

Auxiliary In Session On Monday

By Rovena Eyre

Rev. George H. Swift, rector of St. Paul's Episcopal church, spoke before the American Legion auxiliary Monday night at the Salem Woman's clubhouse, choosing as his topic, "Crack of Doom or Break of a New Day."

Mr. Swift reviewed the past 25 years in retrospect and warned that there should not be a "repeat performance" of those events which led to World War II. He stressed the necessity of the four great world powers sticking together in the ensuing years and the protection and proper use of the atomic bomb.

Mrs. Austin H. Wilson presided at the session and introduced committee chairmen who in turn presented their committee members. Convention reports were given by Mrs. Wilson, Mrs. I. N. Bacon, Mrs. Don Madison, Mrs. Paul Ficke, Mrs. E. W. Richey, Mrs. James A. Garson, Mrs. A. W. Lovick and Mrs. Merle Travis.

The auxiliary voted to contribute $15 to the United War Chest and to give $20 each month to the Child Welfare and Rehabilitation fund of the auxiliary. Members will assist in the approaching D.A.V. forget-me-not sale.

Mrs. Staton gave a splendid demonstration of the adaptability of various plant materials to the "right" container. Some of her floral designs were formal while others created an amusing motif. She made interesting use of the proper use of accessories with the container and flowers making up the design of the whole.

Miss Elizabeth Lord, club vice president, presided at the business session and introduced the speaker. The Garden club accepted membership into the Salem Council of Women's Organizations. Reports were given on the recent dahlia and fuchsia shows in Portland.

Following Mrs. Staton's talk tea was served by Mrs. Walter H. Smith and Mrs. Lee Canfield. Miss Edith Schryver, club vice-president, presided at the tea table, which was covered with a handsome wisteria-colored cloth and centered with a striking arrangement of fall flowers in plum and rose shades.
