

Ray Milland, in Paramount's "The Lost Weekend," receives sympathetic advice from Jane Wyman and Phillip Terry. Now showing at the Elsinore theater.

Dallas School Contracts For Two Additional Rooms

Dallas—Contract for the construction of two additional rooms to the Dallas elementary school building was awarded to Ora Lantz of Rickreall, who bid $15,700 for the job. L. J. Smith, chairman of school district No. 2, has announced.

Plan Revival Hop Bowl, Inc.

Independence—A meeting of all who are interested in the Hop Bowl has been called for next Monday evening at the City hall, 7:30 o'clock.

At a meeting held last week those present favored a continuance of the organization and a committee consisting of R. H. Morgan, E. P. Oppinger, Walter L. Smith, William Darling and Dr. C. E. Long was appointed to arrange for a general meeting for the reorganization and election of new officers for the Hop Bowl, Inc.

Those interested in the Hop Bowl are strong in their contention that the organization should be carried on and that a show should be held this year. The last hop fiesta was held in 1941.

Glen C. Smith has been acting as chairman and Theron Hoover, secretary, since that time.

Eight Teachers Drop Contracts

Silverton—A. B. Anderson, superintendent of schools and clerk of the district, submitted a report of elections and resignations of teachers following the board of directors' offering contracts to the entire teaching force of the past year, for the ensuing school year.

Newly elected are the high school principal, Laurence Butler and Miss Marjorie Nelson, both of Baker, who will instruct in English and languages.

Resignations received are from Mrs. W. P. Scarth, library and Spanish; Miss Barbara Levee, English; Miss Marjorie Epler, girls' physical education; Joseph Edmiston, music; Mrs. Walter Claus, sixth grade; Mrs. Esther Erickson, first grade; Mrs. Dale Lamar, fourth grade; and Mrs. Lulu Sannerud, who is moving to Milwaukee to make her home.

During this school year, Superintendent Anderson served as supervisor of all the school, as principal of the high school as clerk of the school district No. 4. Because of over-crowded conditions in the grades the former high school building on First street will be opened for class work requiring additional teachers over the number of the year 1945 and '46.

Lyon Lodge Guest Of Adah Chapter

Independence—Adah chapter of the Order of Eastern Star will entertain members of Lyon lodge, No. 29, AF & AM, Tuesday evening, starting with a nash dinner at 7 o'clock.

Following the dinner a short meeting of the chapter will be held, after which all Masons will be invited into the hall for a special program arranged for them by Star members. The initiatory work has been postponed, according to an announcement made by Mrs. Joe Rogers, worthy matron.

Bailes in Jefferson

Jefferson—Pfc. Virgil Bailes arrived in Jefferson Monday from Pratt, Kans., where he has been stationed. He left for Ft. Lewis, where he will receive his discharge after being in the service for two and a half years. Mrs. Bailes and their small son have been with her parents, Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Powell, in Jefferson.

Silverton PTA Has Election

Silverton—Mrs. Ole Meland was elected president of the Silverton Parent-Teacher association. Assisting Mrs. Meland will be Mrs. Neil Miller, vice-president; Mrs. H. B. Madden as secretary, and Miss Hannah Olson as treasurer.

The associated delegates M. B. Ford, principal of the Eugene Field grades, to buy and place on the playgrounds a "Jungle Gym," play equipment. The present setup of giant strides will be changed, the metal to be replaced by ropes.

Many Meals Served Meals reported served during March from the one-hot-dish lunch room totaled 6,692, with a charge of ten cents a meal. The most served any single day were 376.

A total of 765 smallpox vaccinations were made this week at the school health rooms under direction of the Marion county health authorities.

Miss Olga Johnson, chairman for many years of the student aid committee, asked for clothing donations for small boys.

Program Is Presented Two fifth grade and two sixth grade rooms were responsible for showing pictures of health questions that have to do with the fight against tuberculosis. Gary Tokstad gave piano selections.

Miss Bessie Gregerson and Miss Clara Hanson presided at the urns. Mrs. R. J. Van Cleave, general chairman, was assisted in arrangements by Mrs. Ole Meland, Mrs. Henry Lehr and Mrs. Harley DePeel.

Serving on the nominating committee were Mrs. F. J. Roubal, Mrs. W. H. Woodard, Jr., and Miss Olga Johnson.

Champoeg Post Plans Ceremony

Woodburn—Champoeg post, No. 4173, Veterans of Foreign Wars, and Champoeg post auxiliary met in regular session Wednesday night at the IOOF hall. New members initiated into the post were Walter Scarborough, Jr., and Vernard D. Bumgarner. Initiated into the auxiliary were Hattie Baumgarner and Lillie May Reese.

Auxiliary delegates elected to attend the department encampment at Corvallis the last week in June were: First delegate, Anna Lenners; second delegate, Hazel Tyler; first alternate, Clementine Stange; second alternate, Mae Reck.

