Nurses Hear Psychiatrist

Dr. N. Challenger, psychiatrist at the Oregon state hospital, addressed the nurses of district association No. 3 at their meeting at the Salem Deaconess hospital nurse's home on November 26.

Dr. Challenger spoke of mental hygienic aspects of nursing and how present conditions are affecting both returning veterans and the civilian population. He urged nurses to keep a balance between understanding and sympathy to help effect post-war readjustments.

During the business meeting which followed the program, the nurses discussed proposed plans for a statewide placement and consulting service sponsored by the American Nurses association. Miss Elizabeth Eppenety, a member of the state committee reported on the recent board meeting. Donations were made to the equipment fund for Finnish nurses. Refreshments were in charge of the nurses from Salem Deaconess hospital.

Next meeting of district three will be held December 17, at the Oregon state tuberculosis hospital.

The Pringle Woman's club meets today, Nov. 28, at the club house with Mrs. William McCarroll and Mrs. Mary Hope as hostesses.
