

Handy Market Grand Opening

Woodburn—A grand opening of the new Handy Market will be held Saturday, August 17. Operated by Mr. and Mrs. Ernest Handy, the new store occupies the two store buildings that formerly housed the King dry goods and Nathan hardware now remodeled into one large market. It has the latest type of lighting, low shelving and wide aisles. Up to the minute equipment has been installed, including a 12 foot frozen food open top case, 18 foot meat case, a 10x10x20 walk-in cooler and ice cream cabinet.

There will be a free lunch on opening day and many useful gifts will be given away.

Howell Picnic Well Attended

Stayton—Approximately 100 persons attended the annual Howell school homecoming picnic held on the school grounds Sunday, August 11. New officers of the group include Alfred Poole, president; Agnes Kirsch, vice president; and Fern Sletto, secretary-treasurer.

Serving on various committees were Gus Kirsch, Martha Poole, Golda Brown, program; Gene Ware, Ross Poole, Stanley Brown, grounds; Bertha W. Kirsch, Mrs. W. H. Loese and Mrs. J. K. McCall, tables; Eva Humphreys, Gene Ware, Paul Kirsch, publicity; Joe Parrish, Harry Humphreys, Rue Drager, sports.

Following a picnic lunch a program was given in the afternoon.

Eight Granges Attend Picnic

Silverton — Eight Marion county granges were represented among the 125 present at the annual Pomona picnic held during the week at the city park.

Mrs. Leone Henderson, Ankeny Grange, Pomona Lecturer, arranged the informal program of talks and games for the afternoon and Esther Hartley, Ankeny Grange, Pomona home economic chairman, planned the refreshments.

The two oldest guests were Fred Northrup of Red Hills Grange, and John Sandner, Scio, father of Pomona Master George Sandner, each 89 years of age.

Finish Building On College Campus

Monmouth—Work was started Monday on the completion of the third floor of the administration building at Oregon College of Education.

On this floor, incomplete since the building was erected in 1936, will be housed the physics and chemistry lecture rooms and laboratories.

The addition of these facilities will provide greater opportunity for those taking lower division science courses to broaden their work in the first two years before transferring to other institutions.

HOUSING SHORTAGE? YES, IN WOODBURN

Woodburn — Is there a housing shortage in Woodburn? This story proves there is.

A man and his wife arrived in Woodburn from Portland to work at the Birds Eye-Snyder plant. Not being able to find a room in the city they slept on the Lincoln school grounds the first night. Finding that rather chilly they decided if they must sleep out it would be better to sleep in the day time and work on the night shift. They tried this plan, sleeping during the day at the city park but loss of sleep made it impossible to continue working and they sadly departed for Portland and the cannery lost two good workers.

The Azores islands are of volcanic origin.
