

Lodge Observes 34th Birthday

Silverton—Home temple No. 21 of the Pythian Sisters celebrated its annual homecoming and 34th anniversary of the order at a joint observance with Home lodge No. 35, Knights of Pythias. A 6:30 no-host dinner preceded the business meeting presided over by Josephine Hartman, M.E.C. for the Sisters, and L. C. Eastman, C.C. for the Knights.

Home temple No. 21 was instituted December 4, 1911, by the degree staff of Centralia temple No. 11 of Salem and the officers of Una temple, Aurora. Charter members in Silverton include Mr. and Mrs. L. C. Eastman, Mr. and Mrs. June Drake, Josephine Hartman, Helen M. Wrightman, Nettie Custer, Minnie Fishwood and Eva Potter.

Members are requested to bring their fruits and jellies to the next meeting, December 7, for the fruit shower to be sent to the Oregon-Washington Pythian home at Vancouver, Wash. Officers will be elected at this meeting.

Make Believe Play Almost Tragic One

Stayton—Claudia, 8-year-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Walter Hinrichs was severely burned about the legs and buttock when the long dress in which she was playing "dress up" caught on fire after the child accidentally backed into an open heating stove.

Mrs. Hinrichs, who was preparing to refill the stove, had left the door open while she stepped outside for more fuel. Just as she re-entered the house, the child screamed and the mother was able to reach her daughter and remove the dress. It is believed that a suction in the almost empty stove whipped the dress into the flames. Her condition is reported to be satisfactory.

Jefferson

C. R. Watts, music instructor in the Jefferson schools, commutes each day from his home in Philomath. He and Mrs. Watts are looking for a house, so they can move here. So far they have been unsuccessful, as every house and apartment is occupied.

Jefferson members of the Salem Fox and Mink unit, who attended the meeting in the Liberty community were Mr. and Mrs. John Finlay, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Wickert, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Glaser, and Mr. and Mrs. E. B. Henningsen. Fur problems were discussed; and plans were made for the fur show at the Salem fairgrounds, November 26, 27, and 28.

Hal Wiley, Jefferson's druggist, who underwent an operation on his right leg Wednesday morning; is recovering satisfactorily. He will be in the Deaconess hospital in Salem for about ten days.
