

Building Boom at Woodburn Embraces Variety Structures

Woodburn—The Livelys lumber yard is erecting two new buildings east of the present office and sales room to provide new quarters for the saw and door factory and add storage space for lumber. Each building measures about 50 x 80 and is built of tile, and occupies the property where for many years a two-story residence stood, the former home of the late Walter L. Tooe, Sr. This residence was divided and moved to two different lots where the two sections are being made into dwellings.

Woodburn Auxiliary Offers Card Series

Woodburn—Seven tables of "500" and six of pinocle were in play at the second card party in the series sponsored by the American Legion auxiliary. Prizes for high score in "500" went to Wilma Stanger and Edward DeHaan and in pinocle to Mrs. Fry and Henry Kirkwood. A special prize was awarded to Mrs. Lou Pfaffinger. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Frank Bentley, Mrs. W. S. Scarborough, Mrs. Albert Rheinholdt, Mrs. Anton Lang, Mrs. Julius Cendehey and Mrs. Herbert Hoyt.

The third party of the series will be held January 24 and the hostess committee will include Mrs. Walter Miller, Mrs. L. M. King, Mrs. Edward DeHaan, Mrs. Clarence Heiser, Mrs. Harold Ingram and Mrs. John Cornwell.

Roberts Unit Joins In Spring Festival

Roberts—The Roberts home extension unit met at the home of Mrs. Leonard Lester with improving sewing skills given by the project leaders, Mrs. Earl Crowley and Mrs. L. Lester. During the business meeting Mrs. Robert Hoyer and Mrs. R. E. Chittenden were appointed on the recreation committee.

There were discussions on the care of the children during the meetings and Mrs. E. A. Berglund offered to supervise them in the playroom of her basement during the next meeting which will be at the home of Mrs. L. D. Johnston, February 15.

The Roberts unit voted to enter the following exhibits at the homemaker's festival in Salem, April 4, conserve with the scrap bag; sewing machine attachments and sugar saving devices.

St. Victoria Court Holds Card Party

St. Paul—St. Victoria's Court of the Women's Catholic Order of Foresters held its regular meeting in the community hall last week. A miscellaneous shower was held for Mrs. Stuckart (Cecilia Smith) of this community.

After the regular business session cards were played and a lunch was served. Mrs. Carl Kirisch held high score for bridge with Mrs. John McKillip second. Prizes for "500" went to Mrs. Joseph Pohlshneider and Mrs. Basil Stupfel.

Hostesses for the evening were Mrs. Carl Smith, chairman, Mrs. Thomas O'Mara, Mrs. Lawrence Gooding, Mrs. Ray Kerr, Mrs. Lawrence Bunning and Mrs. Basil Stupfel.

Jefferson Collects Clothing for Needy

Jefferson—Clothing for the Victory clothing drive will be collected in Jefferson the rest of the month. Clothing may be left at the council room of the city hall each day between 9 and 5 o'clock.

All wearing apparel, bedding, and shoes, etc., will be welcomed. The shoes should be tied together so they will not get mixed. Mrs. Marvin Hutchings is chairman of the drive here.

Woodburn Clothing Collections Start

Woodburn—The Victory clothing drive is now under way in Woodburn with Postmaster Paul Mills as chairman. Those who have clothing to spare for this worthy cause may leave their bundles at the city hall or if unable to do this should call Mr. Mills and the bundles will be picked up. It is also urged that letters of cheer with the donor's name and address be inclosed in each bundle.

HOLLYWOOD TODAY
Bob Crosby
Joan Davis - Jane Frazee
"Kansas City Kitty"
"STRANGERS IN THE NIGHT"
With William Terry
Virginia Grey
Edith Barrett
Helen Thimig

open a Marshall Wells hardware store. The building has tile walls with a dome roof, supported by wooden girders and measures 50 x 100. It is the property of Jess Fikan and Mabel Fikan Smith.

