

East Salem Offering Annual Chicken Dinner at Swegle

East Salem, Nov. 1—The annual chicken dinner given by the women of Swegle community will be served in the gymnasium of the school building Saturday night between the hours of 5:30 and 8 o'clock. The dinner is held at this time so that purchases may be made of some of the surplus army equipment from the kitchens and dining rooms of the camps. Equipment is needed in the kitchen for the serving of hot lunches and schools have a priority in the sale of this kitchen equipment.

Rebekah Convention Held at Falls City

Falls City—The District No. 3 Rebekah convention was attended by Dallas, Independence, Monmouth, Falls City and Ballston lodges.

The women of the Methodist church served a dinner at noon and a lunch at 5 p.m. The president of the Rebekah Assembly, Mrs. Ethel Bailey and her husband of Roseburg attended. They stayed over for the initiatory work in the evening. A gift was presented to her by Mrs. Jessie Moyer from the lodge and refreshments were served at the close of the meeting.

Living Memorial Planned at Canby

Aurora—Plans for a living memorial in the form of a community center, highlighted by interest in welfare of ten-agers, were the chief topic of discussion at a recent meeting at Canby high school, attended by representatives from 18 local groups, including churches, lodges and patriotic associations, under the leadership of the Kiwanis living memorial committee. C. E. Johnson is committee chairman.

Potter Rites Held At Stayton Today

Mill City—Lyle C. Potter, prominent lumberman, died suddenly at his home here Monday of a heart attack. For the past five years, he was associated with the Mill City manufacturing company, coming here from Scholls, Ore., where he was in the general merchandise business.

He is survived by his wife, Dorothy, a daughter, Lyla; his mother, Mrs. Elsie Potter, all of Mill City; two brothers, Col. Willis Potter, U. S. army in Korea and Lyle Potter of Mill City. Funeral services were held Thursday afternoon from the Weddle Funeral home in Stayton.

Turner

The Sunshine club cleared $100 on the public sales dinners. The next regular meeting of the club will be held November 7 at the home of Mrs. Edith Mellis.
