

S. Parzy Rose, 11, Takes Phyllis Learfield as Bride

By Jean Taylor

Silverton—Of interest to Silverton folk, the former home of the S. Parzy Rose family, is the wedding of their oldest son, S. Parzy Rose II, and Miss Phyllis Learfield, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. E. R. Learfield of Canby, in a candlelight ceremony at the Zoar Lutheran church Wednesday evening, June 5, at 8 o'clock.

Rev. A. J. Knutzen read the double ring service before an altar decked with calla lilies, peonies and gladiolus, lighted by tapers in cathedral candelabra. Miss Irva Stuwie sang, accompanied by Miss Audri Arrestad, who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a Victorian model of white satin, fitted bodice embellished with seed pearls and crystals, a long circular train, and her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of seed pearls. She carried a white Bible, topped with an orchid, from which cascaded streamers of white satin ribbon and bows. Her only ornament was the bridegroom's gift, a spun silver bracelet set with pearls.

Her matron of honor, Miss Doris Akers of Portland, wore a pastel blue satin gown and carried an arm bouquet of red carnations. Miss Corinne Learfield of Milwaukee, maid of honor, wore yellow net over satin and carried pink carnations.

Bridesmaids, wearing pink net over satin and carrying white carnations, were Miss Lorraine Dietz of Portland and Miss Marie Dietz, Oregon City. Honor attendants of the bride are her cousins, Little Miss Sharon Dietz, Stayton, also a cousin of the bride, was flower girl and wore a pastel blue floor-length frock and carried a white basket of rose petals. Dannie Dietz, cousin of the bride, was ringbearer.

P. Wayne Rose was best man for his brother. Ushers were D. Neil Rose, Max Schlottman and Merle Learfield.

Lighting the tapers were the Misses Myrtle and Delores Tokstad, wearing gowns of aqua net and pink net over matching satin.

Mrs. Rose, mother of the bridegroom, wore a pastel blue dress, street length, with white hat and accessories. The mother of the bride wore a champagne crepe with black accessories. Both wore gardenia and pink rosebud corsages.

At the reception in the church social rooms, the bride's table was covered with a hand-made cloth, centered with an arrangement of delicately tinted orchid columbines in a crystal bowl, flanked by white tapers.

Mrs. Rena Ainsworth of Portland cut the wedding cake. Mrs. D. C. Smith of Mercer Island served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Zelma Dietz of Portland presided at the urns and Mrs. Curtis Learfield of Stayton served punch. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Phyllis Colvin, and of the gifts were Mrs. Rollie Hostetler, Mrs. Jack Fritz, Miss Phyllis Kite and Miss Margaret Tretheway.

For traveling the bride wore blue wool serge, a matching long coat and white accessories. Her corsage was a single orchid. The honeymoon is being spent in British Columbia, Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Canby high school and has been an employee of the Woodburn First National bank for some time. Mr. Rose graduated from Silverton high school, attended Oregon State college before entering the naval air corps, where he served with a torpedo squadron in the South Pacific. He recently completed his junior year at Mt. Angel college.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose plan to make their residence in Canby, where he is associated with his two brothers in operating the Canby Cleaners.

Miss Doris Lovre, bride-elect of George Davis of Detroit, Mich., was incentive for a shower given Tuesday evening by Miss Marjorie Judson and Miss Patricia Peeler, at the latter's home in South 17th street.

An informal evening was enjoyed by the guests, followed by a late supper.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Harry Lovre, mother of the honor guest, Mrs. Delbert Bair, Mrs. Frances Peeler and Miss Maxine Meyers, Mrs. Marie Short, Mrs. June Johnson, Miss Betty Van Osdel, Miss Mary Jo Hall, Miss Donna Lovre, Miss Mildred Rothweiler and the hostess.

At the reception in the church social rooms, the bride's table was covered with a hand-made cloth, centered with an arrangement of delicately tinted orchid columbines in a crystal bowl, flanked by white tapers.

Mrs. Rena Ainsworth of Portland cut the wedding cake. Mrs. D. C. Smith of Mercer Island served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Zelma Dietz of Portland presided at the urns and Mrs. Curtis Learfield of Stayton served punch. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Phyllis Colvin, and of the gifts were Mrs. Rollie Hostetler, Mrs. Jack Fritz, Miss Phyllis Kite and Miss Margaret Tretheway.

