

East Salem Greets War Bride; New Business Firms Opened

East Salem, May 7—This past week Mr. and Mrs. Menno Dalke of East Garden Road have been making the acquaintance of their daughter-in-law and granddaughter from Townsville, Australia.

STAYTON HAS A TEAM RUNAWAY

Stayton, Ore., May 7—Re-enactment of pioneer days brought injuries to a woman, death to a horse and damages to an automobile during the brief course of a runaway team.

Mr. and Mrs. J. E. Rookstool were driving a farm wagon into town on West Ida street shortly after 2 p.m. when the team, apparently frightened by a piece of paper blown across the street, ran away.

Mrs. Rookstool was thrown from the wagon when it struck and damaged the rear of a parked automobile. She received cuts and bruises about the face and shoulders and suffered shock.

The team continued around the corner where one of the horses dropped dead, apparently from a broken neck received in the crash into the automobile.

Australia. Mrs. Clayton Dalke and daughter, Linda Marie, arrived in San Francisco on the Mariposa, and were met by Captain Dalke who accompanied them to Salem. He came back to the States last October, and he too, was making the acquaintance of his four-month-old daughter. Mrs. Dalke, the former Mavis Wyer, says that it was a serious experience to leave father, mother and brothers and sisters to come to the States to live, but she found the Red Cross so very helpful. She marvels at the amount of women's wearing apparel in our stores and the many conveniences of the home, like washing machines, etc. They are also visiting at the home of Captain Dalke's sister, Mrs. Leo Singer and family in Salem, and will be here until living quarters can be found at Camp Douglas, Utah, where Capt. Dalke is now located.

Two new business places have been established on Garden road just recently. The Wesley Manufacturing company doing contract lumbering such as small cabinet pieces, and the Kufner Welty repair shop for tractors and farming machinery, farther out on Garden road. Auburn Woman's club will meet Thursday at the Four Corners community hall for the regular May meeting. Mrs. Harry J. Eckstein was hostess for a special meeting last week honoring the retiring president, Mrs. William Raitz with a handkerchief shower.

Banquet Plans Are Complete

Silverton—The annual Mother-Daughter banquet sponsored by the missionary society members will be held Friday, May 10 at the church social rooms. Tickets may be secured from Mrs. Martin Hannan of James avenue, and Mrs. Lynn Neal of Oak street.

The Christian church summer school will open shortly after the close of the public schools, and will continue in session for a fortnight. Miss Alice Loron will be supervisor.

The Christian church group will join with other churches of town for the evening Mothers' Day program at the Eugene Field school auditorium as the final program, locally, of Music Week.

The Christian Loyal Bearer Sunday school class will hold their regular monthly business and social meeting, Tuesday at 2 p.m., at the church parlors. The Junior Women's Guild entertained the young women's group from Immanuel Lutheran church Monday evening in a specially prepared program and social hour at the church social rooms. The annual bazaar of the young women will be all-day, May 11, at the Bloch Electric store.

Silverton Musical Affairs Calendared

Silverton—The three remaining musical events of the week are free to the public. Miss Hannah Olson, chairman, announces.

This evening, beginning at 8 o'clock, the high school choral group and the seventh and eighth grade choruses will appear under direction of M. Edmondson, director of the music department of the local schools. Among the specialties will be W. R. Tomlinson playing Scottish bagpipes.

An assembly of the grade pupils, who will sing songs learned for various occasions during the year, will be held Friday at 1:15 o'clock.

Mother's day evening program will be given by all churches of town, with group singing and special individual and group arrangements in song. All programs are to be given in the Eugene Field auditorium.
