

SPRINGTIME gardening and springtime housecleaning are taking much of the time of Salem matrons these days, but nonetheless, there are a number of gala affairs on the early week schedule.

Several bride-elects will be honored at smart showers during the week, and romantic announcements of other bride-elects make important bridgetable conversation.

Plans for Music week next month, the YWCA building fund drive and numerous other community functions will fill the socialites' calendar. But the season is gay, with promise of good weather making springtime entertaining fun for all concerned.

By Jean Taylor

Secretary of State and Mrs. Robert S. Farrell, Jr., and their daughter, Sallie, left Friday afternoon for a week-end at their Gearhart beach house. They will open the house for the spring season, planning to return Sunday evening.

Impressive ceremony was held recently at St. Joseph's church when 64 girls of the newly formed Junior Catholic Daughters of America attended 9 o'clock mass in a body. Following the service they marched to the front of the church, each placing a red carnation at the altar.

Following the ceremony the girls and their counselors were honored with a breakfast given by the senior court of CDA. The Junior colors of white and green were carried out in the appointments. Special guest was Mrs. Selby Shunertman of Portland, state convent league.

The District III conference of Junior Woman's clubs, scheduled for Sunday, April 14, at the Mayflower hall, has been postponed indefinitely.

Guests at the home of Dr. and Mrs. Harold Olinger this week were Dr. and Mrs. Arthur A. Campbell of Walla Walla, Wash.

MRS. ROY OSTRIN, beautiful bride of last Sunday at the Calvary Baptist church. She is the former Ernestine Frederickson, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Frederickson. Her husband's parents are Mr. and Mrs. C. H. Ostrin. The couple will make their home in Salem. (Jessen-Miller studio)

The Salem council of Women's organizations will meet Thursday afternoon at 2 o'clock in the Floral room of the Salem Chamber of Commerce. Rev. Allen C. Wilcox, director of religious education, will be speaker for the afternoon. C. W. Paulus will discuss labor problems to arise in the summer and Mrs. Gladys Turnbull of the Farm Labor office will speak. Nominating committee will be appointed by Mrs. Albert J. Walker, president. The president and two representatives from each organization are asked to attend, as well as the interested public.

Portland visitors on Friday were Mrs. G. Frederick Chambers and her sister, Miss Dorthea Steusloff.

Announced this week are the marriage plans of Miss Patricia Jane Bell, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. C. G. Bell, and Edward Charles Mickle of Pittsfield, Mass.

In a simple ceremony the couple will be married Easter Sunday, April 21, at the First Baptist church at 2 o'clock. Rev. Lloyd T. Anderson will officiate at the nuptials, which will be witnessed by members of the couple's families and a few friends. Miss Bell and Mr. Mickle will be unattended. The couple will leave immediately following the wedding for Pittsfield, where they will make their home.

SALEM'S program for observance of National Music week will open Sunday, May 5. Churches will present special music and a concert will be presented that day by the Salem Oratorio society. Melvin H. Geist is director and Ralph Dobbs will be pianist. Joseph Schelher is organist.

Monday, May 6, at Waller hall, Willamette university will present a special concert with Ralph Dobbs as solo pianist. On Tuesday evening the Business and Professional Women's chorus will sing at Waller hall with Edna Marie Hill as pianist. Director is Mrs. Jessie Bush Mickelson.

The Parrish Junior high school will present a special music festival Wednesday evening at the Senior high school and the Leslie Junior high school will present an operetta, "The Forest Prince" by Tchaikovsky. Miss Wahl is director.

On Thursday evening, the Willamette university string orchestra will be presented in concert at Waller hall. Director is Bernard Barron and Dorothy Detrick is piano soloist and Katherine Schisler, piano.

