

MRS. Ray A. Yocom, who next week will leave the capital to make her home in Chicago, will be honored Wednesday afternoon at a dessert luncheon given at the Stewart street home of Mr. and Mrs. David Wright.

Sixteen of Mrs. Yocom's intimate friends have been invited to the affair. Following the luncheon, which will be served at small tables centered with bouquets of spring flowers, contract bridge will be in play.

Chadwick chapter, Order of Eastern Star will meet Tuesday evening at the Masonic temple. Specially honored will be past matrons and patrons of Eastern Star. Past matrons and patrons are invited.

FRIDAY, April 19, the "Woman of the Week" for the Salem area will be announced by the Oregon Federation of Woman's clubs on the club program at 2 o'clock over KOAC.

Judges for the event are a secret selection made by Mrs. George Rossman, president of the Salem Woman's club. They form a local committee of three community workers, one of whom must be a man.

Selection will be made from women who rate highest in possession of the following attributes: She must be active in community affairs, she must show quality of leadership, she must possess sincerity and understanding, she must hold the international viewpoint, she must inspire genuine cooperation on worthwhile projects and she must achieve success in her homemaking.

ANNOUNCED THIS WEEKEND IS THE ENGAGEMENT of Miss June Beverly Craig, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clark M. Craig, to Fred Matthieu, son of Mrs. Jeanette Matthieu of Salem. No definite date has been set for the wedding. The bridegroom-elect has recently been released from the army after five years' service.

THE state convention of the Royal Neighbors of America will be opened Tuesday morning in the Veterans' hall by Mrs. Frank M. Hoyt, Salem oracle. Scheduled for last year 100th anniversary of the society's founding meetings all over the country were postponed because of war conditions. Over 300 delegates are expected to register for the two-day meeting. The program, arranged by Mrs. Arthur Weddle, general chairman, is as follows:

Tuesday morning: Registration of members and delegates, get-acquainted hour with songs, with adjournment for lunch at 11:30.

Tuesday afternoon: Formal opening by the Salem camp, school of instruction conducted by Mrs. Mae Logan of Portland, state supervisor, with various camps presenting the ritualistic work.

Tuesday evening: Banquet served in the VFW dining room at 6:30 with program and music during the banquet. 8:30—Program open to the public. Address by David O'Hara for the city of Salem. Memorial service will be presented by the Albany camp. Stunts and drills by various camps. Special music by students from the Graham Studios.

Wednesday morning: State Camp called to order by State Oracle Sarah Peterson, with appointments made of state camp officers. Naming of committees and committee reports. Adjournment for lunch at 12 noon, with lunch served in the VFW dining room.

Wednesday afternoon: Business meeting of state camp delegates, with election of supreme delegates and state officers.

Wednesday evening: Installation of officers by Silverton Escort team. Address by Mrs. Mae Logan, state supervisor, special musical selections by Meisinger Studios, and drills and stunts from delegate camps.

The Jaycee-ettes are giving a benefit card party Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Mayflower hall. At a late hour refreshments will be served. Mrs. Pat Crossland and Mrs. Elmo Lindholm will pour. Reservations may be made with Mrs. R. F. Lockhard, who heads the committee in charge. Assisting her are Mrs. Charles Hoover, Mrs. Howard Walker, Mrs. Wesley Goodrich and Mrs. Wayne Adams.

Announced Friday evening at the Sigma Kappa sorority house at Oregon State college was the engagement of Miss Betty Viesko, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Fred Viesko of Salem, to Leon Everitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Everitt of Springfield, Mo.

The couple will marry in the early summer, following the bride-elect's graduation. She attended Sacred Heart academy and is a senior at Oregon State college.

Her fiancé attended Springfield schools and has served four years in the army, ten months of which were spent in the China-Burma-India theater. The couple will live in Salem.

The romantic announcement was made Friday evening when tiny newspapers carrying the betrothal news in banner headlines were passed among Miss Viesko's sorority sisters at dinner.

