Choir to Present Sunday Program

The choir of the First Presbyterian church presents its traditional Christmas vesper musicale Sunday evening at 4:30 o'clock. Virginia Ward Elliott, director of music, has arranged the program and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs will be the organist.

A new feature this year is that the service will be by candlelight. The choir in its professional will walk down the center aisle and will sing from the choir loft. There will be a piano and organ number, Bach's "Sheep May Safely Graze," by Mr. and Mrs. Ralph Dobbs. Two of the most popular numbers on the program are the familiar "Shepherd's Story" by Dickinson and the inspirational Christiansen number, "Lost in the Night."

Collectors Dated To Help Farmers

Arranged by counties, the various places to be visited and the dates on which services of deputy internal revenue collectors will be available to assist farmers with the filing of their Forms 1040 ES, declaration of estimated tax for calendar year 1945, during the period January 2 to January 15, 1946, inclusive, are given as follows for local communities:

- Benton county, Corvallis, January 10, 11, 14 and 15.
- Linn, Lebanon, January 8.
- Albany, January 10, 11, 14 and 15.
- Marion, Silverton, January 9.
- Woodburn, January 10.
- Salem, January 11, 14 and 15.
- Polk, Independence, January 10.
- Dallas, January 11.
- Yamhill, Newberg, January 7.
- McMinnville, January 8-9, inclusive.

Griebenow Speaks Sunday Morning

The guest speaker for the Christian and Missionary Alliance church next Sunday morning will be Rev. Marion Griebenow. Twenty four years ago he and his wife went out as missionaries to the land of Tibet one of the last regions to be reached by evangelical missionaries. The usual length of term is six years, but because of the war and resultant conditions this term was lengthened to nine years.

Rev. Griebenow was flown by the U.S. 14th air force from near Labrang of Tibet to Chungking and thence to Shanghai.

Lutherans Plan Three Programs

The American Lutheran church will sponsor a series of three programs in connection with the Christmas celebration. Sunday evening at 7 o'clock the Sunday school departments will be featured in a mixed program with the pageant, "The Wisest Wiseman," highlighting the production. The 30-voice vested choir will take part.

Salem Friends to Sponsor Play

The South Salem Friends church at South Commercial and Washington are having a Christmas program Sunday morning at the Sunday school hour. All the classes are participating with songs and exercises and a group under the direction of Elizabeth Aebischer is giving a play, "The Well of the Star." A treat has been prepared for the boys and girls. There will be no evening service but at 4:30 p.m. a vesper service has been planned. Special music by the choir and thus making it possible to reach America in about half the usual time. Rev. Griebenow's former home is in Salem. His brother Paul, lives on Fairview avenue. In the evening the Alliance church will be presenting the second half of their Christmas program.

At 11 o'clock Christmas morning, Rev. Getzenderer will preach on "Glory of God" and special music will be presented. The Christmas story in slides will feature this service.

Long Needy List In Army Hands

A total of 124 needy families in Salem, or 513 individuals, are listed with the Salvation army for Christmas cheer help, which will be mainly food and clothing, from the proceeds of the kettles appearing on the streets before holiday week, and which will be on the streets three more days.

Of the 124 families listed, some names have been furnished the army by the Red Cross, some by the public welfare office and others have been otherwise listed.

Up to Thursday a total collection of $1172.24 had been received by way of the kettles and $171 otherwise given. Other persons wishing to con-
