

Farmers' Fire Relief Group Will Hold Golden Jubilee

Woodburn—The 50th annual membership meeting of the Farmers' Fire Relief association of Butteville will be held in Donald on Wednesday afternoon at 1 o'clock. Two directors are to be elected and the membership will vote on a resolution directing its board of directors to amend Article III of its articles of incorporation so as to change its principal office and place of business and the location of the corporation to Woodburn.

The association was organized 50 years ago and now has a membership of more than 8000 policy holders carrying in excess of $22,500,000 and has a cash reserve of nearly a quarter of a million dollars.

Scout Honor Court Staged

Silverton—M. B. Ford served as court clerk and John W. Jordan as court chairman at the district meeting of the Silver Falls Boy Scout organizations in the court of honor at the Eugene field auditorium.

A talk was given by Fred Evenden, Jr., of Woodburn, a former eagle scout and recently returned from three years with the army in Assam, India. Gervais Scouts, troop 54, received personal help award and wood-carving given to Neal Nelson and to Junior Helmig and Buddy Rose, personal help, presented by Joe Stoy Scout master of Silverton.

Carl Millard presented Woodburn troop 53 Scout master, Perry Williams, awards for safety, public health, personal health, physical development, camping and masonry, pathfinding, surveying, weather and firemanship.

Paul Nestell was awarded a 15-year veteran scout honor; Perry Williams, a 5-year award and a life badge; attendance award went to troop 68, Eldridge.

The Silver Falls district meeting January 22, will be held at Gervais.

Mrs. Quinn Directs Mill City Campaign

Mill City—In charge of the Victory clothing drive in Mill City is Mrs. William Quinn. Anyone having unused clothing, please see that it gets to the high school recreation room before January 25. Felt hats, shoes and any kind of clean clothing is being asked for. Articles can be taken to the recreation room at any time during school hours, and left there as no one will be in charge until at the time of packing. Mrs. Quinn has offered to call for clothing, by car, if there is someone without needed conveyance. All clothing collected here will be sent to Salem and packed and shipped from there.

Polk War Veterans Invited to Frolic

Dallas—Marion post, Veterans of Foreign Wars, has extended an invitation to members of the Dallas post and to all Polk county veterans of world war two, to attend a smoker Thursday night at the VFW hall in North Salem. A varied program of entertainment is being arranged by the host post.

Unit Meeting Slated

Wheatland—The January meeting of the Unionvale Home Demonstration unit will be held Wednesday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stockhoff of Wheatland. Mrs. Myrtle Carter, extension leader, will demonstrate "Color in the Living Room," although the name of the new leader replacing Miss Jean McElhinny, resigned, had not been announced. She will accompany Mrs. Carter.

Sias Will Assist All Polk Veterans

Dallas—Starting Tuesday, C. A. Sias of Dallas, representative assigned to Polk county for the veterans' administration, will be in Dallas at the U.S. employment office two days—Tuesdays and Wednesdays—every other week, according to E. B. Hamilton, local manager of the employment service.

Sewing Is Scheduled

Silverton—Sewing will be done on a quilt at the Wednesday afternoon meeting of the Loyal Women's Sunday school class at the First Christian church parsonage, and for a social hour as guests of Mrs. A. Myers of Springfield, mother of the pastor, Rev. Russell Myers.

Grangers Seek Fire District

Silverton—George Busch, Grange master, heard the discussion on the petition being circulated on rural fire protection in a six mile area from the center of town at a special meeting of the Silverton Grange Friday night. As a total of 500 names are necessary and members of the committee for obtaining the signatures are handicapped by not having cars, it was decided to place the petitions for signing by the rural land holders in business places of Silverton, and in the hands of the members of the boards of directors of the ten rural school districts included in the area. The petition asks for a certain millage tax on property to make possible fire protection out of the city limits.

March of Dimes Leaders Chosen

Albany—Under leadership of Karl Caswell, Scio, county chairman, workers who will participate in the annual March of Dimes and other infantile paralysis fund activities throughout the county are being mobilized.

Members of the Albany Junior Chamber of Commerce will handle the drive in Albany. Hurlay St. John, Shedd, has consented to act as co-chairman with Caswell, with jurisdiction over the southern half of the county including, Shedd, Halsey, Harrisburg, Tangent and Brownsville.

At Lebanon, Caswell said, the Junior Women's club will engineer the campaign while at Sweet Home Mrs. William Hestman and the local Boy Scouts will carry on the drive.

Other local chairman whose appointments were announced by Caswell are: Scio, Roger Cain; Harrisburg, Mrs. Ossie Topley; Peoria, Mrs. William Abraham and Halsey L. D. Taylor. Local chairman will be named later for other communities.

Tuel Stayton Chairman

Stayton—V. R. Tuel has been named chairman for the 1946 March of Dimes in Stayton. Mrs. Angus Ware will head the women's division and Irvin Parberry, Wendell Weddle and Julian DeJardin are members of the committee representing the Lions club.

Izaak Walton League Holds Oyster Supper

Silverton—Lawrence Larson and Ed Overlund will prepare the annual oyster supper for the joint meeting of the Izaak Walton league and the auxiliary tonight at the Chamber of Commerce rooms following separate installation of recently elected officers.

The auxiliary officers will be installed by the Salem auxiliary team in the Lions club rooms and the men will be installed by Lloyd Reinhart of Salem, in the forum rooms.

Mrs. E. Clark Bachman is the new auxiliary president; Mrs. O. E. Royer, vice president; Mrs. John Becker, secretary; and Mrs. Miles Tobias, treasurer. League officers to be inducted are Arthur Gottenberg, president; Miles Tobias, vice president; and a secretary to be selected to take the place of Bill Bloch who resigned.

Aurora School Meal Costs Reasonable

Aurora—Mrs. Kingsley has taken over the duties of cook. Cost of lunches are six cents a person per meal. Alice Marsh and Anita Yoder have been dispensing KP duties this week. Lois Walton and Muriel Weststein will serve next week.

Polk Clubbers Are Outstanding

Dallas—Seven Polk county 4-H club members were winners of state awards in the national 4H club contest of 1945, it has been announced by Russell T. Daulton, assistant county agent.

County winners are Freida Kathriner, gold and silver medal blue award in clothing and dress revue contests; Wendell Martin, gold medal blue award, medal animal production; Marjorie Anne Turner, $25 bond and gold medal blue award in dairy production; Glenna Cage and Betty Murphy, silver medal for blue award in dress revue; Eva Jean Miller and La Verne Van Hess, blue awards in health contest.

Many local and national contests are open to 4H club members for 1946, according to Daulton, who is in charge of boys' club work, and Miss Helen Taylor, home demonstration agent, who has charge of health club work in schools and home economics projects for girls.

Dallas Forum Hears Reports

Dallas—Reports of activities for the year 1945 were given and standing committees for the current year announced at the annual January business meeting of the Chamber of Commerce.

The report of Secretary William Blackley showed 83 paid up members for the past year, 34 regular meetings and one evening meeting held. During the year, the Chamber of Commerce sponsored a 4-H achievement day program, a Wac recruiting program, the visit of the mobile x-ray unit to Dallas, the Russian war relief and united national clothing collection drives and the community chest, and made financial contributions to a contest promoted by the farm placement service.

The treasurer's report, submitted by August P. Risser, revealed receipts for the year of $1,358.50, of which with the $249.39 balance on hand at the close of the previous year, gave a total of $1,607.89. Disbursements, including war bonds purchased, totaled $1,359.62, leaving a balance on hand at the year's end of $248.27.