The building formerly occupied by the Landon Furniture company, which is now the property of E. E. Piper, is being remodeled for the Nathan hardware store. A new front of plate glass and tile with swinging doors has been put in and the entire building is being renovated and redecorated.

Plans are being made by the Full Gospel church to begin construction of a new church building at the corner of Second and West Lincoln streets where they recently erected a parsonage. The property was purchased from J. R. Housewair and consists of two lots measuring 100 x 100. The building at First and Garfield streets where services are now being held has been sold.

Elmer Mattson has completed a new building at his plant at the corner of Hardcastle and Highway 99 which has doubled the capacity of the plant and increased its city service to 1000 frozen food lockers. He has also installed a quick freeze compartment for customers who desire their fruits and vegetables frozen quickly.

Santiam Rebekahs Finish Ceremonies

Mill City—During the business session of the Santiam Rebekah lodge of Mill City, Frances Merrill was installed as conductor and Betty Mieret, as inside guardian, by Myrtle Hessaman, acting as district deputy president and Ruby Horner, acting as district deputy marshal.

A letter of acknowledgement was read from the Odd Fellow's Home in Portland of the fruit and canned goods which was sent by the Mill City lodge during the holidays.

The program committee for the next six months, is Myrtle Hessaman, Mary Haun, Allura Chance, Natalie Swift, Mae Mason and Lois Andersen. Following lodge ceremonies the charter was draped for Carry M. Day, of Newport, a member of the Santiam Rebekah lodge and a former Mill City resident, who passed away during the past month.

Clear Lake

The Improvement club held an all-day meeting at the church dining room making quilts for the foreign relief.

Donald S. Clement, MLC, has returned home from the navy. January 27 will be conference communion Sunday. January 28 through February 6 will be self-denial week and a special service will be held February 6.

Mr. Amos Smith is in the hospital and is improving.

Miss Frances O'Neill is spending several days at the home of her cousin in Salem.

Mrs. Arthur Punzel is home from the hospital.

Mrs. Kenneth Bair and Joyce are visiting her mother in Lebanon.

Carl Petzel is building a house on the five acres he recently purchased from Frances O'Neill.

Bonner Superintendent For Christian Church

Silverton—James Bonner was elected to serve for the coming year as superintendent of Sunday school for the First Christian church in a congregational vote Sunday forenoon to take the place of Mrs. John W. Jordan, who resigned because of other church responsibilities.

Mrs. Jordan is state secretary of Christian missions which duty takes her to various places in the state over Sundays.

Social Hour Club Helping Red Cross

Jefferson—The Social Hour club of the Greens Bridge community met at the home of Mrs. Minnie Wallace, when members sewed for the Red Cross. The following officers were elected: President, Joy Kelly; vice president, Mrs. Wilbur Funk; secretary-treasurer, Anna Coldiron. Guests were Mrs. Mary DeVaney, Mrs. Edan White and Mrs. Maggie Quigley. During the social hour refreshments were served by the hostess. The next meeting, February 14, will be at the home of Mrs. Ethel Gee.

ELSNORE
NOW SHOWING
Howling Sequel to
"See Here"
Private Hargrove!
WHAT NEXT?
CORPORAL HARGROVE?
Plu "A Guy Could Change"

Grangers Look To Conference

Union Hill—The Union Hill Grange and Juvenile Grange met Friday night for 7 o'clock supper. Hosts were Miss Alice Jaquet, Miss Vivienne Jaquet, Paul Jaquet, Mr. and Mrs. Henry Hansen, Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Jones. Program numbers following were pictures shown by Mr. Oglethorpe of International Harvester company, Portland, sponsored by the King-West Co. of Silverton, and games led by the lecturer, Mrs. W. F. Krenz.

V. D. Scott, master, presided at the business meeting. Plans were made for a demonstration team for the state Grange conference at Keizer January 25.

The social night committee appointed for February are Mrs. Myra Fischer, Mrs. Carrie Townsend, Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox, Mr. and Mrs. M. M. Gilmore.