MISS BETTY VIESKO, who Friday evening made known her engagement to Leon Everitt, son of Mr. and Mrs. Alfred Everitt of Springfield, Mo. The couple will marry in the early summer following Miss Viesko's graduation from Oregon State college, where she is a member of Sigma Kappa. Her parents are Mr. and Mrs. Fred Viesko of Salem. (Jessen-Miller studio)

INSTALLATION of the new officers of Willamette Shrine No. 2, Order of the White Shrine of Jerusalem will be held Monday evening at the Masonic temple. Soloists for the event will be Mrs. Eugenia Lamb and Ronald Craven, to be accompanied by Mrs. Ronald Craven.

Officers for 1946 are Miss LaVerne Kantner, worthy high priestess, William Neimeyer, watchman of shepherds, Mrs. Abner Kline, noble prophetess, Wilbur Pintler, associated watchman of shepherds, Miss Eva Ferree, worthy scribe, Miss Mary B. Sayles, worthy treasurer, Mrs. Percy R. Kelly, worthy chaplain, Mrs. Wilbur Pintler, worthy shepherdess, Mrs. Kate Rasmussen, worthy guide, Mrs. Maude Space, worthy herald, Charles S. Morgan, first wise man, Claire P. Davis, second wise man, Stanley Brown, king, Mrs. Robert Crawford, queen, Gladys Harnsberger, first hand maid, Mrs. Maxine Hill, second hand maid, Mrs. Ronald Craven, organist, Mrs. William Neimeyer, worthy guardian, Albert Walker, worthy guard, Mrs. Everett B. Millard, madonna.

Installing officers for the event will be Miss Grace Babcock, Mrs. Winifred Herrick, Miss Constance Kantner, Miss Ruth Moore, Mrs. Pearl Spear, all worthy high priestesses. Retiring officers are Mrs. Emma S. Brown and Wayne D. Henry.

Weekend guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Harry V. Collins are Mr. and Mrs. Merrill Hancock of Tacoma, Wash.

The Federated Music clubs of Salem will present a program Sunday afternoon at 3:30 o'clock at the YMCA. The public is invited to the event. Charles Hargraves is in charge of arrangements, and Mrs. Frank Burlingham of the program. Jessie Bush-Mickelson will handle the radio broadcast.

Counselors are William Fawk, Mrs. Walter Germain, Fern Craven, Mrs. P. F. Thomas, Mrs. Walter Denton, Mrs. Frank Burlingham, Jessie Bush Mickelson, Mrs. David Eason, Jean Hobson Rich, Lena Belle Tartar, Charles Hargrave, Margaret Hogg, Sacred Heart academy, Frances V. Melton.

The Mothers' club of St. Joseph's school was entertained at a meeting Thursday afternoon with a program by the sixth grade. Speakers for the afternoon were Dr. Lawrence Riggs, who discussed "Appraising a Child's Progress in School," and Father John Maholy, who showed pictures of and discussed customs of China, where he spent four years as a boys' school teacher.

Capital unit, No. 9, American Legion auxiliary, will meet Monday evening at 8 o'clock at the Woman's club. Past presidents will be honored, and a short musical program will follow the regular business meeting.

Serving on the refreshment committee will be Mrs. J. H. Brady, chairman, Mrs. Floyd Howard, Mrs. Oscar Cutler, Mrs. E. W. Ransdell, Mrs. Charlotte Apple, Mrs. Susan Biddle, Mrs. J. H. Holt, Mrs. John French and Mrs. Nystrom.

Mrs. Gayle Mauk was installed as president of the West Salem VFW auxiliary, No. 4248, at a joint installation at the City hall Thursday evening. Mrs. Freeda Peterson, department junior vice president, was installing officer, assisted by the Dallas officers. Refreshments were served by Mrs. Solon Shinkle, Mrs. Gayle Mauk, Mrs. Ira Noteboom, Mrs. P. Williams and Mrs. Elizabeth Hoffman.

Members of Spinners, debutante philanthropic organization, will meet with Miss Pat Cannon, 140 Salem Heights avenue, Monday evening for a regular business session.