Plans were made for joint installation of officers for the post and auxiliary on April 17 in the IOOF hall, which will be open to the public. A special invitation is extended to veterans, their wives, mothers and sisters. District Commander Virgil Bolton of Salem will install for the post and District President Mary Strayer, also of Salem, will install for the auxiliary. Following the installation refreshments will be served by the auxiliary.

Dallas Still Short Red Cross Quota

Dallas—Still somewhat short of its Red Cross fund quota although the official closing date of the drive is nearly a week past, Dallas has raised $2483 towards its goal of $2850, according to a report of the VFW auxiliary, local sponsors.

Mrs. H. D. Peterson and Mrs. L. M. Dennis, co-chairmen, state that several reports are yet to be received from Dallas organizations, and it is possible that the quota will be met. They have urged all groups who have not yet reported to do so at once, turning contributions and supplies in to Mrs. Fred Holman, treasurer.

The VFW auxiliary is handling solicitation of the residential districts, clubs, lodges, churches and other organizations. A Chamber of Commerce committee headed by Bill Blackley has completed the solicitation of the business section where $890 was raised.

Mrs. Knoche Honored Unionvale—A surprise birthday party honored Mrs. Knoche at her home. Attending were her uncle, Henry Wickler of McMinnville, Mr. and Mrs. W. A. Stockhoff and family, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Armentrout and family, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Stockhoff and family.

Phil Regan has no trouble holding the attention of Gale Storm in this scene from "Sunbonnet Sue," gay musical featuring the songs and tunes of Gus Edwards and others, coming to the Grand theater tomorrow.

Naomi Assembly Seats Officers

Dallas—Installation of new officers of Naomi Assembly No. 17, Order of Rainbow Girls, attracted a capacity crowd of relatives and friends of members on the regular meeting night of the group.

Visitors attending enjoyed a covered dish dinner with the girls prior to the ceremonies.

Helen Price was installed as worthy advisor and received many gifts from members and a fountain pen from her parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. O. Price. Miss Price was presented a corsage by Elsie Rose Yungen, outgoing worthy advisor, who was in charge of the installation ceremony.

Joanne Domaschowsky was installing marshal, Barbara Kracher installing chaplain and Margaret Sanders, musician.

New officers seated, besides Miss Price, were: Charlotte Jones, associate worthy advisor; Doris Stewart, charity; Virginia Holmes, hope; Shirley Gohke, faith; Marjorie Lettchen, drill leader; Jean Effenberger, honorary drill leader; Joy Van Saiten, historian; Virgil Richardson, musician; Karen VanDenBosch, choir director; Luella Nelson, outer observer; Beryl Parrish, confidential observer; Janet Parnhart, joy; Ruth Jackson, religion; Maxine Hodges, nature; Charlotte Ross, immortality; Marie McKnight, fidelity; Mary Dornacker, patriotism; Jean Flux service; and Roberta Malstrom, chaplain.

Mrs. R. L. VanDenBosch, mother advisor, gave a short talk welcoming parents and friends of the girls in the meeting.

Seventeen Permits Issued for Quarter

Independence—The report of building permits for the first quarter of 1946 submitted to the city council by Walter L. Smith, building inspector, shows a total of $25,415 of permits issued.

Following is a list of the 17 permits issued: Dane Purvine $1,000, $5,000, $7,000 and $6,000; Charles H. Wilson, $950, H. W. Hudson, $300, F. C. Lowe, $300, Jim Baird, $25, Paul Schiewek, $1,000, Wm. Stalnaker, $600, W. C. Martin, $25, Everett N. Saden, $500, John Rockwell, $15, L. E. Watson, $400, Tom R. Smith, $100, B. Humphrey, $200 and Kenneth Krebs, $2,000.

Junior High School Offering Operetta

Dallas—Cast for "Cinderella's Slipper," an operetta to be presented by the Dallas junior high school Friday evening, April 12, has been announced by Miss Earline Gleason, director. The role of Cinderella will be played by Marlene Grant, and the prince will be Buddy Hodges. Others in the cast are Marjorie Ford, stepmother; Gloria Floyd and Beryl Parrish, two stepsisters; Patricia Burr, fairy godmother, and Raymond Hiebert, Thimble Bonnet.

Also included will be a chorus of many voices, to be accompanied by Jean Lambert. Numbers will be presented between acts by the junior high girls' trio, composed of Donna Goertzen, Alice Nallinger and Jean Lambert, with Beverly Kliever, accompanist.

The performance will be held in the high school auditorium, beginning at 8 o'clock.

Silverton—Bernard Hessler paid $5 and costs for operating a motor vehicle with no license, and James M. Furlong $2 and costs for driving a motor vehicle without proper clearance lights in the justice court of Judge Alf. O. Nelson this week. Warrants were served by Constable O'Brien.

