

East Salem School People Will See Moving Pictures

East Salem, Jan. 22—The one pig club in East Salem districts has taken the name, "The Middle Grove Lucky Seven Pig Club" and has elected the following officers: president, Robert Beutler; vice president, Donald Bassett; secretary, Wayne Goode; song leader, Edward Struck; and yell leader, Marvin Case. Their leader again this year is Mrs.

Gates War Veterans Served Elk Dinner

Gates—The home of Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hennessy was the scene of an interesting gathering Thursday evening when all local veterans were honored with an elk dinner. Most of the young men invited were former students at the Gates high school and but recently discharged from the service. Following an evening spent in reminiscence conversation by the boys who had not been together for years, Robert Veness took pictures of the group.

Those attending were William Bush, Curtis Young, Victor Herzon, Pat Herzon, Ed Goshell, Raymond Goodwin, Charles Blackburn, Howard Farnham, Louis Clapp, Bob Kelle, Bob Wilson, Charles Barney and Harry Harmon. Others invited but unable to attend were Harold Shepherd, Carl Bahl, Walter Bell, Roy Meyer, Frank Barney, Orval Bruns, Richard Knutson and Leroy Knutson. Additional guests were Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Bush and the boys, Joseph Bowers, Mr. and Mrs. Glen Hennessy and sons, Clare, Keith and Earl.

Turner Firemen Will Raise Cash

Turner—Appointment of a finance committee to devise a program to raise $1500 for equipment was authorized by the fire department this week. Members are E. S. Prather, Homer Haggard, Delmer Barber, Jack Wheeler and William Pearson. The department has obligated itself $300 to purchase a new pump and other equipment from the defense surplus board which would cost around $1000 on the open market.

The department plans to sell around 500 feet of 2½-inch hose and approximately 200 feet of 1½ inch hose. Installation of an additional door in the fire hall is scheduled to start February 1. Norman Whitehead has been received into the department and the membership application of Elton Ball accepted.

Lyons

The social meeting of the Santiam Valley Grange will be held at the hall Friday night. Pictures and talks on C.V.D. and P.U.D. will be given.

Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Johnson have sold their place across the tracks east of the Mt. Jefferson Lumber company mill to the Mt. Jefferson Lumber company and rumors are that there will be a plywood mill added to this community.

Mr. and Mrs. Don Sheppard and daughters, Mardell and Nedra, have returned to Huntington. Mrs. Sheppard and the daughters made their home with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. George Clippell, while he was in service.

The VFW is sponsoring the clothes drive in this community with Mrs. Wilson Stevens as chairman. Anyone having clothing to donate is asked to leave them at her home.

Sewing Skill Subject

Silverton—The Silverton home extension unit will meet Thursday afternoon at the Eugene Field library rooms with the program beginning at 1:30 o'clock. Mrs. George Jaeschke will talk on the topic, "Improving Sewing Skill," and will lead the discussion following the address.

Effective officers include H. A. Beauchamp, worthy patron; Marion Cunningham, associate patron; Mabel Tate, associate matron; Flora Shook, secretary; Evelyn Christensen, treasurer; Zella Rice, conductress; Margaret Cunningham, associate conductress.

Silverton

Volunteer firemen were called to the home of Mrs. Elizabeth Jamie, Coolidge street, Thursday to control a fire in the home. Damage was said to be nominal.

The Lloyd Larsen family moved this week to their recently constructed home in Welch street.

Mrs. Harry Ragon and two small sons, Gale and Bobby, are at the Silverton Hills home of the Al Tippens caring for the home while Mrs. Tippens is under treatment at the local hospital. Mrs. Ragon is an aunt of the Tippens.

W. H. Armstrong of Burbank, Calif., visited his cousins, the families of the Ed Holdens and the E. Jay McCallis, en route home from Seattle where he was in the interest of USO army units of which he is in charge.

Mrs. E. B. Inman was taken to the local hospital Saturday evening for special treatment. She has been ill for many months.

Mrs. Nettie Cusiter is improving from a severe case of the flu. She is at her home in Welch St.