President, Miss Carolyn Brady, will be in charge of the meeting, during which plans will be made for summer activities of the group.

THE APRIL MEETING of the American Association of University Women will be held Saturday, April 20, at 2 o'clock in the Carrier room of the First Methodist church.

Miss Eleanor Stephens, program chairman, has been very fortunate in being able to bring to the Salem branch Robert Tyler Davis, director of the Portland art museum. Mr. Davis has been in charge of the art museum since 1939. He was previously associated with the Albright art gallery of Buffalo, where he contributed much to the art program. During his six and a half years in Oregon he has added many interesting features to the art museum and in art circles.

Mrs. Elizabeth Boylan Welch, who is a past student of Miss Frances Virginia Melton, will play several piano selections. Mrs. Welch has studied music in the Cincinnati conservatory and in San Francisco.

Miss Lorraine Meusey will be chairman of the decoration committee, and will be assisted by Mrs. Harold Shogren, Mrs. Walter Barsch, Mrs. Lyman Steed and Mrs. Hugh Taylor.

The hospitality committee will be headed by Mrs. Floyd Utter. Mrs. Lloyd Hockett, Mrs. J. B. Bywater and Mrs. Laporte will assist.

Miss Florence Inglis, soprano, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Inglis of Dallas, will be presented in solo concert by Mrs. Bruce Spaulding Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock, at the Spaulding home in Fairmount. At the piano will be Miss Ruth Bedford.

Following the concert a reception will be held at the Spaulding home. Pouring during the afternoon hours will be Miss Dorothy Pearce and Mrs. Paul Petri of Corvallis.

Assisting about the rooms will be Miss Jean Smith of Dallas, Miss Gayle Jacobs, Miss Ellen Meyers, Miss Mary Lou LaChappelle, Miss Jeri Boylan and Miss Jean Edmonds, all classmates of Miss Inglis at St. Helen's hall in Portland.

ROMANTIC BRIDE-TO-BE is Miss Ruth Barber, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. W. H. Barber, who this week made known her betrothal to E. M. McCargar, Jr. No date has been set for the wedding. Both young people are students at Willamette university. (Jessen-Miller studio)

Final preparations are underway by local Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae for the tea they are giving Sunday afternoon in honor of high school girls who expect to enter college in the fall. The tea is to be held at the home of Mrs. J. H. Turnbull, 1365 North 21st street, from three until five o'clock.

In the receiving line at the tea will be Mrs. Stuart Thede, Salem alumnae club president; Miss Margery Earl, retiring president of the University of Oregon chapter; and Miss Vernita Perrin, president of the Oregon State chapter. Greeting guests at the door will be Mrs. Robert Brown and Mrs. Herman Joehimsen.

Mrs. M. D. Thomas is in charge of decorations at the tea table and those pouring will include Mrs. Francis Smith, Mrs. Estill Brunk, Mrs. Erwin Peterson, and Mrs. Thomas. Mrs. Calvin Kent and Mrs. Brunk are co-chairmen of the tea.

Alpha Gamma Delta alumnae from out-of-town who are planning to attend the tea include Mrs. Ruth Hubbard of Corvallis, Miss Jo Wasson, of Corvallis and president of the Oregon State college Alpha Gamma Delta executive council; Mrs. E. B. Bossett, Dallas; Mrs. Kenneth McGrath, Woodburn; Miss Betty Towle, Silverton; and Mrs. John Dickenson and Mrs. Robert Tiernan of Independence.

The South section of the Women's Guild of the First Presbyterian church will meet Wednesday afternoon at 2:30 o'clock with Mrs. E. A. Carlton in Liberty road, Miss Jean Poling will be assistant hostess.

Congratulations are being extended to Lt. and Mrs. Philip F. McKinlay upon the birth of a son, Elbert France, at Jefferson Barracks, Mo. The baby is the grandson of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph France McKinlay and Mr. and Mrs. Clifford Harold, all of Salem.