For traveling the bride wore blue wool serge, a matching long coat and white accessories. Her corsage was a single orchid. The honeymoon is being spent in British Columbia, Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Canby high school and has been an employee of the Woodburn First National bank for some time. Mr. Rose graduated from Silverton high school, attended Oregon State college before entering the naval air corps, where he served with a torpedo squadron in the South Pacific. He recently completed his junior year at Mt. Angel college.

Mr. and Mrs. Rose plan to make their residence in Canby, where he is associated with his two brothers in operating the Canby Cleaners.

Miss Doris Lovre, bride-elect of George Davis of Detroit, Mich., was incentive for a shower given Tuesday evening by Miss Marjorie Judson and Miss Patricia Peeler, at the latter's home in South 17th street.

An informal evening was enjoyed by the guests, followed by a late supper.

Covers were placed for Mrs. Harry Lovre, mother of the honor guest, Mrs. Delbert Bair, Mrs. Frances Peeler and Miss Maxine Meyers, Mrs. Marie Short, Mrs. June Johnson, Miss Betty Van Osdel, Miss Mary Jo Hall, Miss Donna Lovre, Miss Mildred Rothweiler and the hostess.

At the reception in the church social rooms, the bride's table was covered with a hand-made cloth, centered with an arrangement of delicately tinted orchid columbines in a crystal bowl, flanked by white tapers.

Mrs. Rena Ainsworth of Portland cut the wedding cake. Mrs. D. C. Smith of Mercer Island served the bridegroom's cake. Mrs. Zelma Dietz of Portland presided at the urns and Mrs. Curtis Learfield of Stayton served punch. In charge of the guest book was Mrs. Phyllis Colvin, and of the gifts were Mrs. Rollie Hostetler, Mrs. Jack Fritz, Miss Phyllis Kite and Miss Margaret Tretheway.

For traveling the bride wore blue wool serge, a matching long coat and white accessories. Her corsage was a single orchid. The honeymoon is being spent in British Columbia, Canada.

The bride is a graduate of Canby high school and has been an employee of the Woodburn First National bank for some time. Mr. Rose graduated from Silverton high school, attended Oregon State college before entering the naval air corps, where he served with a torpedo squadron in the South Pacific. He recently completed his junior year at Mt. Angel college.

Garden Rites Sunday In Silverton

Silverton—In a lovely garden wedding at her home Sunday afternoon Miss Clarine Reed, attractive daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Clarence Reed, became the bride of Bertram Strand, son of Mrs. Christine Strand of Milton, South Dakota, with the double ring ceremony read by the Rev. Howard Cole of St. Johns, Oregon.

Mrs. Mabel Monson sang, accompanied by Miss Carol Leonard who also played the wedding marches.

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a gown of ivory satin, fashioned with a fitted bodice, sweetheart neckline and a full skirt with court train. Her fingertip veil was held in place by a tiara of orange blossoms and she carried a white Bible topped with a cascade spray of white orchids and stephanotis.

For her matron of honor, the bride chose her aunt, Mrs. Elbert Neal, Jr., who wore a dress of lace printed pale pink chiffon and carried a muf of gardenias and stephanotis.

Edward Holm was best man for the bridegroom.

Jerry and Gary Neal, twin cousins of the bride, were ringbearers. Little Cecelia Bradbury, flower girl, and Marlene Hawkins, trainbearer, also cousins of the bride, wore floor-length frocks of pink net over taffeta.

At the home reception for the more than 60 guests, the mother of the bride wore a two-color light and dark blue afternoon dress with a gardenia and rosebud corsage, and the maternal grandmother of the bride, Mrs. Belle Hawkins of Mill City, wore navy blue and a shoulder corsage of roses and sweet peas.

A sister of the bridegroom, Mrs. George Hill, presided at the coffee urn, Mrs. Verne Hawkins served the punch and Mrs. Elmer Reed cut the wedding cake. Assisting about the rooms and serving were Miss Ina Harold, Miss Maude Reed, Miss Marlene Reed, Mrs. E. Z. Kaufman, Mrs. Howard Rogan and Mrs. Darwin Reed. The dream cake was passed by little Miss Clarice Hill and Miss Pat Moberg was in charge of the guest book.