W. M. Tate, agriculture chairman announced the agriculture outlook meeting at Salem on Feb. 1 in the Chamber of Commerce rooms, urging all to attend. He also reported on the AAA conference at Corvallis, pointing out facts that the OPA had held down inflation. Henry Hansen and Floyd Fox of the committee attended the two day seed growers league in Portland and told of the future in seed growing and work started on weed control.

Mrs. Albert Savage, home economics chairman reported on meeting of the club with Mrs. J. C. Krenz and Miss Laurel Krenz hostesses. The club will meet with Mrs. W. F. Krenz in February with Mrs. H. E. Hubbard, co-hostess. Mrs. Savage appointed Mr. and Mrs. A. L. Kostenbinder, Mr. and Mrs. Ray King, Mr. and Mrs. W. F. Krenz on the February supper committee which will be at 7 p. m. Clothing for relief was gathered and delivered by Miss Alice Jaquet to a station.

The meeting was concluded with a March of Dimes for infantile paralysis funds. The Juvenile Grange met with Master Floyd Fox Jr. in charge. Plans were made for a number to be presented at the State Grange conference at Keizer. Mrs. Henry Hansen and Mrs. W. M. Tate matrons outlined plans for the year.

Mertis Mae Hansen, lecturer presented a short program of readings and group singing.

Dallas Hardware Store Purchased

Dallas—Announcement of the purchase of stock and fixtures of the Ford Hardware company from Lloyd Ford, owner, by Guy's Hardware store has been made by Frank Guy, who states that he has closed the Ford place temporarily.

It is not yet decided whether the store will be reopened and operated as a separate unit or the stock transferred to the adjoining Guy's Hardware for display and sale.

Because of ill health, the Fords plan to go to Florida for the remainder of the winter. Ford had bought the store from George Theobald in the summer of 1944, while it was being operated as the agency for Western Auto Supply.

Club Meets Friday

Lincoln—The Lincoln Community club will hold the January meeting Friday night at 8 o'clock with Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Merrick and Mr. and Mrs. R. J. Meissner as committee on arrangements. Those attending bring cake, cookies or jello.

STATE
— Opens 6:45 P.M. —
NOW PLAYING!
IT'S A MUSICAL RADIO RIOT!
CO-FEATURE
THE LAUGH BAND OF A LIFETIME!
LAUREL HARDY
THE BIG NOISE

East Salem People Collect Canned Food for Europeans

East Salem, Jan. 23—One new business place has been established at the Four Corners, East State street, and one place of business changed hands. George Hamming has opened a new radio repair shop and the "Four Corners Grocery" has been sold to Mr. and Mrs. D. P. Hobbs of Dallas. Mr. Hobbs is a veteran of World War II.

Believing that food is as necessary as clothes in the war torn countries of the world the Rickery Garden club is collecting canned food at this time for

Officers of Roberts Grange Installed

Roberts—At the Grange meeting Saturday night, Miss Ella Williams, past master of the Stayton Grange, installed the newly elected officers of the Roberts Grange assisted by Mr. and Mrs. W. Tate and Mr. and Mrs. Floyd Fox of the Union Hills Grange.

G. S. Higgins, on the agriculture committee, reported it was time to cut cherry scions and told how to care for them. W. Tate told of the Marion county farm conference in Salem, February 1.

Mrs. Floyd Fox told of the State Grange conference to be held at Keizer, January 25, and talked on the background of the Grange.

The secretary, Mrs. Albert Blankenship, read a letter from E. A. Goodrich. It reported his son Ed, who is serving in the Pacific, had his discharge papers and had been visiting in the neighborhood recently.

The resolution to change the Grange meeting night to the third Monday of the month passed by two-thirds vote.

Council Improves Amity City Water

Amity—Providing Amity with an additional and improved supply of water was one of the outstanding acts of the city council during the year, Mayor Charles H. Law said in his annual message outlining accomplishments of the year. The new city well is located on an acre of ground purchased by the city and the old well abandoned. Equipment was rebuilt and moved to the new location and concrete meter boxes installed.

