

Episcopal Chapel Scene Of Wedding

Charming bride at Tuesday evening wedding rites was Miss Janice Patterson, daughter of Major and Mrs. Frank Patterson of Seattle and Salem, who was married to William Burke Cate, son of Mrs. L. Moberly of Middleton, Idaho. The ceremony was solemnized in the chapel of St. Paul's Episcopal church at 8 o'clock, Rev. George H. Swift, rector, officiating.

All-white flowers, asters and snapdragons decorated the altar for the wedding. Maurice Brennan played the organ music. For her wedding the bride wore a white lace dress, fashioned with long bodice and round neckline and a dropped full skirt. The long plain sleeves came to a point at the wrist and down each sleeve was a row of self-trimmed buttons. The fingertip veil of tulle was arranged from a lace crown. The bride carried a prayer book on which were placed three white orchids with streamers. Major Patterson gave his daughter in marriage.

Miss Jean Patterson was maid of honor for her sister. Her dress was of peach net, made in similar style to that of the bride but with cap sleeves. She wore a tiny cap of flowers and her bouquet was a cascade one of peach gladioluses.

Richard Cate was best man for his brother. A reception for family members and a few friends was held in the South Winter street home of the bride's parents following the church service.

The bride's table was set with the cake, around which was an arrangement of white bouvardia and ivory tapers. Mrs. E. E. Bragg cut the cake and Mrs. Bessie Horner presided at the punch bowl. Serving were Misses Margaret Hughlett, Donna Upjohn, Barbara Belt and Mary Nims, the latter of Portland. Miss Virginia Case had charge of the guest book.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Patterson wore a navy sheer dress with black accessories, and a corsage of roses and fuchsias. The bridegroom's mother wore navy blue crepe with black accessories, also a corsage of roses and fuchsias.

Among out-of-town relatives attending the wedding were Mr. and Mrs. Paul Tucker and Mrs. Sophia Godfrey, cousins of the bridegroom, all of Portland. The couple went to Canada on their wedding trip and early in September will leave for Boston, planning to be there September 16. Mr. Cate is to study at Boston university this year.

Capt. Hills is now on terminal leave, having arrived last week from Yokohama where he had been stationed. His mother is planning to come west from Iowa for the wedding.

Hauser-Wehrli Wedding Soon

Of interest to friends is announcement that the marriage of Miss Shanna Wehrli, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Elroy Nash, to Robert L. Hauser, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lloyd Hauser, will be solemnized August 31.

The wedding will be at 3 o'clock in the afternoon on that date in St. Joseph's Catholic church.

The young people are both graduates of Salem schools.

Members of the Merry-Time club held their annual get-together Sunday at the home of Mr. and Mrs. Lyle Sheppard in Capitola.

A no-host dinner was served picnic style in the garden. Later the business meeting was held and a miscellaneous birthday shower feted Mrs. Robert Burton.

Members and their families who were present for the affair included Mr. and Mrs. Horace Bell, Mr. and Mrs. Jasper Burton and Janice, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Carlson and Bob, Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Dobbins, Mr. and Mrs. Charlie Hagan and grandson, Lloyd, Mrs. Anna Kirkpatrick, Mr. and Mrs. John Shomberg, Mr. and Mrs. Claud Talmage, Mr. and Mrs. Kenneth Talmage and Claudia, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Burton, Ronald and Sherry, Mrs. Janet Burton, Mrs. Williams, Mr. and Mrs. Charles McBee and son, Mrs. McBee, Mrs. Eva Pillette, Miss Evelyn Pillette and the hostess, Mrs. Lyle Sheppard and children, Danny, Dixie and Dottie Sue.

Church Scene Of Wedding On Wednesday

St. Joseph's Catholic church was the scene for a wedding Wednesday afternoon when Miss Shirley Porter, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. M. G. Porter, was married to Myron Balloun, son of Mrs. Mary Balloun. The service was at three o'clock, Rev. J. Lenahan officiating.

Mr. Porter gave his daughter in marriage. The bride's dress was fashioned with a white satin bodice and a full white net skirt. She wore a three-quarter length veil of net arranged from a beaded halo, and for her flowers carried a bouquet of white carnations and other white blooms.

Mrs. Leonard Balloun, matron of honor, wore yellow with a small Juliet cap of lace, and her flowers were varied summer blooms.

Miss Delores Porter, sister of the bride, Mrs. Truett Owens, both in pink gowns, and Miss Virginia Kitchen and Miss Nellie King, wearing blue, were the four bridesmaids. All carried bouquets of mixed blooms.

Leonard Balloun was best man for his brother, and ushers were Morris McElwee, Sgt. Truett Owens, Ben Meyers, Robert Randle of Eugene and Carlton Tengs, two cousins of the bride, and Robert Jacobs.

A reception was held at the Lions Den following the church service. Miss Barbara Baldwin presided at the punch bowl, Miss Beverly Aronson cut the cake, Miss Dorothy Sturm served the cake, and Miss Marjorie DeTour was in charge of the guest book.

For traveling the bride wore a pearl grey suit with brown accessories and a corsage of pink flowers. The couple went on a trip to California and will return to make their home in Salem.