The bride recently received her discharge from three years' service with the Waves, and the bridegroom from three and a half years with the U. S. army air corps in the South Pacific.

For traveling on the wedding trip south, the bride wore an aqua tulle with black accessories and an orchid corsage. Mr. and Mrs. Strand plan to make their home in Valselt where Mr. Strand is supervisor of the Winlock handle factory.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Mid-May Bride—Mrs. Richard O. Powell, the former Ruth Schrepel, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. O. H. Schrepel of Gaston, who was married in May at the First Methodist church in McMinnville. Her husband is the son of Mr. and Mrs. W. L. Powell of Corvallis.

Mrs. Reeves to Head Auxiliary

Silverton—Mrs. Roscoe Reeves was elected president of Delbert Reeves unit No. 7, American Legion auxiliary, Monday night.

Assisting officers will be Mrs. A. J. McCannel, first vice president; Mrs. Gladwyn Hamre, second vice president; Mrs. Wesley Grogan, secretary; Mrs. C. J. Towe, treasurer; Mrs. Lewis Hall, historian; Mrs. Ray Boe, sergeant-at-arms; members of the executive committee are Mrs. Ernest L. Starr, Mrs. Harry Kuch and Mrs. Pat Grogan.

Miss Elaine Hamre will represent the unit at the department convention in July at Portland in the vocal solo contest.

Delegates and alternates to the department convention, Mrs. Roscoe Reeves, Mrs. Wesley Grogan, Mrs. John Demas and Mrs. Maude Price, with alternates, Mrs. Lewis Hall, Mrs. Harry Kuch, Mrs. C. J. Towe and Mrs. F. M. Powell.

The unit members accepted the invitation of the post to attend the initiation special program with Salem post as ceremonial guests, Saturday evening of this week.

Special guests of the unit were parents of the youngsters who were awarded grand prize and sweepstakes in the Legion pet parade, Mr. and Mrs. Norman Naegeli, Mr. and Mrs. Orrie Russell and Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Hoblitt.

Hostesses for the unit and post were Mrs. A. J. McCannel and Mrs. V. Wolfard.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Amity Man Takes Bride In Independence

Amity—The wedding of Miss Betty June Fout and Francis Warner, son of Mrs. Pearl Black of Independence and Dewitt Warner of Amity, was an event of June 9. The double ring service was read by Rev. J. Fike of the Church of the Brethren at 3:30 o'clock.

The bride, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Daniel Fout, was given in marriage by her father. She wore a white satin wedding gown with a V-shaped neckline edged with seed pearls and a fingertip veil held in place by a headdress of orange blossoms. She wore a string of pearls, a gift of the bridegroom, and carried a white prayer book with spray of orchids.

Miss Wanda Fout was her sister's maid of honor, wearing a floor-length dress of powder blue net over satin, with pink velvet bow trim. She carried a nosegay of pink stock and carnations and her headdress was of flowers matching those she carried.

Bridesmaids were Mrs. Bessie McNeely of Amity, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Doris Nadine Caldwell of Portland. Their frocks were powder blue jersey with net. They carried sprays of roses and carnations.

Carol and Coleen Lum of Vancouver were flower girls, dressed in yellow with matching flowers for headdress. Donald Fout, brother of the bride, carried the rings in a beautiful white lily. Another brother, Dan Fout, Jr., was train-bearer.

Basil McNeely of Amity was best man for his brother-in-law. Ushers were Maurice Stone and Donald Kilmore of Portland.

Misses Patty Avis and Lorraine Landgreen lighted the candles while Miss Marguerite Brower played the music. Miss Carol Miller, Miss Landgreen and Donald Eastman sang.

A reception was held in the church parlor. Pouring was Lorraine Landgreen, Miss Patty Avis cut the wedding cake, and Miss Irene Morrison and Miss Crystal Bower served. Mrs. Lucille Hanks and Mrs. Horace Rainey assisted.

