Independence Fiesta Dropped

Independence—Because of inability to make needed repairs on the grandstand the Hop Bowl committee has decided to call off plans for revival of the annual fiesta which had been tentatively scheduled for an early August date.

Instead of the fiesta the committee has arranged with the Browning Combined Shows to bring their carnival to Independence for five days, August 20 to 24.

With money on hand to make the needed repairs, it was not possible to get the necessary materials.

Youth Rally to Feature Pictures

"The God of Creation," a motion picture film of vivid full color scenes from astronomy and natural sciences, produced in the west coast laboratory of the Moody Bible Institute by Irwin A. Moon, will be shown during Saturday night's youth rally at the Salem Senator baseball park. The program will open at 7:30.

In the opening section of the picture, the audience is taken on a trip to the stars by means of solar photographs filmed through the giant 100-inch telescope of Mt. Wilson observatory.

Lapse time photography is utilized to demonstrate the beauties of natural sciences. The illusion of flower buds developing into full-blown blossoms in a few seconds is created through this time-compressed photo technique.

BAKERY CLOSING REASON: NO FLOUR

Stayton—Kenneth Williams proprietor of the Stayton bakery announced Wednesday that he will close his establishment July 13 for an indefinite period due to the flour shortage.

Pastor Theuer Leaving Salem

Concluding a pastorate of almost seven years, Rev. F. H. Theuer will preach his farewell sermon at Christ Lutheran church on State street at 11 o'clock Sunday, July 14. Pastor Theuer is leaving Salem to assume the chaplaincy and directorship of the Puyallup, Wash., home for the aged and infirm, maintained by the Lutheran Welfare society. The home is about to carry out an expansion program which includes the construction of a large hospital and chapel.

Rev. Theuer and his family came to Salem from Colfax, Wash., in September, 1939, to serve as interim pastor during the illness of the late Rev. A. E. Minneman. He became the regular pastor early in 1940. During his regime the church has grown steadily.

Rev. A. L. Schulz, now of Caroline, Wis., and recently discharged from the chaplaincy of the U. S. navy, named successor to Pastor Theuer, will arrive in Salem August 1.

Infant Son Gets New Transfusion

Albany—One more transfusion of the comparatively rare type O blood was required this week by little Birken Paul Hessel, 15-months-old son of Mr. and Mrs. Birken Hessel, living near Albany, who was severely burned May 27.

In response to a call from the Doernbecher hospital in Portland, where the child is under treatment, Mrs. Ruth Cotter, Linn county welfare administrator, with the aid of the Linn county Red Cross chapter, was placed in touch with, among others, Jerry Knight, William Bacon, Jr., and Hilton Hammett of Albany and David White, Corvallis, all of whom had been typed and knew their classification.

All four went to Portland Wednesday and Hammett was selected as the donor.