ATTRACTIVE JUNIOR MISS IS FLORENCE INGLIS, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. J. A. Inglis of Dallas. Miss Inglis attends St. Helen's hall in Portland and has been recently chosen queen of the school's May fete. She is also president of the hall's and honorary, the Helenas. Sunday she will appear in solo recital presented by Mrs. Bruce Spaulding.

St. Mark's Lutheran church will be the scene Sunday afternoon at 4 o'clock of the marriage of Miss Helen Smith, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Bert Smith, and William Beckwith, son of Mr. and Mrs. Ralph E. Beckwith of Indianapolis, Ind.

Rev. Mark Getzenander will perform the ceremonies. Sister-in-law of the bride, Mrs. Floyd Smith, wearing a gown of pastel blue jersey, will light the altar tapers with a flower-based candle. Singing before the ceremony will be Max Alford, who will be accompanied by Prof. Maurice Brennen.

Mr. Smith will give his daughter in marriage. Her gown will be fashioned with a white marquisette skirt, full train and long satin bodice with pointed sleeves. A deep yoke of marquisette will be edged with a lace ruffle. Her silk net floor-length veil will fall from a lace cap and will have lace corner inserts. She will carry a white prayer book topped with white orchids.

Mrs. Roy Ostrin, the only attendant, will wear a pastel blue jersey gown, fashioned with a long waistline and full skirt. She will carry a colonial nosegay of pink and white snapdragons and carnations.

Best man will be the bride's brother, Floyd Smith, and ushers will be Roy Ostrin and Malcolm Page.

For her daughter's nuptials, Mrs. Smith has selected a navy blue silk gown of street length, with a pink jabot. Her accessories will be navy and her flower-girls gardenias.

A small reception in the church parlors will follow the nuptials. Mrs. Charles Stricklin will pour and the bride's aunt, Mrs. Joseph Reading of Klamath Falls, will cut the bride's cake. In charge of the guest book will be Mrs. Orville South and Mrs. Dean Trumbo, and Mrs. William Whitmore will serve.

For going away, the bride will wear a sea-foam green suit with black accessories. Her hat will be a black straw and her flowers, white orchids. The couple will travel to San Francisco and the bay area before entraining for Indianapolis, where they will be at home.

Rehearsals are underway for "The Great Big Doorstep," a three-act comedy, senior class play to be presented April 26 at 8:15 o'clock in the Salem senior high school auditorium. The production is under the direction of Miss Margaret Burroughs, dramatics teacher.

Cast in the leading roles are Jean Mitchell, playing Mrs. Crochet, Jim Baer as the commodore, Barbara Sundet as Evvie and Evelyn Esau as Topal. Playing in supporting roles are Doris Walser, Velma Davis, Joe Brazie, Stanley Hawk, Betty Lou Bice, Jim Miller, Bob Pendergraft and Barbara Baldwin.

Admission tickets will soon be on sale. Seniors in charge of the production are Dick Cole, advertising manager, Dale Cleaver, Jim Ragland and Nancy Buron; Bob Meyer, tickets; Mary Elizabeth Reinhardt and Martha Steusloff, properties; Dale Cleaver, stage design, and Marjann Croisan, costumes.

Miss Carolyn Brown, who is much feuded during these weeks prior to her marriage, was honor guest Friday evening when Mrs. Dean Trumbo and Mrs. Ollie Williams entertained at the Trumbo home in Silverton road with a desert bridge.

Daffodils and hyacinths set the color note about the rooms. Covers were placed for Miss Brown, Mrs. Jack Chapin, Mrs. Bruce Van Wyngarden, Mrs. Oscar Swenson, Mrs. Thomas Hill, Jr., Mrs. Arnold Hardman, Mrs. Alan Sievert, Mrs. Ewald Franz, Miss Jere Simmons of Monmouth, Miss Muriel Lindstrom, Miss Gayle Dennison of Junction City, Miss Margery Herr of Albany, Miss Beth Siewert and the hostesses.

The Theater Arts group will meet Tuesday afternoon for dessert luncheon at the home of Mrs. V. M. Sackett. Mrs. Charles McElhinny will be in charge of the program, reading, "Dear Ruth" by Norman Krasna.