east to visit her son-in-law and daughter, Mr. and Mrs. Stuart Bush, and to welcome her grandson, Asael Bush.

Mr. Bush has recently been transferred from Geneva to Long Island, N.Y., where he is stationed as a pharmacist's mate with the United States Navy. Mrs. Bush will be remembered as Patricia Livesley.

Veteran is Engaged to Miss Pease

Interesting romantic news being announced today by Mr. and Mrs. F. W. Pease is the engagement of their daughter, Miss Thelma Pease, and Hugh D. Baker, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Baker, also of Salem.

The bride-elect is a popular member of Salem's younger set. Her fiancé, who is a graduate of Salem schools, served with the 41st division in the Pacific war theater and received his discharge July 29.

No definite date has been set for the wedding but it will probably be an event of the fall. The couple plan to make their home in Salem following their marriage.

Miss Marjorie Wells Feted at Supper

A group of the city's young club women gathered at the Y.W.C.A. Wednesday night to honor Miss Marjorie Wells, who recently arrived from Riverside, Calif., to assume the position of program director of the young adult group at the Salem Y.W.

Mrs. Harry Belt and Mrs. C. W. Parker of the Y.W.C.A. social committee arranged the affair. A dessert supper was served, followed by an informal evening.

Covers were placed for Miss Wells, Miss Sybil Spears, Miss Carolyn Brady, Miss Jessica Kinsey, Miss Lillian Kayser, Miss Civilla Reehner, Miss Ellen Van Arsdale, Miss Helen Wilson, Mrs. Else Allen, Mrs. Louise Jones, Mrs. Fred Gast, Mrs. Donald Gwinnup, Mrs. Carl Halvorson, Mrs. Charles E. Prince, Mrs. Wheeler R. English and Mrs. Esther Little.

Junior Woman's Club in Session

Woodburn — The Woodburn Junior Woman's club held its first fall meeting Wednesday evening at the library club rooms with Mrs. Eugene Stoller presiding.

Projects discussed for the coming year included the city swimming pool, stalls for bicycles to be placed on the business streets, ways and means of raising funds and the sponsoring of the Camp Fire Girls and Bluebirds, the club to secure guardians for these two organizations. It was also planned to assist in the Red Cross sewing and members appointed to sew at the Red Cross rooms this Friday, September 21, were Mrs. H. Schwarzin and Mrs. Harold Steele and for September 28 Mrs. Wayne Wood and Mrs. Leslie Paulson.

Mrs. Stoller announced the following chairmen of standing committees for the year: membership, Mrs. Robert Hartman; program, Mrs. Lawrence Herr; publicity, Mrs. Floyd Maricle and parliamentarian, Mrs. M. D. Woolley.

Following the meeting the members engaged in a clay modeling contest with the prize going to Mrs. Clyde Graham.

Refreshments were served by

(Continued on Page 7)

WONDERSTOEN-GROOMED!

Once you learn the simple Wonderstoen trick of erasing hair from legs and arms, you can always count on exquisite leg-grooming. No more stubble... no more dry, dead, scaly skin with Wonderstoen! It smooths the legs to a fine silkiness as it removes hair.

Wonderstoen is odorless... nothing to spill, stain, or prepare. And safe, too!

$3.00 for a whole season of lovely, self-assured legs!

WILLET'S Capital Drug Store Corner State & Liberty Sts Phone 3118

Prof. John L. Knight is Slated as BPW Speaker

Salem Business and Professional Women's club will hold its first meeting of the autumn season Tuesday night at 6:30 o'clock at the Golden Pheasant with Miss Ida Mae Smith presiding. Dr. John L. Knight, assistant professor of religion at Willamette university, has been secured as the speaker and he will talk on "Making Peace with Ourselves."

Prof. John L. Knight, Jr., who will speak on "Making Peace With Ourselves" before members of the Salem Business and Professional Women's club next Tuesday night at the Golden Pheasant. Prof. Knight is assistant professor of religion at Willamette university and also serves as counsellor on religious life. He holds degrees from Drew, Boston and Vanderbilt universities.

Visitors are Here from Los Angeles

Delightful guests in Oregon's capital are Mr. and Mrs. Charles Hanley of Los Angeles, who have been house guests of Mr. and Mrs. Hugh McCain, Mrs. Hanley and Mrs. McCain are sisters.

Mr. Hanley is going east to New York on business on Mrs. Hanley will remain in Salem with her brother-in-law and sister until his return to the western seaboard.