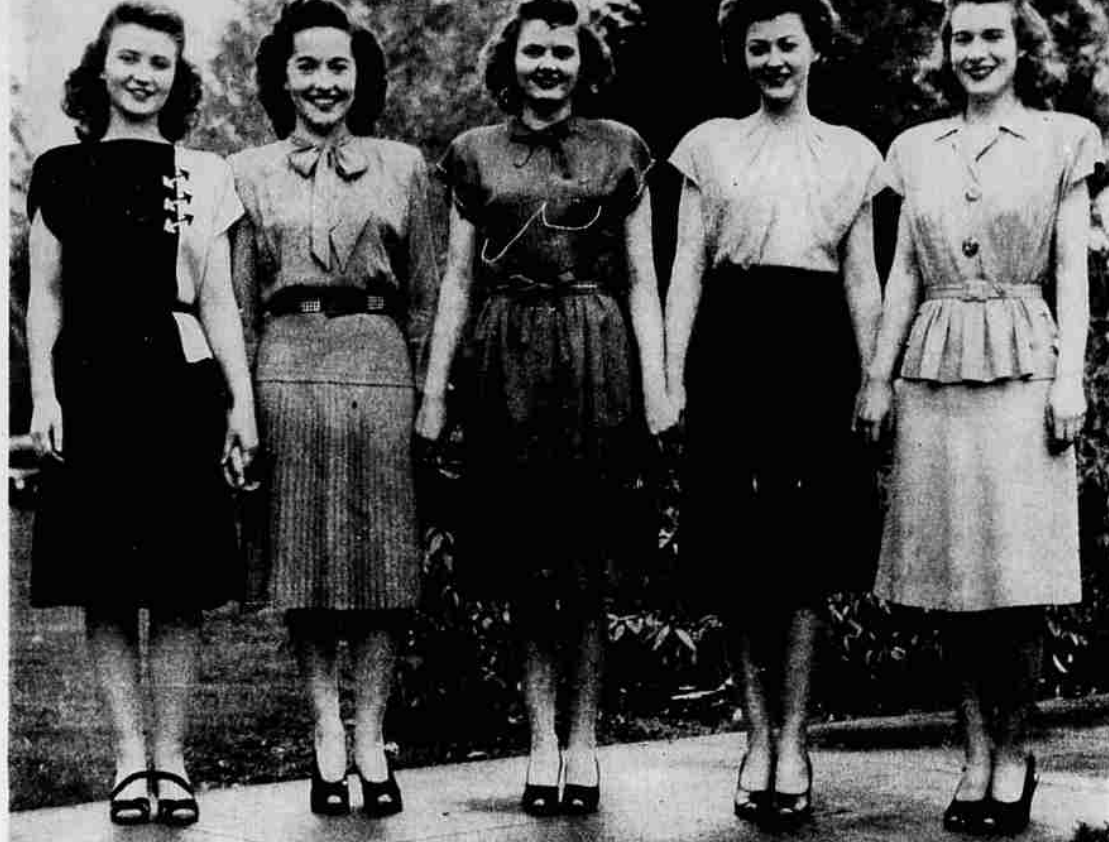

Thursday evening the Salem high school concert will be given at the high schools under combined direction of Lena Belle Tartar and Vernon Wiscarson. Friday, the Tri-Y chorus will offer its spring concert under the direction of Virginia Ward Elliott, at the First Presbyterian church.

On Sunday, the Sacred Heart Academy's annual spring concert will be held at St. Joseph's hall. The Salem Federated Music clubs will offer a special music week program at a time and place to be announced later. Miss Lena Belle Tartar is president of the group.

A number of pre and post events are scheduled for the observance of national and international Music Week in Salem.

The DeMolay Mothers' club met Thursday afternoon for luncheon at the Masonic temple.

The Easter theme was carried out in the decorations. Yellow tapers and daffodils were surrounded by nests of colored Easter eggs and yellow rabbits. Hostesses were Mrs. Glenn Hoar, Mrs. Merle Kempler. Plans were completed at the meeting for the father and son banquet planned for April 22.

LOVELY YOUNG MISSES from Willamette university, finalists in the Wallula queen contest, one of whom will be chosen to rule Saturday evening at the first formal dance of the spring semester. From left to right, the charming co-eds are Miss Paula Smith, Stayton; Miss Joyce Furman, Hall, Mont.; Miss Beverly Briggs, Great Falls, Mont.; Miss Frances Ball, Raymond, Wash., and Miss Eileen Lytle, Portland. (Jessen-Miller studio)

HONORING the many production workers for Marion county chapter, American Red Cross—the group who put in long hours during the war period making the garments needed by the armed forces and hospitals—an informal program and tea will be given the afternoon of April 23 at the Salem Woman's club, 2:30 o'clock.

A Red Cross film, featuring production work and showing where some of the articles are used, will be shown, the tea to follow.

The meeting is a county-wide one, production workers in all other communities of the county as well as those in Salem being invited. The event is arranged to show the chapter's appreciation for the loyal work done by the production group.

Friday evening, the First Evangelical church was scene of the marriage ceremony uniting Miss Eldoris Einfeldt and Keith Cobban of Eugene. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Einfeldt and Mrs. Hazel Sawyer of Eugene is the bridegroom's mother.

The 8 o'clock ceremony was performed by Rev. Wilmer Brown. Clifford Worm sang and Sana Millett played a violin solo, accompanied by William Fawc. Mrs. Irvin Froese of West Salem and Miss Ila Ness lighted the altar tapers.

