Miss Lytle Engaged

Engagements take the social spotlight this week. Announced was the betrothal of Miss Eileen Lytle, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. L. Lytle, and Bradley W. Young, son of Mr. and Mrs. B. W. Young of Spokane, Wash.

Announcement was made Monday evening at the Delta Gamma house on the Willamette university campus, when boxes of candy told Miss Lytle's sorority sisters the news.

Miss Lytle attended Portland schools and is a sophomore at Willamette university. She is rushing chairman of the Delta Gamma house and a member of the sophomore honorary, Beta Alpha Gamma.

Her fiancé attended Spokane schools and was a member of the V-12 unit at Willamette last year. He wrote the 1945 freshman song for Freshman Glee. He is now attending the University of Washington under the naval reserve officers' training program.

No definite plans have been made by the couple for their marriage.

The Salem General Hospital auxiliary will meet Thursday morning at 10 o'clock at the YWCA.

First Church Is Scene of Rites

The First Methodist church, decked with pink and white snapdragons was scene Tuesday evening of the marriage of Miss Shirley Adams, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert L. Adams and Clifton H. Boehmer, son of Mr. and Mrs. Willard Boehmer, all of West Salem.

Rev. Daniel Schulze performed the 8 o'clock ceremonies. Miss Barbara Dillon, wearing a blue gown and Miss Beverly Fox, wearing pink, lighted the altar tapers. Both girls wore flower wristlets. J. P. Smart sang before the wedding and accompanying him was Miss Alice Rose.

The bride, who was given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of white satin fashioned with a low waistline, sweetheart neckline and long sleeves. Her finger-tip length veil fell from a crown of white satin and she carried an arm bouquet of calla lilies.

Maid of honor for the bride was Miss LaVerne Harnsberger, wearing a pastel pink gown designed with a taffeta bodice and full net skirt. She wore a wreath of pink and white carnations in her hair and carried a snowier bouquet of the same flowers.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Delbert Bair, who wore a gown of rose taffeta and Mrs. Clare Applegate wearing a gown of pastel blue taffeta. The gowns were identical with low waistlines and short sleeves. They wore wreaths in their hair and carried shower bouquets of pink and white carnations.

Best man was the bridegroom's brother, Stanley Boehmer and ushers were Neil Boehmer and R. Wilson Clark.

For her daughter's nuptials, the bride's mother chose a pink jersey gown with which she wore black accessories and an orchid. Mrs. Boehmer wore a gown of blue, black accessories and an orchid.

A reception was held following the ceremony in the Carrier room of the church. Presiding at the urn was Miss Olive M. Dahl. Cutting the cake was Mrs. W. E. Knower and assisting her was Mrs. R. W. Clarke.

Serving and assisting about the rooms were Mrs. Howard Blankley, Mrs. R. Wilson Clarke, Miss Dorothy Hoar, Miss Dorothy Kenney, Miss Elaine Cloudy, Miss Marilee McFarland, Miss Virginia Barber and Miss Patricia Carter.

In charge of gifts were Mrs. James Lepley, Mrs. Stanley Boehmer, Mrs. Howard Blankley and Mrs. R. Wilson Clarke. Miss Doris Martin, passed the guest book.

Following the wedding the couple left for a brief wedding trip to the north. For going away, the bride wore a pastel green tulleur fashioned with dolman sleeves. She chose a winter white hat, blue topcoat and accessories and a white orchid.

The couple will live in West Salem. The bride is a graduate student at Willamette university, having attended Salem schools before her entrance in college.

Her husband is a graduate of Fulton, S. D., schools and served three years in the South Pacific with the marines. He plans to enter college next winter.
