

Couple Wed in St. Mary's Rites

St. Mary's church at Mt. Angel was decorated with lighted cathedral tapers and white, pink and yellow chrysanthemums Thursday morning for the marriage at 8:15 o'clock of Miss Mildred Hettwer, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hettwer, to Ben Andreas of Gervais, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Andreas of Portland. The nuptial high mass and double ring service was read by Rev. Vincent Koppert, OSB.

Miss Eustelle Bauman and Miss Pauline Saafield sang before the service. Bernard Smith, cousin of the bride, was soloist after the ceremony. Miss Helen Keber, accompanist, played the wedding marches.

Mr. Hettwer gave his daughter in marriage. She wore a white taffeta, round-necked gown fashioned with chiffon yoke held by a ruffle of French lace on a fitted bodice, long sleeves pointed at the wrist, self covered buttons centering the back, and the full skirt ending in a long court train. A coronet of tulle edged in orange blossoms held in place the double bridal veil finished with French lace. She wore a string of pearls and carried a white missal topped by an orchid with satin streamers, and a silver rosary.

Miss Rosemary Hettwer, as maid of honor for her sister, wore a gown of pink taffeta, styled with a round chiffon-inserted neckline outlined with bow appliques of taffeta, puffed sleeves, fitted bodice and full skirt. Her Mary Stuart head-dress was of pink net. She carried pink chrysanthemums.

Miss Lorraine Andreas of Portland, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Dorothy Hettwer, sister of the bride, were bridesmaids. Their gowns of blue taffeta and their blue Mary Stuart head-dresses were fashioned like the maid of honor's. Their flowers were of yellow baby chrysanthemums.

Best man was John Andreas of Portland, brother of the bridegroom, and ushers were Henry Berning of Gervais, Albert Bochsler and Harold Wellman. Cousins of the bride serving the nuptial mass were Donald Shepherd, James Wellman, Norbert Wellman and Richard Wellman.

The wedding breakfast for the bridal party and parents, immediately following the nuptials, was served at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Hettwer. Serving were Mrs. Albert Bochsler and Mrs. Lucy Kahut of Woodburn, aunts of the bride.

Dinner was held at the Mt. Angel hotel at 12:30 o'clock with covers for 50 guests. The bride's table in white was centered by a square four-tiered wedding cake, pink and yellow chrysanthemums and flanked by lighted candles. Serving were Mrs. Francis Hammelman, Miss Eileen Shepherd of Seattle and Miss Rena Schaefer.

The reception was held at the Memorial hall during the afternoon. Serving refreshments and the wedding cake were Miss Dorothy Miller and Miss Betty Miller of Woodburn, Miss Evelyn Gilles, Misses Mary and Ann Bean and Miss Gladys Lulay. The guest book was passed by Miss Rosella Gooley. Assisting and pouring coffee were Mrs. Forest Sauvain of Woodburn, Mrs. F. J. Schwab, Mrs. T. Hoffer and Mrs. R. J. Welton.

For going away the bride chose a black crepe dress, blue topcoat and black accessories, and wore an orchid. Following a wedding trip the young couple will be at home in Salem.

Hubbard — At the regular meeting of the Hubbard Woodman's club, held Wednesday, November 7, at the home of Mrs. L. M. Scholl, the members enjoyed a short movie of Boy Scouts, shown by Lyle Leighton, scout executive, followed by a short talk by Mr. Leighton on the club's responsibility in sponsoring a Boy Scout troop.

Also present during the afternoon was Mrs. Emma Maxwell, Camp Fire executive, who spoke in the interest of the Camp Fire work. The club sponsors both Boy Scouts and Camp Fire Girls in the community.

Mrs. A. O. Soderholm gave an interesting report on "Hawaii," this in connection with the club's study of "Island Possessions of the United States."

Sponsoring a course in home nursing is now under discussion and investigation. The club has also undertaken the Victory bond drive under the leadership of the president, Mrs. Lester Will.

Members attending the Marion County Federation meeting held at Liberty were Mrs. Lester Will, Mrs. Edward Schoor, Mrs. Albert Murphy and Mrs. Grace H. Cramer.

After adjournment the assistant hostesses Mrs. Levi Miller and Mrs. Fred Schneider, served refreshments.

Eola Club Lists Officers for Year

The Eola Women's club met at the home of Mrs. Nellie Ferguson Wednesday afternoon with Mrs. J. W. Adams acting as hostess.

A no-host luncheon was served at 1 o'clock followed by the business meeting with the president, Mrs. Adams, presiding.

Guests were Mrs. Mattie Carr and Mrs. R. J. Ferguson. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Robert Brown at Monmouth, November 28.

Homecoming for Royal Neighbors

The annual homecoming meeting of Oregon Grape Camp, Royal Neighbors of America, was held in the VFW hall Wednesday night. A no-host dinner was served in the dining room at 7 o'clock.

The tables were beautifully decorated with crystal centerpieces and fall flowers. Fall flowers also decorated the lodge rooms upstairs, where an open meeting was held following the dinner, with the orator, Mrs. Frank M. Hoyt presiding.

Sarah Peterson, state orator, and Mrs. Mabel Miles, were welcomed as honor guests. A memorial service was held in honor of Mrs. May Abbe.

A history of the camp was given by Mrs. Sarah Petersen, tracing the growth of the camp from February 7, 1899, to the present time, the membership having grown from 21 charter members to 250 adult and 53 juveniles at the present time.

