By Margaret Magee

While the house Tuesday passed the "terminal leave pay" bill and sent it to the senate, veterans are being cautioned not to expect to receive pay at once for unused leave and furlough time. It may be some time before any pay will be available to servicemen. This warning is given by officials of the Oregon department of veterans' affairs, who said reports indicate considerable delay is expected on the measure in the senate.

FLYING SUPPLIES FOR BOMB TESTS

Now flying with the army transport command, Lt. Robert Gardner, son of Mr. and Mrs. W. D. Gardner of 1900 McCoy street, is one of those pilots carrying supplies from Hickam field in Hawaii to Kwajalein island for the atomic bomb test at Bikini atoll. The officer, who saw combat in Europe as a bomber pilot with a squadron based in Italy, has until recently been making trips between the west coast of the U. S. and bases in the Pacific, including Guam, Japan and the Philippines.

It's the CREAM Shampoo You're Reading About in All the Magazines!

We're selling lots of Lustre-Creme, Kay Daumit's sensational shampoo... At first we didn't know why so many women—and men, too!—were asking for Lustre-Creme by name... We asked Kay Daumit herself. And she told us name... We asked Kay Daumit herself. And she told us that this utterly different shampoo, started only 2 years ago in a modest way, has become a truly big success—a real national brand... She told us, too, that Lustre-Creme is now being advertised in practically all of the leading magazines. Just look at the list!... It goes to show that this shampoo has something—something different! It not only does a superb cleansing job, but brings out unsuspected beauty and glamour. And a long-lasting jar costs only $1. Also available in economical family size—1 lb. jar $3.50.
