

MRS. ROYAL TYLER HAYES, the former Miss Dorothy Wohlgemuth, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. William Wohlgemuth, whose marriage was an outstanding event of last Sunday afternoon at First Evangelical church. Below, Mr. and Mrs. Hayes and their wedding party are shown leaving the church altar after the impressive ceremony. The bridegroom, son of Mr. and Mrs. Jesse T. Hayes, has just been discharged after three and a half years in the Asiatic war theater. (Jessen-Miller).

BEAUTIFUL in every detail will be the marriage of Miss Pauline Riensche, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Herbert Riensche, and Lt. Kenneth Eugene Schilling, United States army, son of Mrs. Etta Schilling of Ashland, which will be solemnized at 8 o'clock Sunday evening in the American Lutheran church with Rev. Mark Getzen-daner officiating.

The altar will be lighted with altar tapers, with Miss Irene deVries and Miss Joanne Donaldson, wearing blue frocks, serving as candle-lighters. White chrysanthemums will adorn the altar. Before the ceremony Miss Gladys Queseth will sing and Prof. Maurice Brennan will play the wedding marches.

The bride will be given in marriage by her father. She will wear a wedding gown of heavy ivory satin, designed with a fitted bodice, ruffled neckline and a full skirt extending into a court train. Her fingertip veil is edged with lace and caught in a coronet with seed pearls and she will carry a white Bible topped with an orchid. Her only ornament will be a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom.

Miss Ruth Riensche will be her sister's maid of honor. She will wear a dress of pale peach satin designed along princess lines and her coronal corsage will be made of pastel garden flowers.

Miss Lucille Roth and Miss Sybil Brown, the bridesmaids, will wear frocks of yellow marquisette and blue satin combined with net. They, too, will carry coronal nosegays.

Little Miss Sharon Johnson, the flower girl, will wear a pink Kate Greenway frock. The ring bearer will be Donald Tonack, the bride's nephew.

Everett Sandburg of North Bend will be the best man and ushers will be Sgt. Merritt Schilling, the bridegroom's brother, just home from the European war theater, and James Elsea of Elma, Calif.

The bride's mother will wear a black sheer dress trimmed in white and a corsage of gardenias. Mrs. Schilling will wear a navy blue dress and pink flowers for her son's marriage.

A reception will follow with the bride couple and their attendants receiving the guests.

The bride's table will be covered with a handsome cloth and centered with the bride's cake, pink and white bouvardia and lighted tapers. Mrs. William Roth will preside at the urns and Mrs. Ida Herr will cut the wedding cake and Mrs. J. A. Sholseth, the brides, Mrs. Paul Riensche will be in charge of the dining room.

Assisting in serving will be the Misses Eleanor Danielson, Marjorie Wells, Marion Boyle, Shirley and Donna May Ludahl, Joyce Eversen and Lois De Bow.

Miss Louise Schilling, sister of the bridegroom, will pass the guest book.

For traveling the bride will wear a black suit under a short black top coat. Her hat and accessories will be of black and she will wear a corsage of orchids. After their wedding trip the couple will make their home in Eugene, where he will attend the University of Oregon.

The bride is a graduate of the Southern Oregon College of Education and has been on the faculty of McKinley school. She has been widely feted in the weeks prior to her marriage.

Lt. Schilling is just home from three years service in Iceland and in the European war theater. He is also a graduate of the Southern Oregon College of Education, where he met his future bride.

The Sunshine Sewing club of Hazel Green will meet Wednesday, October 17, at 2 o'clock, with Mrs. D. L. Runkle in Van Cleave road, with Mrs. Hattie Van Cleave as co-hostess. All members are urged to attend.

Miss Dorothy Mann, whose marriage to Arlo Young of Union will be solemnized October 28 at the South Commercial street residence of L. N. Young, was feted Thursday night by Mrs. Albert Vico.

A pre-nuptial shower feted the bride-to-be and supper was served following an informal evening.