Hosch Offers Play Acreage

Scio—Plans for a recreation site and a building are under consideration by several leading Scio citizens with a view to providing pastime for young people of the community.

J. M. Melvin, recent arrival from California, tentatively employed as special police officer in Scio, explained details of a proposal which, he believed, would fill a want apparently pressing for solution in this community.

Dr. J. F. Hosch, owner of several hundred acres of choice farm land in the north city limits of Scio, recently stepped into the picture with a proposal to donate to the Scio school district four acres adjoining the city limits for an athletic field and potential new school building site, conditioned that a similar value, or $2000, be provided by interested persons of Scio for building a grandstand and a new boundary line fence.

The Scio school board presented the proposal to the community, with hope of fruitful results in the near future.

Doctor Will Open Woodburn Office

Woodburn—Dr. Delbert Reed, recently discharged from the army, is opening an office in Woodburn at his residence which he purchased from Mr. and Mrs. Tom Renn on the corner of Second and Hayes streets. Dr. Reed with his wife and two children, Duane Joe, 7, and Judith Ann, 5, arrived here from Omaha, Neb., where Mrs. Reed and children made their home with her parents while he was in the service.

At the time Dr. Reed entered the army his home was at Fossil. He served 34 months in the southwest Pacific, Australia and New Guinea and returned on terminal leave in October. He received his discharge in December, 1945.

Dr. Reed is remodeling the residence to include a suite of rooms for his office. Mr. and Mrs. Renn are moving to the Mary Whitman residence on Montgomery street which they have purchased.

Paralyzed Pilot Receives License

Albany, April 6 (AP)—After receiving his private pilot's license, 28-year-old Bert Kraber—paralyzed from the hips down since age 13—gave his first passenger a plane ride. The passenger was his wife. Kraber began taking lessons Feb. 27 in a plane with wheel controls—no foot rudder pedals.

Royal Neighbors Fete Birthdays

Silverton—Special birthday guests at the social meeting of the Royal Neighbors of America McGrath Camp No. 5225, this week were Margaret Ramsby, Hattie Benton and Charlotte Morrison.

During the business session with Alice Egan, oracle, in charge, plans for the state convention of April 18 and 19 were discussed. Marion Tucker and her drill team will be featured in a drill display the second day of the convention.

Social hostesses were Agnes Naegeli, Gertrude Moen, Velma Thompson and Doris Baller. The next meeting will be a business session.

Doctor Arrives at Woodburn Woodburn—Dr. and Mrs. Ernest A. Movius have arrived from Yakima, Wash., and are occupying the Overton residence at 344 Hardcastle avenue. Dr. Movius will share offices with Dr. Gerald B. Smith at the Woodburn hospital.

OLD TIME DANCES Waltzes, Quadrills, 2 and 3 Steps, Etc. With Tunes You Have Forgotten Every Saturday Nite Over Western Auto 259 Court Street Music by Paul Winslow Gang PUBLIC INVITED

PUD Directors On May Ballot

Albany—Nominations for the office of director have been completed by petition for both the Lebanon and Linn county PUD organizations which will be placed on the ballot for approval or disapproval by the voters living within the two proposed districts at the May primary election, according to County Clerk R. M. Russell.

The clerk has been thus notified by Charles E. Stricklin, secretary of the state hydro-electric commission, authorizing the clerk to place the names of the nominees on the special ballot, which will be made available to voters in those precincts or portions of precincts included within each proposed PUD.

Directors nominated for the county PUD, which excludes Albany and Lebanon, are W. W. Abraham, Hubert T. Hughes, Arthur Sandner, Walter Shelby and Bryan Smith.

Nominated to Lebanon PUD directorships are Thomas Gazeley, Warren C. Gill, George W. Harden, O. I. Lane and W. E. Miles.

ENDS TODAY (SAT.) Roddy McDowell "THUNDERHEAD" Tim Holt "SAGEBRUSH LAW" LIBERTY

—CONT. FROM 1 P.M.— Tomorrow! Music! Lena Horne Bill Robinson

"STORMY" WEATHER Cab Calloway & Orchestra • THRILL CO-HIT! Don Red Barry "MISSOURI OUTLAW"

ENDS TODAY! (SAT.) George Abbott's "SNAFU" Kay Francis "ALLOTMENT WIVES"

GRAND PHONE 3467 • MATINEE DAILY FROM 1 P.M. • PREVIEW TONITE 12 P.M. • AND STARTING TOMORROW!

BIG! GAY! TUNEFUL! GIRLY!

THE NIFTY TALE OF A LIL' SWIFTY... WHO THRILLED MERRY MANHATTAN WHEN IT TOOK LOTS O' NERVE TO SHOW A CURVE!