

East Salem Extension Unit Program Closed for Season

East Salem, May 13—The final meetings of the East Salem extension units were held last week to finish up the year's work. The Edina Lane unit met at the home of Mrs. R. Klempel on East Center street. The Lansing Neighbors unit met at the home of Mrs. L. W. Hann on Sunnyview avenue and Friday afternoon East Salem unit met with Mrs. Ralph Becker on Sunnyview avenue. Two of the meetings were on "Housework—Healthy Way" and one on "Home Recreation." Delegates from each unit had attended the county planning meeting on Wednesday. Mrs. C. A. Salter, Mrs. Homer Conklin, Mrs. E. E. Brandt and Mrs. Charles Norton represented East Salem unit.

Communion is Given Children

St. Mary's, May 13—First Communion day annually coincides with Mother's Day at St. Mary's parish, 54 tots received their first communion during the 8 o'clock mass here, with Rev. Damion Jentes OSB, pastor, officiating. All the other grammar grade pupils accompanied them in the march from St. Mary's school to the church led by the St. Mary's band, who gave selections before and again after the ceremony. The first communion class were enrolled in the scapular at the afternoon service. The group included: Arnold Ballweber, Lawrence Berg, Donald Buh, William Butsch, Earl Edgell, Robert Ewert, Eugene Pennington, Kenneth Fessler, Norman Fisher, Vincent Hamner, Bernard Kintlinger, Darrell Kraemer, David Kraemer, Michael Kruse, William Pakratz, James Predeck, Leo Schaffner, John Schallberger, John Scharbach, Leon Schieder, Donald Schindler, Alan Schmidt, Clifford Schmidt, Donald George Schmidt, Leroy Schwab, Lawrence Sowa, Daniel Suse, Paul Terhaar, Gary Thomas, Joseph Traeger, Janice Ann, Patricia Bashaw, Marilyn Beyer, Mary Ann Blemeier, Rosemarie Brundridge, Grace Buchholz, Mary Elizabeth Eberle, Mary Ann Eberle, LeVita Pennington, Elizabeth Frank, Barbara Grosch, Delma Hackett, Ariene Hasaing, Darlene Kraemer, Margaret Reiter, Mary Lou Schunalt, Arlene Schmitz, Joanne Vaetz, Mary Vaetz, Donna Volz, Joann Wellman, Irene Weinert, Ruth Wilde and Jeannette Wolf.

Housework Made Healthful
The lesson "Housework the Healthy Way" was given by Marjorie Tye, home demonstration agent, and had been prepared by Lois A. Lutz, the state college specialist in home management. It was quite a different lesson from any of the other lessons given this year. The usefulness of the lesson is to help homemakers avoid fatigue by saving steps, conserving energy, encouraging rest and relaxation thus helping to keep the family fit and the homemaker perform her household tasks with ease. There was a general discussion on health with an emphasis on correct breathing habits, comfortable clothing and correct posture. A few daily exercises were given and the bulletins given out contained posture games.

Officers Are Installed
New officers were installed for East Salem unit by Miss Tye; president, Mrs. C. A. Salter; vice president, Mrs. E. E. Brandt; and secretary-treasurer, Mrs. William Hartley. A new membership list will be made up in the fall and each unit will try for the certificate of achievement. There will be four units in East Salem in the fall as the Farmers' unit was organized in April.

Church School Observes Rites

Sublimity—Members of the St. Boniface class received first holy communion were Mary Frank, Joanne Koenig, Rose Mary Minden, Judith Gescher, Irene Bindel, Carol Ann Schumacher, Joanne Toepfer, George Gerspacher, Charles Berhorst, Richard Yast, Donald Etzel, Douglas Bradley, Clifford Blades, Lawrence Wolf, Barbara Zuber, Rose Marie Leverman, Clifford Etzel, Clifford Stuhr, Shirley Doerfler, Virginia Toepfer, Lorene Basl, Patricia Wolf and Sharon Lambrecht. The annual May procession in honor of Our Lady was held after a short instruction by Rev. Joseph Scherbring, followed by the hymn, "Flowers of the Fairest," during which Margaret Lulay, vice prefect of the sodality, clad in white, crowned the Blessed Virgin. Little Patty Wolf, also in white, was crown bearer. In the procession Evelyn Ruef, Angeline Hartman, Bernadine and Helen Stuckart were the four sodalists who carried the Blessed Virgin's pedestal to the shrine. They were followed by high school sodalists and parishoners. Every morning during May the rosary is recited during the 8:15 o'clock mass, followed by other devotions, in honor of Our Lady.

High school students of St. Boniface presented their annual dramatic program on May 8 and 9. Members of the SBIH glee club sang during the intermissions.

Polk Expects Light Ballot

Dallas—With only two county contests on the ballot, a vote not to exceed 25 per cent of the registration is forecast for the primary election in Polk county on May 17. Interest in Dallas may be somewhat keener because of a special election on a bond issue to construct a sewage disposal plant.

The only race attracting interest is the republican contest between W. E. Knower of West Salem and G. D. Stewart of Buell for county commissioner. Both candidates have been conducting vigorous campaigns.

Lyle Thomas, incumbent representative who is completing his fifth term in the legislature since 1935, is again being opposed by Mrs. Joe Rogers, Sr., of Independence, republican candidate for that position.

Only one change in polling places for the county's 36 precincts is announced by Sheriff T. B. Hooker. Salt Creek voters will cast their ballots in the county treasurer's office in the courthouse following sale of the former North Dallas schoolhouse, the former polling place.

and Mrs. R. A. Witzel of Salem were guests at the Robert C. Parrent home Tuesday.