Several informal affairs are being planned for Mrs. Hanley's pleasure.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

The Rickey Garden club ladies were divided into four groups to can fruits at the community cannery last week, for use in the hot lunch program at Rickey school, which the club sponsors. The results of their labors are 70 gallons of peaches, 35 gallons of pears, 42 gallons of prunes, 30 gallons of tomatoes, 53 No. 2 1/2 cans of tomato juice and 14 No. 2 1/2 cans of peaches. Some fruits were donated, the remainder was financed by funds from the lunch project.

The group will meet Thursday morning to clean the school house in preparation for the opening of school September 24. Refreshments were served by the hostess assisted by Mrs. Kingler.

Chi Omega Tea Event Of Sunday

Active and alumnae members of Chi Omega sorority are arranging a smartly appointed tea for Sunday afternoon at the North Thirteenth street residence of Mrs. William Connell Dyer in compliment to a group of girls entering Willamette university in the autumn.

Calling hours will be from 2 to 4 o'clock. Miss Dorothy Boyd will greet the guests at the door and Miss Patricia Weinstein will introduce to the receiving line, which will include Miss Harriet Stewart, house president; Mrs. Dyer, Mrs. George Hill, alumnae president and Mrs. Earl Snell.

Alternating at the urns will be Mrs. B. O. Schucking, Mrs. Conrad Paulus, Mrs. Ralph Dobbs and Mrs. Paul Nieswander. Assisting informally will be Miss Patricia Miller, Miss Barbara Correll and Miss Jean Robinson.

The tea committee includes the Misses Barbara Crawford and Betty Staab.

PERM PUSH WAVERS $3.50 Extra for Finerware or Hairdress Open Thursday Eve. by appointment Phone 3663 Castle Permanent Wavers 305 First National Bank Bldg.

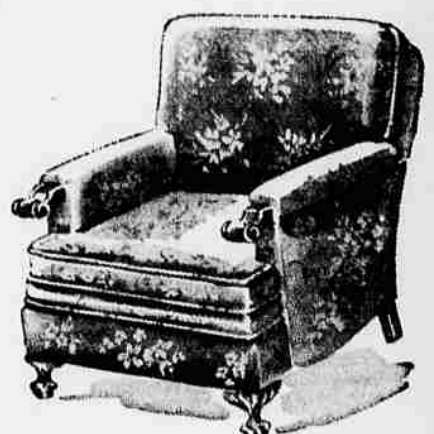

PREPARE FOR THE GREAT Homecoming!

Be ready to welcome that hero of yours in a home that makes up for all the comforts he's been missing so long! He'll appreciate home now more than ever before.

CONVENIENT TERMS

Gevirtz offers many outstanding values on monthly or weekly terms arranged to suit your budget.

QUEEN ANNE LOUNGE CHAIR

A handsome and luxuriously comfortable lounge chair of distinctive period styling. Spring-filled T-shape cushion seat; grip arms. $89.75

BEAUTIFUL LAMPS $11.95

Choose a smart table lamp to brighten up that drowsy room! We've a lovely selection of varied styles with decorative vase bases, graceful shades.

JUNIOR REFLECTOR LAMPS

Has beautifully finished metal base that is weighted for extra sturdiness, fluted stand, pleated rayon shade. Soft, indirect light. $27.75

BOUDOIR CHAIRS $29.95

Colorful and comfortable, nicely designed, neatly tailored in gay floral fabric. Pleated skirt. Choice of colors.

Use Our Friendly Credit Plan!

Enjoy New Furniture While Paying!

Drapery and Gift Dept.

- LACE CURTAIN PANELS 2.49 each
- RAYON PRISCELLAS 7.49 pair
- COTTON MARQUETTE 55c yd.
- RAYON TAFFETA SHOWER CURTAINS 59c each
- METAL RODS 15c & 19c
- GLASS NESTED ASH TRAYS 75c set
- MIRROR PLAQUES 1.89 each
- CARD TABLE COVERS 1.98
- POTTERY VASES 1.39 to 4.95 each
- RED WING DINNER POTTERY WARE - OPEN STOCK

275 N. LIBERTY STREET, SALEM

No card tables so beautiful... none so well made... as

"Castlewood" Card Tables

by MORTON

WITH THE PATENTED LEG-LOCK FEATURE

Each a masterpiece of design and workmanship! Perfectly-matched, genuine veneered tops: some with marquetry inlays, others with figured genuine mahogany borders.

17.95

27 inches high... just right for playing and for serving. 30 inch tops, hand-rubbed to a high gloss finish. Each leg locks in position individually with a patented, button-release, automatic control. Easy to operate, and absolutely fool-proof.

THE ONLY FOLDING CARD TABLES WITH THIS PATENTED BUTTON-RELEASE LEG-LOCK FEATURE

"A little down on a big bill"

GEVURTZ