Mr. and Mrs. J. Erekstol and daughter Carol Ann, have returned to their home at 4025 Rural avenue after a two weeks automobile tour of 3900 miles. They spent much of their time in South Dakota, Nebraska, Minnesota and other middle west states. Extreme heat was encountered in South Dakota where crops were badly in need of rain. Conditions in Minnesota and Nebraska were fairly good insofar as agriculture is concerned.

Belgrade, Aug. 13 (AP)—U.S. state department officials encountered a veil of silence today in their attempts to learn the whereabouts of the occupants of an American C-47 army transport plane which was held incommunicado by Yugoslav authorities since their ship was forced down near Ljubljana by Yugoslav fighters last Friday. Harold A. Shantz, charge d'affairs in the U.S. embassy said that a Yugoslav officer in charge at the scene of the crash landing had refused to tell the American consul at Zagreb, where the occupants of the plane had been interned. "We have been given no indication as to when they will be released," said Shantz. Mystery still surrounded the circumstances under which the plane was grounded. There was no authoritative information today as to whether the transport was forced down by aerial maneuvering by Yugoslav fighter planes or by actual gunfire. The consul from Zagreb was refused permission yesterday to see the interned passengers or crew members, or view the plane at close range. 191

Portland, Aug. 13 (AP)—Oregon has had 40 cases of poliomyelitis this year, Dr. Harold Erickson, state health officer, reported today, an increase of 10 in the past week.

"We are not alarmed," he said, "as this is only slightly above normal, but naturally we are watching it closely. The next two weeks will tell whether we are to have an epidemic." He pointed out that in 1943 there were fewer than 40 cases at this time when the disease suddenly spread and reached a record high of 415. 191

Il Duce's Body Recovered

Milan, Aug. 13 (AP)—The body of Benito Mussolini, unearthed from its pauper's grave here on April 22 by fascist fanatics, was recovered last night from the Certosa convent at Pavia, 25 miles south of Milan, police reported early today.

Officials apparently got their clue to the body's whereabouts from Antonio Parozzi, a 20-year-old fascist, who confessed last week that he and four others stole the corpse from its first resting place.

Police said they would hold the body in Milan until instructions were received from government officials at Rome. It was brought to police headquarters in a reinforced trunk covered with two waterproof sacks. Attached to the makeshift coffin was a note signed "Marco," which said the body had been buried twice since the first exhumation in Milan. "Marco" was identified as Domenico Leccesi, self-proclaimed founder of the democratic fascist party, who was arrested several weeks ago.

The Milan police chief said he believed the body had been hidden for a long time in the Angelicum convent at Milan headed by Father Enrico Zucca, who was arrested yesterday.

Father Lamberto, director of the Certosa convent, said he received the body Monday for "temporary custody." He said the corpse was delivered to him by Father Alberto Parini, of the Angelicum convent.

The police chief said the text of the note and depositions taken indicated that Fathers Parini and Zucca were responsible for hiding the body since May 7.

Mystery Veils Seized Pilots

Belgrade, Aug. 13 (AP)—U.S. state department officials encountered a veil of silence today in their attempts to learn the whereabouts of the occupants of an American C-47 army transport plane which was held incommunicado by Yugoslav authorities since their ship was forced down near Ljubljana by Yugoslav fighters last Friday.

Romania Asks

In passing, he also bespoke opposition to the suggestion that final settlement for Italy await the German peace terms, declaring: "Peace with Germany can have no bearing whatever on Trieste."

Molotov recalled that it was only after the Russia victory at Stalingrad and the allied victories in North Africa and southern Italy that Italy got out of the war and "began to reorganize on a democratic basis."

"It was not easy for the new Italy to stand firm after the downfall of fascism... Italy can not become a democratic country unless she roots out the last vestiges of fascism," he said.

Molotov charged that "certain powers are trying to gain power in the Mediterranean at the expense of Italy and France," and said both countries should "feel responsibility as Mediterranean states."

The head Ethiopian delegate, Ato Akilou Habte Wold, following Molotov, answered the applause which greeted him with the remark:

"At this touching moment I can not help remembering another scene in which Italian fascists hissed the monarch before the League of Nations."

