

Butter to Cost Fewer Points But More in Cold Money

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—Agriculture Secretary Anderson said today that rationing will be continued in November although point values may be lowered. His announcement at a news conference followed disclosure that ration points for butter also may be cut next month, even though costs may go up.

Anderson said the decision to continue meat rationing stemmed largely from commitments made to supply meat to foreign countries. Rationing, he said, will make it easier to obtain supplies for overseas shipments.

Many lower grade meats and some choice cuts already have been eliminated from the ration list.

Anderson also told reporters he still hopes that food subsidies can be ended by next July 1.

The first step in that direction came with the cancellation of a government subsidy to but-

Stocks Advance Only to Slump

New York, Oct. 19 (AP)—Assorted liquors, steels, motors and specialties operated at new bull market highs for a while today but many leading stocks acted as though they were suffering from fatigue after their lengthy climb and late selling undermined virtually all departments.

Top gains running to two or more points were reduced or canceled in the majority of cases near the close.

Transfers were in the neighborhood of 1,700,000 shares.

Touching peaks for the year or longer at one time or another were U. S. Steel, Distillers Corp., Schenley, Paramount Pictures, Mid-Continent Petroleum and General Realty.

Exempt Oregon On Army Meat

Washington, Oct. 19 (AP)—The agriculture department has exempted 10 states from supplying beef, veal and mutton to the government under a requisition program reestablished last week.

Under the program, federally inspected packers were required to set aside for government purchase 30 to 50 percent of their beef production, 40 percent of utility grade veal and 20 percent of mutton.

The states exempted under today's action were Montana, Idaho, Wyoming, Utah, Nevada, Arizona, Washington, Oregon, California and Florida.

The department said the action should not materially affect the amount of meat which will be available to United States civilians.

Markets Briefed

(By the United Press) Stocks irregularly lower in moderately active trading. Bonds irregular; U. S. governments higher.

Mexican Nut Pickers Strike

Hillsboro, Ore., Oct. 19 (AP)—Walnut harvesting in this area was held up today by a strike of 170 Mexican pickers demanding 3 cents a pound or $1 an hour.

Farm Labor Assistant Roy L. Davidson said the state labor commission would have to change its rate of 1 cent a pound or 15 cents a bucket to effect a raise, and growers' approval would be necessary.

Last year Mexican pickers earned $18 a day at the commission-set rate, Davidson reported. Shakers now earn $1 an hour, but few Mexicans have that job.

Rebel Military

The state department's cables from Ambassador Corrigan were, at least in some instances, timed at 9 p.m. yesterday, Venezuelan time, but were not filed until daybreak today.

Inquiry disclosed that cable communication between the embassy at Caracas and the state department was interrupted during the night.

The state department said that an American officer of the embassy was on his way from the embassy to the cable office when he was fired upon near the Plaza Bolivar.

He was forced to turn back and that resulted in the delay in Corrigan's dispatches to Washington.

There was no authoritative word on the issues involved. Venezuelan sources here speculated that lower rank army officers perhaps were displeased with the two presidential candidates for the presidency and may have revolted to take over the government.

They said the fact that Alfonso Biaggiani, a civilian, has been nominated for the presidency may have had something to do with the army's desire to revolt.

This is the first time in Venezuelan constitutional history that a civilian has received the nomination.

War Criminals

Robert Ley, Nazi labor front leader, asked: "When should I request counsel? Is it necessary for me to reply to the indictment?"

Franz von Papen, once German chancellor and her wartime ambassador to Turkey, was wearing knickers and a grey coat when his indictment was delivered.

Grand Adm. Karl Doenitz, once commander in chief of the German navy and Hitler's successor as fuhrer in the last days before surrender, was wearing a double breasted suit of naval design without insignia.

He apparently was prepared because on being handed the indictment, he gave the bearer slips of paper containing the names of two lawyers he wants to defend him.

Crying like a baby, Funk said: "I would like to see some officer appointed by the court in order to discuss my defense. I can request counsel at once, can't I?"

Told he would have every chance to see counsel, Funk shouted through his tears: "I am trying to preserve my health. I have the greatest interest in the conclusion of this trial."

Austere Field Marshal Wilhelm Keitel, chief of the German high command, commented: "I would like to get in touch with my brother-in-law, but he has not replied to my letters. He lives in Hannover and I want him to choose my counsel for me."

The official announcement said the international military tribunal of the United States, Russia, Great Britain and France "has fixed Tuesday, 20/11/45 (Nov. 20) as the date for the beginning of the trial at the Palace of Justice in Nurnberg of the defendants against whom an indictment was lodged in Berlin Thursday, 18/10."

Also named in the indictment were Rudolf Hess, Hermann Goering, Erich Raeder, Gustav Krupp von Bohlen und Halbach, Alfred Rosenberg, Martin Bormann, Arthur Seyss-Inquart, Hans Fritzsche and Baldur von Schirach.

Bormann has not been reported in custody and probably will be tried in absentia.
