Farmers' Union Hears Reports

Bethel—Fred Lang was voted into the membership of Bethel local of the Farmers' union at the August meeting, conducted by Walter Baker. Mrs. Ray Marchand is secretary. J. R. Carruthers was song leader, with Mrs. Carruthers as pianist.

Committee chairmen and members gave reports and led discussions. Arno Spranger urged the eradication of all tansey ragwort, saying that the weed will ruin all farms where it is allowed to spread. Roy Marchand and Gus Schlicker discussed grain prices and ceilings on dairy products; Mrs. Ralph Wilson, junior leader and educational chairman, reported on the week of the Farmers' union summer camp at Falmouth beach, attended by 14 junior local delegates.

The September meeting of Bethel local is to be postponed because of the state fair, and will be held one week later, September 9. Mrs. George Bahnsen and Mrs. Bud Chapman were in charge of the serving.

The speaker told of her attendance at the United Nations conference at San Francisco and reported on the educational chautauqua held this summer prior to the National Education association convention at Buffalo, N.Y. Mentioning the importance of the NEA effort to put in effect the chautauqua conference recommendations to solve the increasing shortage of teachers she gave its aims including: a program whereby student teachers may be paid while attending school; a salary minimum of $2400 per year; social recognition to teachers; regulation of unethical teaching practices and teacher welfare, including protection against political pressures.