A reading, "Memories," was given by Mrs. Gertrude Walker, twice orator of the camp in past years. A gift was presented to Rose Abbott, for the member present who had belonged to the camp the longest, 46 years.

Mr. and Mrs. Earl Kassen were present gifts for the newest members. The gift for the member attending from the farthest distance was presented Mrs. Hattie Rodgers of Portland. Several musical numbers made up the rest of the program. About 150 members and friends attended the meeting. Committee chairmen were Mrs. Winston Purvine, Mrs. Stanley Quamme, Mrs. George Speed, Mrs. Floyd Bewley, Mrs. F. C. Pratt and Mrs. Sarah Peterson.

PEO Entertains State Organizer

Woodburn—Mrs. Oveta Barnes, of Portland, state organizer of the PEO Sisterhood, paid her official visit to chapter J Thursday evening at the home of Mrs. O. L. Withers. The work of the chapter was put on for the inspection of Mrs. Barnes.

A memorial service was held for Miss Mary Scollard, past president and member for many years who died October 30. Mrs. L. S. Mochel gave a reading with musical accompaniment by Mrs. Neal Butterfield.

Mrs. Virgil Haller, formerly of Woodburn, a member of chapter AW of Portland, of which Mrs. Barnes is a member, accompanied the organizer to Woodburn and was a special guest.

Refreshments were served by the hostess, assisted by Mrs. Kenneth McGrath and Mrs. H. F. Butterfield.

Preceding the meeting a 6 o'clock dinner was given by Mrs. Kenneth McGrath at her home for the officers and guests. Covers were placed for Mrs. E. J. Allen, Mrs. Paul Mills, Mrs. Jack Barnes, Mrs. Clair Nibler, Mrs. J. Melvin Ringo, Mrs. Fred Odgers, Mrs. McGrath, and the honored guests, Mrs. Oveta Barnes and Mrs. Virgil Haller.

Marion-Polk county medical auxiliary will meet Tuesday evening at the home of Mrs. Willard Thompson, 1598 State street, at 6:30 o'clock.

St. Vincent De Paul Altar Society is sponsoring a card party on Tuesday evening at 8 o'clock at the St. Vincent De Paul Parish hall.

Legion Women To Convention

Entraining for Chicago Wednesday to attend the national American Legion convention are Mrs. Donald Madison, Mrs. Frank Marshall and Mrs. Earl Anderson.

They will leave on the Portland Rose, to reach Chicago in time for the convention in session from November 17 to 21 with headquarters in the Stevens hotel.

All three are past presidents of Capital unit, American Legion auxiliary. Mrs. Madison completed her presidency this fall, while Mrs. Anderson is state department historian. Mrs. Marshall has also held state committee chairmanships. Other Oregon delegates will join the Salem members in Portland.

The convention program will include committee meetings convening the 17th, and the all-state dinner which will be held the 19th.

Idahoans Are Fed at Dinner

Jefferson—Mr. and Mrs. Albert Cole entertained with a dinner recently at their home five miles northwest of Jefferson, honoring Mr. Cole's brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. Clyde Strayhorn of Hayden Lake, Idaho, who spent two weeks visiting relatives and friends in this community and in Salem.

They will go to Gilman Hot Springs, Calif., for Mrs. Strayhorn's health, before returning home.

Guests included Mr. and Mrs. Howard Baker, Shirley and Perry, of Turner; Mrs. Louanna Whitby and Mrs. Rhea Jamison, Mr. and Mrs. Jay Brown, Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Brown, Mrs. McGrew, Mr. and Mrs. Irwin Lennaburg and family, and Monte Weddle, of Salem; Mr. and Mrs. Robert Edwards Monte, and Miss Gaynell Cole of Portland; Mr. and Mrs. Keith Allen and Gerald, Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Knight and Jack, Mr. and Mrs. W. E. Doty, Donald Cole and the honor guests, Mr. and Mrs. Strayhorn.

Forman-Fellows Marriage Date Set

Silverton—Invitations are in the mail for the marriage of Miss Delores Lorraine Forman, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ernest R. Ekman, to Captain Dean Claude Fellows, of the army of the United States, on Saturday evening, November 17, at 8 o'clock in Centenary-Wilbur Methodist church, Portland. A reception will follow the ceremony in the church parlors. The couple will be at home after December 1 at 2300 Webster street, San Francisco, California.

Choral Group Being Formed

Woodburn—Mrs. Neal Butterfield and Miss Grace Banker are organizing a choral club and everyone, both women and men, who likes to sing is invited to join. The group will meet at the library club rooms Wednesday evening, November 14, at 8 o'clock and those who wish to join should attend this meeting as a Christmas program is being planned. Mrs. Ross Mitchell will direct the club.

Mrs. William Dick of The Dalles is returning to her home today after a visit in Salem with her mother, Mrs. Dan Johnston.

Women's Club Sets Christmas Party

Gates—The Gates Women's club met for an all-day session Thursday at the home of Mrs. A. B. Horner. Each guest brought a covered dish and Miss Eleanor Trindle from Salem gave a demonstration of sugar saving desserts, which were served at the 1 o'clock luncheon.

The business session was held in the afternoon. Mrs. Norman Garrison presided in the absence of the president, Mrs. George Ross.

A bazaar will be given by the club on the evening of December 1 at the club rooms in the high school. The next regular meeting will be the annual Christmas party December 13, when each member is requested to bring a gift for the boxes to be sent to local boys in the service and also one for exchange.