The city also purchased a new fire truck-number for the Amity rural fire district which will repay the city under contract. A cement floor and wall lining improved the fire house.

Assistance of the community in establishing and maintaining a place of amusement for the young people of the community was asked by Mayor Law.

Joint Installation For Dayton Lodges

Dayton—Joint installation of officers for Dayton Odd Fellows lodge No. 20 and Naomi Rebekah No. 83 was held last week with 80 members present. Amity lodges drill teams were installing officers.

Odd Fellows: Noble grand, John Clow; vice-grand, Joe Kirkwood; secretary, Wendell Wilford; treasurer, D. C. Clark; chaplain, Ed Hartman; warden, Charles Rimer; conductor, John Hackworth; inside guardian, Robert Roden; outside guardian, Andrew Nichols.

Rebekahs: Noble grand, Mrs. L. D. Krake; vice grand, Mrs. Joe McDaniel; recording secretary, Miss Madeline Rosner; financial secretary, Mrs. L. A. Rosner; treasurer, Mrs. W. S. Wilbert; chaplain, Mrs. J. W. Lorett; conductor, Mrs. Mary Wright; warden, Mrs. William King; inside guardian, Mrs. Russell Hadley; outside guardian, Robert Roden; musician, Mrs. Herman Louis.

Refreshments were served during the social hour following the business session.

LIBERTY
— OPENS 6:45 P.M. —
NOW PLAYING!
SHOCKING
The story of a man's fury unleashed by a woman's scorn!
LORD CREGAR
LINDA DARNELL
GEORGE SANDERS
CO-FEATURE!
HANGOVER Square
with Glenn Langan
Faye Marlowe
CO-FEATURE!
RHYTHM and ACTION!
JIMMY WAKELEY
Lonesome Trail

Pythian Groups Seat Officers

Silverton—Knights of Pythias Grand Chancellor of Oregon, Joe O. Gross of Oregon City, was the installing officer for the local officials of Home lodge No. 35 Tuesday night, and Mrs. Gross, a member of Cataract Temple, Oregon City, was special guest of Home Temple No. 21, Pythian Sisters, when joint ceremonies of installation were observed.

Knights of Pythias inducted were Ralph Adams, O. C. L. C. Eastman, past O. C. Henry Anderson, V. C. Emil Loe, K. of P. & S. J. D. Drake, M. of P. and M. of P. Clarence Morley, M. of W. & A. Down, prelate, L. C. Eastman, M. of Arms, E. E. Kaufman, J. C. Arthur Nelson, O. C.

Irene Roubal, P. C. of Silverton, installed the officers for Home Temple in a colorful ceremony with the Pythian Sisters appearing for the floor work in pastel formal models identically. Helen M. Wrightman was musician for the installing of both orders.

Installed were Marian Noel, M. C.; Josephine Hartman, E. C. Overton, B. S. Arliss Johnson, E. J. Goldie Down, M. C. Dorothy Hadley, M. of R. & C. Mary Paulson, M. of P. Edie Nelson, protector, Mabel Talbot, guard; Myrtle Gifford, trustee; Helen M. Wrightman, musician and press correspondent; Elsie Specht, captain of the degree staff; and Irene Roubal, installing officer.

During the business session Emma Kaufman, P. C., presided.

One East Salem man assisting in the collecting of clothing bundles Sunday was Glenn Meisner of Auburn district.

Committees Named For Rebekah Lodge

Dallas—At the first meeting of the new year of members of Almiria Rebekah lodge No. 26, Miss Violet Larson, newly installed noble grand, announced her standing committees for the year. Committee appointments included:

Visiting committees—Mrs. Al Burebach, Mrs. J. Paul Bollman, Mrs. L. L. Rimmer, Mrs. J. M. O'Brien, Mrs. Lanna Cook, Mrs. Ralph Curry, Mrs. A. McFeirde; community service—Mrs. Orlin S. Wiley, Miss Violet Larson and Mrs. McFeirde; flowers and cards—Mrs. McFeirde; music and songs—Mrs. W. L. Blumens, Mrs. T. B. Hooker, Mrs. Clark Leamer; telephone committee—Mrs. Helen Querry, Miss Hazel Butler, Mrs. P. H. Humes; publicity—Mrs. R. G. LaFors.

