

Miss Rempel is Sunday Bride

By Jean Taylor
Lovely ceremonies of Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock were those uniting in marriage Miss Ruth Rempel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. George Rempel and Harlan Ratzlaff, son of Mr. and Mrs. Isaac Ratzlaff of Fairbury, Neb.

The rites were performed at the Leslie Methodist church with Rev. Homer Lelsy of Dallas officiating. Singing was Elmer Hiebert of Dallas and accompanying him was Prof. Maurice Brennan, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride wore a gown of white satin with long sleeves, sweetheart neckline and short train. Her fingertip-length veil fell from a Juliet cap and she carried a shower bouquet of white roses and bouvardia. Her only ornament was a single strand of pearls, gift of the bridegroom.

Her maid of honor, Miss Margaret Rempel, her sister, wore a gown with white jersey bodice and a net skirt. She carried a bouquet of red roses.

Bridesmaids for Mrs. Ratzlaff were Miss Katharine Rempel, another sister, who wore a white net and jersey gown with a sequined bodice. Mrs. Ben Friesen of Dallas wore a white taffeta gown and both bridesmaids carried bouquets of red roses.

Best man for Mr. Ratzlaff was A. Dwight Thiessen, and ushers were Ben Friesen and Henry Friesen of Dallas.

The bride's mother chose for her daughter's nuptials a royal blue crepe, with which she combined black accessories. She wore a corsage of pink carnations. The bridegroom's mother wore a blue crepe gown with pink rosebud corsage.

Following the ceremony, a reception was held honoring the young couple at the church parlors. The rooms were decorated with white flowers. Centering the serving table was an all-white bride's cake, guarded with white tapers.

Presiding at the urns was Mrs. Norman Winslow and assisting were Mrs. Gene Cooksey, Mrs. Henry Friesen of Dallas and Miss Elsbeth Wall of Dallas.

Plans for the young couple are as yet indefinite. To go away on a short wedding trip the bride chose a black crepe with black accessories and white flowers.