The bride was given in marriage by her uncle, Rev. Harvey Snively. She wore a gown fashioned with a white satin bodice and a full net skirt. Her fingertip length veil fell from a coronet and she carried a colonial bouquet.

Maid of honor was Miss Annie Einfeldt, wearing pastel blue net and brocade and bridesmaid was Miss Louella Toews, wearing pastel pink. Miss Dorothy Polanski was junior bridesmaid wearing pastel blue. All three carried colonial nosegays.

Best man was Joe Murphy of Corvallis and Abe Doerkens and Irvin Froese of West Salem, seated the guests.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's parents. Mrs. John Toews cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Harvey Snively and Mrs. Margaret Polanski assisted. In charge of gifts was Mrs. George Peterson.

When the young couple left for their wedding trip, the bride wore a springtime print gown under a short gold coat. Her corsage was gardenias and violets. The couple will make their home in Alaska, as soon as transportation permits.

Announced this week is the coming marriage of Miss Marise Alder and David D. Geddes, to be solemnized Wednesday evening at 8 o'clock at the First Congregational church.

The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Whitworth of Bancroft, Ida., and her fiancé is the son of Mr. and Mrs. A. W. Geddes of Salem. Mr. Geddes was in Japan with the 11th airborne and is now a pre-medical student at Willamette. The bride-elect is a psychiatrist at the state hospital.

Elected Thursday morning at the meeting of the Salem General hospital auxiliary were Mrs. Chandler Brown, president; Mrs. John Carson, first vice president; Mrs. David B. Hill, second vice president; Mrs. Claybourne Dyer, recording secretary; Mrs. Glenn Paxson, treasurer. Chosen board members for the three year term are Mrs. Robert Brady, Mrs. Richard Chambers and Mrs. William L. Phillips, Jr., and for the two-year term, Mrs. Carl Nelson.

The Alpha Tau Omega state convales in Eugene will draw several alumnae members from Salem. Among those to receive 25 year pins at the banquet to be held Sunday at the Eugene hotel are Lee Brown, Charles Huggins and Walter Kirk.

Jottings by Jean

Pre-Easter Parade: Giddy and gay were the bonnets on display Monday night at the Easter Bonnet bridge given by the Junior Woman's club. . . lots of frills and fancies, and by no means were all of the hats on models. . . chairman of the event, Mrs. Arthur Roethlin's little daisy-topped, red ribboned crown. . . Mrs. Estill Brunk, advisor to the group, in a navy chip straw, new and crownless. . . Mrs. Carl Halvorsen in a big black straw, ruffe trimmed. . . and a whole room full of bedecked eye-catchers. . .

Social Highlight: Bess Truman entertained her bridge club at the White House this week and won the hearts of women everywhere. . . for even the first lady of the land enjoys an afternoon of bridge and chatting with old friends. . . and no doubt the appointments for the affair were no more elegant than those of many of Salem's hostesses. . .

Report of Wedding Bells: Dr. and Mrs. Charles Wood have written of the marriage of his sister, Mrs. Dorothy Ward Peters, who on April 8 became the bride of Stanley Garvie of Mitchell, S. D., at the Little Brown Church in the Vale at Nassau, Iowa. . . Mrs. Peters wore a renior blue suit with black accessories and a corsage of red roses. . . they went on to Kansas City after the wedding. . . standing with them were Dr. and Mrs. Wood and another brother, Dr. and Mrs. John R. Wood. . . the Woods wrote from the Edgewater Beach in Chicago, where they are "having a wonderful time". . .

Gathering of Note: Welcoming family this weekend will be Mr. and Mrs. Conrad Paulson. . . her sister, who was Elva Watson before her marriage in India to Capt. John G. Richards, will be here, as will Mrs. Earl B. Olson, another sister, and her children, Nancy and Stephan, from Corona del Mar, Calif. sisters and brothers-in-law Mr. and Mrs. James Kinersley of Eugene and Mr. and Mrs. Richard A. Adams of Portland, will all be in the capital, as well as Mrs. Thomas B. Watson, Mrs. Paulson's mother. Only person not present for the gathering will be Major Earl Olson, who is still on occupation duty in Korea. . .

Social Note in Portland: Attending the Herbert Darbey affair Tuesday in Portland will be Mr. and Mrs. Breyman Boise, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Huggins, Mr. and Mrs. A. C. Eoff and Mr. and Mrs. P. D. Quisenberry. . .

Heading for Gay-Time Play-Times: Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooley left Saturday for Chicago and New York. . . They'll be in New York April 21 and will see the famous Easter parade, St. John the Divine and all the other famous Easter traditions in the metropolis. . . On their return they'll come by way of Los Angeles, stop off and see daughter, Margie, in school at Mills. . . a wonderful month-long trip. . . Esther Ryan will leave the 19th by air for San Francisco and a visit with her daughter, Pat. . .