Mrs. Pete Kunz was reelected to her former position as drill captain for the new year and Mrs. Fred Holman was elected for a three-year term as trustee, taking the place of Mrs. E. V. Dalton, retiring trustee member.

BABY'S COLDS
Relieve misery direct—without "dosing."
RUB ON VICKS VAPORUB
SUNSET CARSON
in ROUGH RIDERS OF CHEYENNE
LIONEL LINCOLN
DARNELL BRITTON
GREG MCCLURE
as John L. Sullivan
Co-Feature
SOCKO ACTION!
OPENING DANCE
FRIDAY, JAN. 25th
Salem Armory
Glenn Woody's
13 Piece Orchestra
Music as you like it.

in the absence of Josephine Hartman. The lodge adopted the report of the auditing committee, composed of Henrietta Loe, Olive Morley and Ida Winslow. Sadie Barkhurst was elected a new member of the degree staff. Olive Morley was chairman of the late supper served both groups following installation.

Silverton Teachers Learn About Russia

Silverton—The Teachers association of the local schools met for a program hour with Mrs. Ralph Barnes of the state library the speaker, telling of her two years spent in Russia a number of years ago during her 14 years residence in Europe.

Miss Elaine Hamre appeared as piano soloist in a group of selections.

Mrs. Aage B. Anderson, president, was in charge of the business session and Robert Miller served as general chairman of program and social plans. Assisting Mr. Miller were Lucille Tschantz, Guy Delay and Mrs. F. J. Roubal.

Miss Ashby Hospitalized
Rickey—Audrey, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Ashby, who underwent a major operation in Portland, is doing nicely. Miss Ashby is a Portland teacher.

Care of Firearms Course Available

Albany—A course in the use and care of firearms for boys from 12 to 16 years of age sponsored by the Albany Recreational council and with instruction to be given by members of the Albany Police department, is announced by Major F. H. Blake, recreation director.

Blake said that the course is being projected at the request of several parents and boys alike. Capt. Glenn McDaniel, of the local police department will probably handle details of range officer. The use of the police target range at the city hall will be available.

The local Boy Scout district council has asked that the training program be designed so that scouts can qualify as marksmen and be eligible for merit badges.

Mill Operations Resume
Scotts Mills—The Scotts Mills mill resumed sawing after a shutdown for repairs.

GRAND
— CONT. FROM 1 P.M. —
NOW!
The Boldest of Them All!
BENEDICT BOGEAUS
"CAPTAIN KIDD"
Charles Randolph
LAUGHTON - SCOTT
BARBARA BRITTON
with JOHN CARADINE, GILBERT ROLOD
JOHN QUALIER, SHILOOH LEONARD
HENRY DANIELL, ARNER BUDMAN and REGINALD OWEN
Produced by BENEDICT BOGEAUS
Directed by HOWARD V. LEE
Original Story by ROBERT A. LEE
Screenplay by HOWARD V. LEE
A HOWARD V. LEE Production
LATE NEWS!

Swing your partner...Have a Coke

... the gang gets together at the "Y"

Boys and girls together make fun a sure-fire bet. And you can always count on one friend of all of them being on hand—ice-cold Coca-Cola. In the lingo of youth, Have a Coke is the greeting that says You're one of the crowd. It's a standing invitation to have a good time and enjoy the friendly pause.

BOTTLED UNDER AUTHORITY OF THE COCA-COLA COMPANY BY COCA - COLA BOTTLING COMPANY OF OREGON
SALEM, OREGON

Hear Morton Downey, KSLM, 9:15 a.m.

Coke = Coca-Cola
"Coca-Cola" and its abbreviation "Coke" are the registered trademarks which distinguish the product of The Coca-Cola Company.