(He referred to the occasion when Emperor Haile Selassie made a personal appeal before the league at Geneva in a vain protest against the Italian invasion of Ethiopia in 1939.) 191

Indian Claims Bill Signed

Washington, Aug. 13 (AP)—Representatives of Indian tribes today watched President Truman sign into law legislation creating an Indian claims commission.

Four of the Indians were dressed in tribal costumes. They stood behind the president along with other tribal representatives and government officials. Boyd Jackson of the Snake Indians of Klamath, Ore., was among the witnesses.

To the Redman it was a step which he believes will give him a day "in court" on hundreds of claims against the United States for alleged unlawful taking of lands and for alleged treaty violations.

After the signing ceremony, the president was presented with a "pipe of peace" by former Senator Robert L. Owen of Muskogee, Okla. Owen said the pipe was smoked by Chief Sitting Bull for 15 years.

The new law creates a commission to pass on all tribal claims. The claims must be filed within five years or be barred from consideration thereafter.

The commission will be required to approve or disapprove the claims within 10 years and congress then will consider appropriations to pay them.

Under previous procedure, tribes having claims first had to get congress to pass legislation permitting them to file suit in the court of claims. In many instances a single objection by a congress member has prevented passage.

Far West Spent $10 Billion, July

San Francisco, Aug. 13 (AP)—The far west spent $10,000,000 last month, on a conservative estimate.

The estimate was based on the cashing of checks totaling $8,265,150,000 in 31 cities in the Salt Lake-Seattle-San Diego triangle. That figure was reported today by the Federal Reserve bank.

The rest of the 10 billion estimate for July was spending by check in hundreds of smaller communities, and total cash spending for all purposes. The latter is figured at 10 percent of the check total, but probably runs higher in view of the large supply of currency.

Total spending ran more than three times that of the 1939 month, just before the war storm broke in Europe. There is the basis for one's own estimate of inflation, for whoever cares to make it: triple the spending on a smaller quantity of goods (not to mention quality). The smaller quantity was emphasized by the dearth of automobiles, a business that normally absorbs a large amount of money, and in 1939 took around $211,000,000 for new passenger cars in California alone.

Per capita spending was about $714 last month, compared with around $292 in July, 1939. The increase in population since 1939 went with an increase in spending of better than $2,000,000,000 a month, at last month's average for roughly 3,000,000 new westerners.

Fresno chalked up the biggest gain reported among the 31 cities, its $120,000,000 putting July checks up to $1.72 for every 1945 dollar.

Others running $1.50 or better for every dollar of July last year included Berkeley, Sacramento, San Bernardino, Santa Barbara, Santa Rosa, Reno, Eugene and Salem.

Nicholson, Acklin File for Council

James H. Nicholson, 964 N. Summer, has filed his declaration of candidacy for an aldermanship from the first ward under the new form of city government, and E. W. Acklin, 1000 N. Capitol, has filed from the same ward. Acklin is a holdover. Nicholson ran in the spring against L. H. McMahan, and had the old form of government remained these two would have had to run it off in the general election. McMahan has as yet not filed as a candidate under the new setup.

There are now five councilmanic candidates in the field, the others including Claud W. Jorgenson, ward 3; Howard Maple, ward 7, and Lewis G. Mitchell, ward 4.

Washington Shy Of Pension Fund

Olympia, Wash., Aug. 13 (AP)—Gov. Mon C. Wallgren told a delegation of over 100 old-age pensioners that marched on the capitol here today that "We can't appropriate any more money for old age pensions if we haven't got it."

He said the state social security program is "already eight million dollars in the red, and to apply the escalator clause in the state social security law would put the program another one million in the hole."

The escalator clause provides for a five percent increase in state pension grants under conditions of increased living costs.

More than 400 officers and men are expected to take part in the displays during the fair.

A 100th anniversary commemorative stamp, honoring the Smithsonian Institution, is now on sale at the Salem postoffice. The stamp of the three cent denomination is of special delivery size and maroon in color. It bears a reproduction of the Institution building with the words "For the increase and diffusion of knowledge among men," across the top. 191
