

Salem Will Graduate 500 Seniors on May 29

Salem high school will graduate at least 500 seniors, one of the larger classes of the institution, the night of May 29, Principal Harry Johnson revealed in releasing the list of those who will receive their diplomas. The class is almost evenly divided between boys and girls, there being 251 of the former and 249 of the latter. Of the total 95 are returned veterans. It is possible a few additional veterans will be eligible to receive their diplomas by the time graduation day arrives.

Dr. Morgan O'Dell, president of Lewis and Clark college of Portland, will deliver the commencement address, while Dr. John L. Knight, assistant to President G. Herbert Smith, will deliver the baccalaureate sermon the night of May 26. Both programs are scheduled for the high school auditorium.

Chapel Speaker—Lawrence Todden, for 25 years with the YMCA in China, will address Willamette university students during their chapel program at 11:40 Wednesday forenoon. He will also be guest speaker during the Rotary club luncheon at the Marion at noon. Todden is a native Oregonian and has a degree from Oregon State college.

James Royce, Waltz Composer, Suicides

Pontiac, Mich., May 21 (AP)—James Royce, who as James Royce Shannon wrote almost 600 songs including "Missouri Waltz" and "When Day is Done," was revealed today to have taken his own life by stepping into the path of a freight train. An inquest was ordered but witnesses said it appeared certain the 65-year-old composer hurled himself deliberately onto the tracks yesterday. He had been suffering from asthma.

A native of Detroit, Royce achieved his first real success in writing the music for Chauncey Olcott's "Shameen Dhu" in 1912.

He wrote the lyrics for "Missouri Waltz"—President Truman's favorite song—in 1914.

Bicycle Cost Will Run 10 Percent More

Pre-war bicycles will return to the retail market at prices about 10 percent above 1941 levels, the office of price administration said today.

The full amount of increase will go to manufacturers to cover wage and materials cost rises since the last period of normal production, OPA said. The

Zoning Problems Continue To Keep Council Occupied

A battle of legal minds took up most of the city council's time Monday night and resulted in the council approving a change of zone, on application of R. J. Martin, in the neighborhood of Market and 20th streets to permit the establishment of a small business. The change is from Class I residential to Class III business.

Nazis Ordered Prisoners Slain

Dachau, Germany, May 21 (AP)—The prosecution at the trial of 14 Nazi officers and men charged with slaying unarmed American prisoners during the battle of the Bulge read into the record today a statement that the Germans were ordered to ignore "all scruples and humane feelings."

The statement, allegedly made by Capt. Oskar Klingelhofer, one of the defendants, said that the first SS panzer regiment received these orders. "Ahead of us there shall be terror and horror. We should remember in this fight especially the cities that have suffered tremendously during the bombing attacks and have suffered great misery. Therefore all scruples and humane feelings shall be thrown overboard. No prisoners of war will be taken."

A number of German elite guard troops who participated in the battle of the Bulge testified that advance troops were ordered to "pay no attention to prisoners of war."

The prosecution maintains that close to 800 American prisoners were murdered in the advance of the first panzer regiment.

Autos, Wringers, Hacksaws Injure

First aid Monday was called for Phyllis Briggs, 2235 Fourth street, when she suffered cuts and bruises in an automobile accident in the 2100 block on Portland road.

Mrs. Morris Hunt, 1126 Nebraska, was taken by first aid to Salem Deaconess hospital for surgical treatment of a wound on the hand caused by a clothes wringer. Darrell Rindhaug, 9 of 615 North 14th, cut a tendon in a finger while using a hacksaw and was taken to a doctor.

French Rebukes Water Board

Alderman C. F. French, chairman of the sewer committee of the city council, and sponsor of a long-pending ordinance bill to make a sewage service charge on residents and industrialists, again got the bill postponed when it came up for third reading Monday night, and incidentally rebuked the water commission for failure to cooperate in expediting the bill.

The purpose of the bill is to create a fund to build up the sewage treatment and sewer line construction outlay. French told the council that as drawn the measure would raise $55,000 a year from residences, $24,000 from industrialists and $24,000 more from other commercial interests.

The hitch in getting the bill along to final passage, he explained, is that the water department, which would do the billing, hasn't yet figured out the mechanics of printing the bill on the monthly water charge statement. French said he had made inquiry of Portland and Eugene officials and found out that a very simple and inexpensive attachment to the billing machine did the work.

Prior to the next meeting copies of the bill are to be made for distribution.

Mt. Crest Abbey May Get Addition

Lloyd T. Rigdon, president and manager of Mt. Crest Abbey mausoleum, has placed an application with the civilian production administration for an addition to the mausoleum to cost an estimated $75,000. The application was filed Monday and a response from the CPA is expected in the near future.

The Salem school board Monday filed its second application for construction of a $78,000 gymnasium at the Salem high school. The first application was rejected. The new application states the purpose is to be for physical education classes, instead of games and sports.