For her going-away ensemble Mrs. Warner wore a pale pink suit with white accessories. They will tour the southern part of the state and northern California. On their return they will make their home in Vancouver, Wash.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Mrs. Kuns to Chairman Club

Woodburn—Mrs. Roy Kuns was elected president of the Woodburn Garden club at a picnic meeting held at the Kuns farm home Tuesday evening. Mrs. Roy Seely was elected vice president, Mrs. Ivan Brundridge, secretary, Mrs. Ralph Seely, treasurer, and Mrs. J. J. Hall press correspondent.

The picnic supper was served at 7:30 with covers for 42. An exhibit of choice roses was enjoyed and a program of colored movies of the Pasadena flower show and other scenes was given by Roy Kuns. Guests were present from Minnesota, Tacoma, Wash., and Aurora.

New members received were George D. Jones, Roy Seely, Ray Glatt and Mrs. Bair of Aurora.

This was the last meeting of the club until the second Tuesday in October.

Una Lee Bride In Silverton

Silverton—At a candlelight service Saturday evening, June 8, at Silverton Calvary Lutheran church, Miss Una Lee, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Oscar E. Lee, became the bride of Frederick K. Kruse, son of Mr. and Mrs. Frederick Kruse of North Bend. Rev. O. C. Olson officiated. Miss Marion Lee, sister of the bride, sang, accompanied by Mrs. Sam Godfrey.

Given in marriage by her father, the bride wore traditional satin fashioned with sweetheart neckline and train, and her mother's wedding veil, fingertip length, with a Mary Stewart headdress. Her flowers were white carnations. Miss Doris Robison, maid of honor, wore pastel blue chiffon, Miss Mabel Velde, bridesmaid, wore yellow chiffon. The two wore identical Juliet caps of pastel flowers and carried nosegays of sweet peas and white carnations.

George Kruse was his brother's best man and Kieth Kruse, another brother of the bridegroom, and Vance Lee, brother of the bride, served as ushers.

A reception was held in the church social rooms with an aunt of the bride, Mrs. Emma Enevoldsen, and an aunt of the bridegroom, Mrs. George Cathey, presiding at the urns. Mrs. Vance Lee was in charge of the serving, assisted by Mrs. Lester Standard, Mrs. James Turner, Mrs. Roy Edgerton, Miss Jean Larson and Mrs. Sam Godfrey of Seattle. Pearl Hewitt and Mrs.

Ben Roisen cut the bride's cake. At the gift table were Mrs. Elvin Almquist and Miss Ruby LeRud. Miss Marion Lee passed the guest book.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Miss Decker June Bride In Lebanon

Lebanon—Banks of roses, sweetpeas and mock orange formed a lovely setting last Sunday afternoon, June 9, for the nuptial ceremony of Miss Elizabeth Decker, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Frank Decker and Merwin R. Jenkins, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Jenkins, all of Lebanon.

Rev. Harry E. Rarey read the single ring service in the fireplace room of the First Methodist church in the presence of relatives and intimate friends. Wedding music was provided by Miss Nancy Kirkpatrick, soloist, who sang "I Love You Truly" and "Always."

The bride, given in marriage by her father, wore a pale blue tulle with white accessories and corsage of gardenias and sweetpeas. Her two attendants, Miss Carolyn Decker, her twin sister, and Miss Mary Williams, wore street costumes of black and white with corsages of sweetpeas. Best man was Duane Williams of Lebanon.

A reception in the church guest room followed the ceremony. Miss Mary Williams at the bride's table, cut and served the wedding cake, and Miss Carolyn Decker presided at the punch bowl.

The couple departed for a wedding trip to the lake area of the Cascades, after which they will make their home in Reedsport.

Couple Wed in Home Nuptial

Scio—The Rev. V. L. Loucks, Scio Baptist pastor, on June 1, united in marriage Miss Anna Mary Prokop and LeRoy Fleming. The ceremony took place at the farm home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Frank Prokop in the Riverview community near Scio, in the presence of relatives of the couple. The date marked the 25th year of the wedded life of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. Fleming following a wedding trip to Oregon and California beaches. Mr. Fleming spent four years in army service.

Ben Roisen cut the bride's cake. At the gift table were Mrs. Elvin Almquist and Miss Ruby LeRud. Miss Marion Lee passed the guest book.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.

Too tight or too loose sleeves should be avoided by the woman with thin or heavy arms.