

Junior Women Plan Dance

The Junior Women's club met last evening at the Woman's club house for a regular business meeting.

Mrs. Calvin Kent was initiated and Mrs. John Anning and Mrs. Irvin Bryan were voted into the club.

Reports were made on the results of the rummage sale and benefit bridge. Mrs. Roy Mink reported on the district convention.

Reporting on plans for the dance to be held November 24 was Mrs. Donald Parker, chairman of the directorate for the affair. She announced that tickets may be obtained from Quisenberry's and from committee members. Directorate for the event is Mrs. Parker, Mrs. Gerald Fisher, Mrs. Arthur Roethlin, Miss Hattie Bratzel, Mrs. Wendall Ewing, Mrs. Daniel Olin and Mrs. Joseph Felton.

Following the business session Miss Margaret Hood led the members in group singing.

Woman's Club Hears Miss Taylor

West Salem, Nov. 13—The Woman's club will open its fall activities Wednesday afternoon, November 14, at a meeting to be held in the council chambers at the city hall. Mrs. Robert Forster, chairman of the hostess committee, has arranged to have Miss Helen Taylor, Polk county war food assistant, as the guest speaker.

Miss Taylor's address, explaining the extension program and giving a brief outline of the demonstration programs, scheduled to be offered in Polk county during the winter season, may afford suggestions for the club's programs during the coming months. Included in the demonstrations to be offered are a sugar stretcher illustration; quick breads, home redecorating, furniture touchup, repair of innerspring cushions, making of slip covers, mending, and home made salad dressings.

All members are urged to bring a guest and a general invitation is extended to all women of the community, as interest evidenced in the extension program will determine whether any demonstrations will be offered under the club's sponsorship and which projects will be selected in the event the women wish to have the work presented in West Salem.

Mrs. Glen Davenport announces that the meeting will be held between the hours of 2 and 4 p.m.

Homer H. Smith Will Be Honored

Hosts for an informal supper party Wednesday evening will be Mr. and Mrs. Homer H. Smith in honor of their son Homer F. Smith, recently returned from the European theater of operations.

Jack Hay, son of Justice and Mrs. Arthur Hay, also recently returned will share honors with Mr. Smith.

Fall blooms will be used to decorate the rooms and supper tables. The evening will be spent informally.

Richmond PTA Meets Tonight

Richmond PTA holds its regular meeting this evening at 7:30 o'clock. The occasion will be an "open house" for parents and friends.

Ben Mosher, a magician from Willamette and the Hungry Five will entertain. Refreshments will be served by the fifth and sixth grade mothers.

Lions Auxiliary Meets at Quelle

The Lion's club auxiliary will meet Thursday afternoon at 1 o'clock for a luncheon at the Quelle. Reservations may be made by calling 5062.

During luncheon Miss Montette Moling will sing and Miss Jean Evans will accompany her.

Following the luncheon, members will gather for the regular business session at the home of Mrs. Harry Scott. During the appropriate hour, tea will be served. Assisting Mrs. Scott will be Mrs. Stuart Walker, Mrs. Kenneth Manning and Mrs. Winston Purvine.

Dr. Maaske Takes Bride

Of interest to Salemites is the news from Laurel, Neb., of the marriage November 6 of Miss Iola Solso, Laurel, to Dr. Robert J. Maaske, president of the Eastern Oregon College of Education at La Grande.

The couple was married at high noon in the Presbyterian church in Laurel and will be at home in La Grande. Dr. Maaske is well known in Salem.

Miss Hatfield to Wed on Saturday

Interesting romantic news is the announcement of the approaching nuptials of Miss Helen Hatfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Earl Hatfield, to Stewart Sharpnack, United States coast guard, son of Mr. and Mrs. Zina Sharpnack. The wedding will take place Saturday evening, November 17, at the First Baptist church. Rev. Dudley Strain will perform the ceremony.

Miss Hatfield has announced that her two sisters, Mrs. Orval Cooley (Mary Virginia Hatfield) and Miss Jean Hatfield, will be her attendants. Miss Marcell Stewart will be the bridesmaid. Announcement of Miss Hatfield's attendants will be made later.

A reception will be held in the church parlors immediately following the reception.

Both young people are well known in Salem. Mr. Sharpnack has just returned from 18 months of overseas duty. He will report to San Francisco for reassignment following a 30-day leave.

Ruef-Minten in Sublimity Rites

Sublimity—The marriage of Miss Dorothy Ruef, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Jerome Dittler, to Pvt. Raymond Minten, son of Mr. and Mrs. Tony Minten, took place at St. Boniface Catholic church of Sublimity on November 8 at 8:30 a. m. Officiating at the nuptial high mass was Rev. Joseph Scherbring.

The bride wore a lace gown with train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a coronet of pearls. She carried a white prayer book with gardenia streamers. She also wore the pearls her mother wore on her wedding day.

Evelyn Ruef, sister of the bride, acted as maid of honor. She wore a gown of light blue chiffon and carried a nosegay of pastel flowers. Jeannie Ruef, also a sister of the bride, wore a gown of pale pink, and also carried a nosegay of pastel flowers.

Dick Minten, brother of the groom, was best man, and Bill Minten, also a brother of the groom, was usher.

Assisting the priest at the mass were Ronnie Ruef, Norman Rauscher, Jackie Gries and Jimmie Gries.

The high mass was sung by students of St. Boniface high school.

The wedding dinner was held at the home of the bride's parents.

Salemites Go To Portland

The Scottish Rite formal ball to be held at the Portland temple Wednesday evening is drawing a number of Salemites.

Prior to the dance, the Mallory hotel will be the scene of a no-host banquet with several added Portland guests, Mr. and Mrs. Lawrence Lister, Rep. and Mrs. Robert Dunniway, Mr. and Mrs. Oren Campbell and Mr. and Mrs. C. Campbell.

Journeying from Salem tomorrow for the banquet and ball will be Mr. and Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mr. and Mrs. David Cameron, Mr. and Mrs. Lester Newman, Mr. and Mrs. Hugh Taylor, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Meyers, Mr. and Mrs. Russell Buetler, Mr. and Mrs. Paul Hale, Mr. and Mrs. Harold Hawk, Mr. and Mrs. Robert McEwen and Mr. and Mrs. Harris Leitz.

Vows Exchanged At Bride's Home

Miss Mary Doran, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Andrew Doran, was married Saturday evening to George Scheid, at the Orchard Heights home of her parents. The Rev. Robert Coulter of the First Nazarene church performed the 7:30 ceremony before a small gathering of family and friends.

Mr. and Mrs. George Doran, the bride's brother and sister-in-law attended the couple. Prior to the ceremony, the Rev. Frank Watkins sang and Mrs. Watkins played his accompaniment and the wedding marches.

The bride, given by her father, wore a stunning soft blue dressmaker suit with black accessories. Her flowers were a formal bouquet of gardenias, rosebuds and bouvardia.

Her matron of honor wore a beige suit with brown accessories and wore a corsage of chrysanthemums and rosebuds in gold shades.

Immediately following the ceremony, a reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Cutting the bride's cake was Mrs. Robert Coulter and Mrs. John Doran cut the bridegroom's cake. In charge of the dining room was Mrs. Andrew Doran and in charge of the gifts was Joe Doran.

Following a brief journey to the Oregon beaches, the young couple will be at home in Salem.
