By Jean Taylor

Tomorrow the traditional turkey will be roasted, the rich savories cooked, and families, many united once more after long wartime separation, will gather round laden tables. And in the holiday spirit, many Salemites will open their homes, to greet guests at the "Thankful time."

Crescendo Artist Charms Hearers

Miss Dorothy Eustis, concert pianist, appearing last evening in concert presented by the Crescendo club, offered a colorful and varied program which was well received.

Gracious and most generous, Miss Eustis displayed her not unconsiderable talent and technique with program numbers ranging from the familiar Beethoven "Moonlight Sonata" to the "Toccata" of Debussy.

Miss Eustis' selections were strenuous and polishedly performed. Best beloved by her audience were the group of Chopin "Etudes," Opus 25, No. 11; Opus 10, No. 3; Opus 25, No. 6, and the famous and stirring Polonaise. An encore of "Fantasie Impromptu" added to the delight of her hearers.

Scarlati's series of Sonatas opened her program. Then followed the Beethoven Sonata. Scriabine's Etudes in E major and in D minor followed. "Nachtstück," Vogel als Prophet and Arabesque preceded the well received Chopin group. The swift-flowing Etude in D flat major by Liszt won Miss Eustis' hearers, as did her technical understanding and excellence of the abilities she displayed.