Heading Home: Mr. and Mrs. Donald McCargar after a brief look at the fun of San Francisco. . . They left last weekend and arrived home Saturday. . . Also returned are Mrs. Frank Lehmer and Mrs. Rollin K. Page, who have been in the south about six weeks. . . they report loads of sunshine in southern California and Death valley. . .

The Wesleyan Guild of Leslie Methodist church will meet Monday with Mrs. Virginia Boyd, 18 Fairview avenue. Mrs. Willa Davis is assisting hostess.

The Women of Rotary executive board will meet Monday afternoon at one o'clock at the home of Mrs. Howard Maple for a dessert luncheon.

The Central Willamette Valley association of Phi Beta Kappa will meet Monday evening, April 22, at 8 o'clock in the home of Mrs. J. M. Devers, 1375 Market street.

SATURDAY evening the Mirror room of the Marion hotel will be scene of an anniversary dinner celebrating the 50th year of Dr. M. C. Findley's entrance into the medical profession. Hosts for the event are Mrs. Findley and the couple's children.

Guests for the event will be members of the medical profession in Salem and their wives as well as representatives of the various executive boards with which Dr. Findley is affiliated.

Dr. G. Herbert Smith, president of Willamette university, will be toastmaster for the evening, and soloist will be Mrs. Bruce Spaulding. Furnishing chamber music during the evening will be the Willamette trio. Speaker will be Frank Bennett.

A number of out-of-town guests will honor Dr. Findley. Among them will be Dr. Lottie Findley Law of Hill City, Kansas, sister of Dr. Findley, Miss Mabelle Hair, secretary of extension division of the University of Oregon, niece of Dr. Findley, Dr. Grace Young of The Dalles, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Day and Mr. and Mrs. Albert Johnson of Portland.

Present also for the event will be the couple's children and their families, Dr. and Mrs. Robert Fischer Wulf, Mr. and Mrs. Roy M. Lockenour, all of Salem, Mr. and Mrs. George Oliver of Yakima, and their daughter, Joanne, Lawrence Heint and daughter, Dorothy of Yakima, Mr. and Mrs. P. H. Brydon of Granger, Wash., Mr. and Mrs. Bayard Findley, Miss Jane Findley and Mr. and Mrs. Robert Findley, all of Rickreall.

Mr. and Mrs. H. R. Woodburn will spend the week-end at their newly-acquired cottage at Oceanlake.

The Westminster guild of the First Presbyterian church will meet at 2 o'clock Wednesday afternoon.

Chairman of the program is Mrs. Charles Feike. Leading devotions will be Mrs. Ivan Stewart and special music has been arranged. Speaker of the afternoon is Mrs. L. L. Sanders who will discuss her recent trip to Mexico. The hostess committee is headed by Mrs. Robert Stanley and assisting her will be Mrs. Lawrence A. Ballmer, Mrs. J. Parker Linchberry and Mrs. F. J. Forrester.

The Ministers' Wives association will meet at 2 o'clock Tuesday afternoon at the home of Mrs. R. B. Leshar, 241 State street. Co-hostess will be Mrs. Ralph Kleen. Mrs. Robert Coulter will lead devotions and Mrs. Frank W. Watkins will sing. Mrs. Homer McWain will demonstrate and explain flower arrangements. All members are invited to attend.

Members of the Gaiety Hill Garden club will meet Monday afternoon at the home of Miss Elizabeth Lord in Mission street.

THE First Congregational church will be the setting April 24 for the marriage of Miss Betty Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Taylor, and Thomas B. Ritchey of Independence.

The 8 o'clock nuptials will be performed by Dr. Daniel Schulze. J. P. Smart and Mrs. Carolyn Gaskin Sullivan of Corvallis will sing, accompanied by Mrs. James Smart, Mrs. Robert C. Taylor and James G. Taylor will light the altar tapers.

The bride, who will be given in marriage by her father, has asked Mrs. Lloyd Reilly to be her matron of honor. Bridesmaids will be Mrs. Robert Worral and Mrs. George Abbot. Best man will be Paul Carey of Independence and ushers will be John Holecchek and Guy Travis of Independence and Lloyd Reilly and James Taylor of Salem.

Following the nuptials, a reception will be held in the fireplace room of the church.

POPULAR YOUNG BRIDE-ELECT is Miss Betty Taylor, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. A. A. Taylor, whose marriage to Thomas Ritchey of Independence will be an event of April 24. A number of pre-nuptial affairs have feted the couple this week. (Jessen-Miller studio)