Ira Loren, chairman of the board, is calling a meeting of the membership of First Christian church this evening at the church social rooms for a vote on the new budget. The congregational vote at the recent annual meeting rejected the first budget presented. The grand total is $7800 for the year.

On payment of costs, the 90-day jail sentence was suspended indefinitely, against H. Kuch, charged with larceny by Blythe Becker, in justice Nelson's court Saturday.

Mill City Chapter Starts Year's Work

Mill City—Marilyn Chapter, O.E.S., Mill City, held the first regular meeting of the year this week, with the new officers in charge. Presiding were worthy matron, Alberta Smith, and worthy patron, William B. Schuey. The chapter voted to assist with the current victory clothing drive, and the worthy matron appointed Henrietta Quinn and Marjory Schroeder as the committee for the project.

The standing committees for the year were appointed as follows: Finance, Maxine Hill (new member) to serve for three years; committee on instruction, Maud Clark, Leora Stevens and A. D. Scott; visiting and relief, Alice Rupp, Edith Schroeder and Doris Sheyette.

A special meeting of members has been called on January 28 at which time Lorena McNair, associate grand matron, will conduct a school of instruction for Marilyn chapter officers. The meeting will begin promptly at 8 o'clock, and will be preceded by a covered dish supper. Food committee in charge includes: Leita Potter, Marian Todd and Mary Higdon. The next regular meeting of the chapter is scheduled for February 11, when the initiatory degree will be given.

Aurora School Clubs Sponsor Box Social

Aurora—The 4-H Calf and Rabbit club met and plans were formulated for a box social and entertainment to be given in the school gymnasium Saturday evening, January 26, at 8 o'clock, sponsored by the club.

Among the numbers on the program will be a saxophone duet by Lawrence Gooding and Norma Kee, twirling by Bernita Jeskey and Orma Hepler, and music will be furnished by the boys' and girls' band of Canby high school.

The grade school desks were all sanded and varnished during the holiday season by the janitor, L. L. Gribble.

Music teachers are Mrs. D. D. Priest and Mrs. B. W. Stoner. The upper grade girls are planning to organize a volleyball team.

Home Extension Unit Entertained

Aumsville—The Aumsville Home Extension unit met at the city hall for the monthly meeting. Following a short business meeting Mrs. Elmer Klein, unit chairman, and Mrs. George White gave a demonstration on "Sewing Skills." There were 15 present with two girls from the home relations class as special guests. Following the meeting refreshments were served by members of the Women's club.

Woodburn Firm Opening Doors

Woodburn—A grand opening will be held Wednesday by Perry Williams at his newly enlarged and remodeled brick building at 110 Young street. Williams, who, for the past several years, has operated a machine shop and repair parts store for farm machinery, is expanding his business to handle farm implements and supplies and the firm name will be known as the Williams Machine and Implement company.

The improved quarters have a total floor space of 60 x 137 feet, of which 60 x 70 feet will be devoted to the display of modern farm implements and poultry and dairy supplies.

A feature of the opening of the new store will be a special factory display and demonstration of Ben-Hur Frozen Food Lockers which is expected to attract a large number of people because of the interest being shown in this convenient and economical method of preserving meats, vegetables and berries fresh for use at any time of the year. A free lunch will be served at noon.

Williams has been a resident of Woodburn for 14 years and is well known for his interest in civic matters, having served as chairman of the United Clothing drive and as scoutmaster for the past eight years. He is a member of the Chamber of Commerce and the Woodburn Rotary club.

Camp Fire Girls Needing Leaders

Woodburn—Bonnie Mills was elected president of the Okhi group of Camp Fire Girls at a meeting held Thursday in the library club rooms. Other officers named are: Donna Wantz, vice president; Alice Foltyn, secretary; Roberta McClure, song leader. Mrs. W. S. McClain is guardian.

All girls over ten years of age are invited to join this group. Mrs. Emma Maxwell of Salem, area councillor, is giving special instruction in Camp Fire work every other week at the library here. Her next meeting will be Tuesday afternoon at 2 o'clock, to which every one interested is invited.

There is need for more guardians for the work in Woodburn and anyone interested is asked to see Mrs. McClain at 282 Montgomery street.