Belted Coat—The new nipped-in waistline look in Hansen Bang's nubby beige wool coat with snug belt, "elbow-room" sleeves.

Mt. Angel—Mr. and Mrs. Ambrose Ebner entertained recently in compliment to their son, Bobby Ebner, celebrating his eighth birthday anniversary. Mrs. Henry Zollner assisted at serving for her grandson. The afternoon was spent with swimming and games at the Abiqua river. Supper was served at the Ebner home. Present were Bobby Ebner, Kenneth Wachter, Patrick Fisher, Jerome Ebner, Charles Hoffer, Larry Schwab, Bobby Kruse, Mickey Kruse, James Heggie, Jerry Castigan, Edward Bashow, Ronald Harris and Leon Schieder.

Alene Dardis Married at Mt. Angel Church, Tuesday

Mt. Angel—St. Mary's church was decorated Tuesday with white and pink gladioluses and lighted Cathedral tapers for the marriage of Miss Alene Dardis of Salem, daughter of Mrs. Michael Dardis and the late Mr. Dardis, to Cordes Seethoff, son of Mr. and Mrs. John Seethoff of Woodburn. The Rev. Vincent Koppert, OSB, officiated, and read the nuptial mass. Miss Helen Keber presided at the pipe organ for St. Mary's choir and soloist Miss Pauline Saalfeld, and the wedding marches.

Thomas O'Leary of Salem gave the bride in marriage. She wore a gown of white satin, fashioned with fitted bodice and long sleeves, the dress ending in a long train. The net fingertip veil, edged in lace, fell from a coronet of seed pearls. She wore a three-strand pearl necklace and carried an arm bouquet of Talisman roses with white satin streamers.

Mrs. Raleigh F. Morrow of Molalla, sister of the bridegroom, was matron of honor. She wore a gown of powder blue chiffon. Her headdress was a Dutch cap, sequin covered, and she carried a nosegay of mixed flowers.

Miss Patricia Dardis was her sister's bridesmaid in a gown of pink silk jersey. She wore a sequin covered cap and carried a nosegay.

Gerald Dardis served as best man and ushers were Raleigh F. Morrow and C. J. Butsch. Serving at the altar were James Dardis and Richard Harris.

Mrs. Dardis wore an aqua marine street dress with dusty pink accessories and a pink carnation corsage for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Seethoff wore a watermelon colored wool suit with white accessories. Her corsage was yellow carnations.

Following the 9 o'clock ceremony a wedding breakfast was served at the Mt. Angel hotel with covers placed for 35 guests and the wedding party. Miss Jeannette Fennimore and Miss Louise Steeklein served at breakfast.

A reception was held at the home of the bride's mother at Salem, during the afternoon. Pouring were Mrs. A. J. Gauthier of Portland and Mrs. Thomas O'Leary of Salem. Serving were Mrs. A. Hampton, Mrs. Floyd Hastay and Miss Kay O'Leary.

Bride-Elect To Be Feted At Parties

Popular bride-elect is Miss Dorothy Vandeneynde, several events being given to honor her preceding her marriage to John Steelhammer on September 6.

Mrs. Richard Grabenhorst and Mrs. John R. Kelly will be co-hostesses on Thursday evening at a party and shower for Miss Vandeneynde, the affair to be given at the home of Mrs. Grabenhorst's parents, Mr. and Mrs. E. H. Burrell on Kingwood Heights. Early dessert will be served and bridge played.

Saturday evening, Mr. and Mrs. Charles Barclay and Mr. and Mrs. Robert E. Barnett are to entertain at an at-home for Miss Vandeneynde and Mr. Steelhammer.

Engagement Told At Lawn Party

The engagement of Miss Edna Collins to Robert Bartges was announced last Friday evening at a lawn party for which Mrs. Hazelle Granning and Miss Ollie Nichols were hostesses at their home to honor Mr. Bartges on his birthday anniversary. Colored lights and special arrangements of flowers made the attractive for the party. Tiny scrolls with the cake announced the betrothal.

The wedding is to be some time in the fall. Fifty guests were present for the party. Miss Velma Bariges, sister of the bridegroom-to-be, served the cake. Mrs. Earl Nichols presided at the punch bowl, and Miss Esther Collins, sister of the bride-elect, was in charge of the guest book.

Miss Collins is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ed Collins of Aumsville and Mr. Bartges is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Warren Bartges of Salem.

Bensons Hosts To Relatives

Guests at the home of Mr. and Mrs. L. V. Benson are Mrs. Benson's brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. S. Russell Bell, and the latter couple's son and daughter-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. James R. Bell and two children, Karen Sue and Douglas, all of Keota, Iowa.

On Saturday, Major and Mrs. William G. McClanahan, son-in-law and daughter of the S. Russell Bells, and daughter, Sharen McClanahan, will arrive from San Francisco.

Next week the Bensons and their sons, Steven and Whitney, will accompany the visitors for a trip to Seaside and Astoria.

The Young Married People's Sunday school class of the First Presbyterian church has arranged for a no-host picnic for the group for Sunday at 3 o'clock in the Silverton park. Those wishing further information are asked to call 73F3.