Bidden to honor Miss Mann were Miss Fay Welty, Mrs. Maude Rawlins, Miss Maxine Welty, Mrs. Leone Rawlins, Mrs. Clyde De Sart, Mrs. James A. Scott, Mrs. R. A. Rawlins, Mrs. Opal Marshall, Mrs. C. R. Rawlins, Mrs. Elsie Bone, Mrs. Lillian Brown, Mrs. Paul Purvis, Mrs. A. R. Purvis, Miss Mary Purvis, Mrs. Agnes Bennett, Mrs. Ted Welty, Miss Zori Jackson, Miss Marian Carter, Mrs. Viola Carter, Mrs. Boneta Dupy, Miss Len Kelgore, Mrs. A. D. Young, Mrs. E. A. McDonald, Miss Marion McDonald and the hostess, Mrs. Albert Vico.

The annual conference of Women's Society of Christian Service will be held in Albany next Wednesday and Thursday, October 17 and 18, at the First Methodist church with many Salem matrons planning to be in attendance.

Because of the conference the meeting of the Salem group has been postponed until Wednesday evening, October 24, at 7:30 o'clock. Over 100 additional guests have been invited to the meeting on that night.

Woodburn—The Woodburn American Legion auxiliary held its regular meeting Wednesday night with a large attendance of members and visitors. Nettie Johnson presided over the business meeting and appointed Mrs. Floyd Maricle, Mrs. Blaine McCord and Mrs. Gerald Smith as the refreshment committee for the November meeting.

For the sewing meeting, October 31, Mrs. Johnson and Mrs. W. S. Scarborough were appointed as the hostess committee.

A talk on membership was given by Mrs. Melvin Johnson, membership chairman, and two new members were received.

At the close of the meeting Bob Dilard, state service officer of the American Legion, gave a talk and answered questions. An afghan, made by Miss Mabel Livesay, was presented to the auxiliary, which will be given to a hospital.

Refreshments were served by a committee from the Legion, assisted by auxiliary members.

On Wednesday, October 17, leaving at 8:30 a.m., the Salem, Corvallis and Dallas Camp Fire Guards and Blue Bird leaders will take a field trip to Camp Elmore, located near Falls City on the coast. Guards of the fifth and sixth grades will hold their training course meeting at the first Presbyterian church club room, the first to be October 24, to study the objectives of Camp Fire Girls, music and record keeping. The November 7 meeting is to cover the study of symbolism. November 14, handcrafts, and November 21 a review of the activities of the committee of awards for Trail Seekers, ceremonials and council fires will be discussed.

Blue Bird leaders will hold all training course meetings in the Camp Fire office, 219 Oregon building, mornings at 8:30 a.m. the first on October 24 for business and handcrafts, the second on November 7 for music and folk dancing, November 14 for story telling, November 16, program planning and on November 20 a regular meeting of the Blue Bird association will be held.

The junior high school and advanced Camp Fire guards will meet in the Camp Fire office evenings, beginning at 7:30, the first to be October 24 on advanced symbolism and handcrafts, October 31, handcrafts, November 7, projects for older girls, November 14, the advanced November 21, committee of awards and advanced ceremonial.

A training course certificate for completion of all work and attendance at the meetings will be awarded eligible guards and leaders at the end of the course. Many changes are being made in group leaders this fall and as usual the demands of girls wishing to belong to Camp Fire and Blue Birds is greater than the leadership available.

Miss Kay Lovett will be guardian for the Highland girls now in junior high. Mrs. Daisy Chance is meeting with girls in junior high from Garfield and Grand schools, and Mrs. W. C. Cavender with girls from Richmond district now at Leslie. Harrison club girls held their initial meeting October 8 at the Camp Fire office, making extensive plans for the fall season with their president, Suzanne Eustine presiding and group advisor Mrs. Emma Maxwell in attendance.

Many other groups in Salem and West Salem have already had their first fall meetings. The group in West Salem, led by Mrs. F. C. Bell, reports that they have acquired the use of a barn which the girls are busy preparing for a club room. Of interest to many Salem residents is the notice that Mrs. George W. Barnhill has returned to Salem and is assisting Mrs. Emma Maxwell, executive secretary, in Camp Fire headquarters. For the past three years she has been a member of the Portland area staff as area field secretary after completing training at executive school at Mills College.
