Buzz Holmstrom, Famed River Navigator, Commits Suicide

LaGrande, Ore., May 21 (U.P.)—Haldane (Buzz) Holmstrom, 37, famous Oregon river boat pilot who navigated the Colorado alone in a rowboat in 1937, shot himself to death while on a river survey expedition in eastern Oregon Saturday night.

Holmstrom, whose exploits in navigating treacherous rapids brought him nationwide recognition, was described as despondent over failure of an 18 by six-foot boat, built at The Dalles, to negotiate the Grande Ronde river, where he was pilot for a U. S. coast and geodetic survey party, according to Dave McCarthy, surveyor.

The Portland office of the Coast and Geodetic survey received a telegram from the officer in charge of the party, saying "River Pilot Holmsfrom died from a self-inflicted gunshot wound."

Holmstrom, one of the few men ever to navigate Oregon's perilous Snake river to Hell's Canyon, borrowed a .22 caliber rifle Saturday night from the camp cook, McCarthy related, announcing he was "going to shoot a chicken."

The body was found beside a large rock, with a bullet wound above the right ear, McCarthy said.

Holmstrom, whom "Napoleon Bonaparte," No. 1 man of Kiriwinia island in the South Pacific, adopted as "No. 1 White Man Son" while serving in the navy, leaves his mother, Mrs. Frances Holmstrom, of Coquille, Ore., where the body has been shipped.

Stocks Advance Irregularly

New York, May 21 (AP)—Selected rails, industrials and utilities continued to attract buyers in today's stock market although profit cashing on Monday's belated recovery stalled many leaders.

Principal bidding inspiration again was the hope that both the railway and coal controversies would be adjusted before expiration of the present truces. Transfers were in the vicinity of 1,400,000 shares.

Ahead the greater part of the day were U.S. Steel, Bethlehem, General Motors, Santa Fe, Southern Pacific, Southern Railway, Texas & Pacific Railway, Montgomery Ward, Deere, Columbia Gas, Distillers Corp., Schenley, Cudahy, Douglas Aircraft, Philip Morris, Kennecott and Standard Oil (N.J.). Laggards included Chrysler, Goodrich, Sears Roebuck, Eastern Air Lines, General Electric, Eastman Kodak, International Telephone, Consolidated Edison and North America. H. L. Green dropped 5 points of its 10-point jump of the previous session.

Railway bonds did better.

Closing Dow-Jones averages: Industrial 207.25, up 0.12; rail 64.98, up 0.62; utility 42.75, unchanged; 65 stocks 77.12, up 0.23.

Sales were 1,250,000 shares compared with 910,000 yesterday. Curb volume was 540,000 shares against 420,000. Bond turnover of $4,234,000 compared with $3,450,000.

Stocks irregularly higher in moderately active trading.

Bonds irregularly higher. U. S. governments dull.

Silver unchanged in New York at 70¾ cents a fine ounce.

Old and new style wheat unchanged.

Grain Trade Holds Steady

Chicago, May 21 (U.P.)—May rye countered an early 10-cent break on the board of trade today to close near the day's maximum 5-cent price increase.

New contracts of corn and oats remained steady although the latter showed a tendency to weaken in late trading. Other grains remained the same price level in a dull session.

Old wheat, corn and barley finished the day unchanged; rye unchanged to up 3⅛; oats unchanged to up ⅛. New wheat and rye were unchanged; oats unchanged to off ½; corn up ¼-½, and barley unchanged to off ½.

Both the Winnipeg and Minneapolis exchanges showed a steady increase in May rye with prices bid up five cents. Grain futures on other U.S. exchanges ruled steady.

FINES, FRICASSEE A —NICE SETUP

Tracy, Calif., May 2 (U.P.)—The city treasury was $5,400 richer today thanks to a cockfight.

Fines totaling that amount were levied against 108 persons by Justice of the Peace F. L. Jackson after a raid last Saturday night. The sheriff's office said an estimated 150 other persons escaped the police dragnet.

The 30 cocks which were seized are slated to become fricassee in the near future at the San Joaquin county General hospital.

Western Pine House Mouldings Going up

Ceiling prices for western pine house mouldings were today increased 20 percent at the mill level by the OPA. Simultaneously the maximum prices for industrial mouldings were advanced 6 percent.

The increases, effective May 21, 1946, are the first since mouldings were brought under price control at March, 1942, levels. Resellers are permitted to pass on the actual dollar-and-cent amounts of the increase at mill level. At the retail level since a percentage increase is not permitted, the advance represents a boost in ceilings by approximately 10 to 13 percent.

Western pine mouldings are among the critical items listed by the civilian production administration as required for the veterans' housing program.
