Project Manager—Joe Hopkins, manager of the Salem Veterans' housing project, helps tidy up one of the apartments at the unit following occupancy.

24 Veterans and Families Move into New Housing

Twenty-four veterans and their families, who otherwise would have been homeless—all had received eviction notices from Salem landlords—today had roofs over their heads because of the Salem veterans' housing project.

The veterans, all of whom had children and one of them with eight children, were in the group that Tuesday and Wednesday moved into the two recently completed courts at the unit. Twenty out of the 24 that yesterday took their belongings to their new homes were eviction cases. Four of those moving into the unit today would have been homeless, the remainder of that group of 24 were Willamette university students.

Seventy-two of the units, 32 of them no-bedroom apartments and 48 of them two-bedroom units, are now occupied by veterans. The remainder of the apartments, which it had originally been planned to complete early in September are still unfinished with construction held up by lack of wallboard, roofing and suspended chimneys.

At the project this week to assist the manager, Joe Hopkins and his bookkeeper, Helen Raynor, in setting up their accounting system is L. W. Gilfillen, federal public housing authority field accountant out of the regional office in Seattle.

Recently hired by Hopkins to help with the administration of the project was the bookkeeper, Helen Raynor, discharged from the Wac a year ago after service in Australia and the Philippines, whose salary will be $175 per month and a maintenance man, Ralph O'Brien, whose salary will be $225 per month. O'Brien, an ex-Seabee discharged late in 1945, lives at the project.

Accident Groups Meet in Portland

Men prominent in the nation's industrial life will be in Portland next week in connection with the annual convention of the International Association of Industrial Accident commissions and Salem business men expect to play host to a number of them during their stay in the northwest. The industrialists will include representatives from such concerns as DuPont, and similar multi-million dollar concerns.

L. O. Arenz of the state industrial accident commission, is president of the international organization and as such will preside during the conference sessions. A number of Salem business men plan to attend the opening day dinner scheduled for next Sunday at the Multnomah hotel and will extend personal invitations to eastern industrialists to pay a visit to Oregon's capital. Transportation will be provided all who accept.

Building Wanted For New Industry

An industry that will employ at least 25 persons once it is established is badly in need of a building in which to operate, Clay Cochran, manager of the Salem Chamber of Commerce said Wednesday. The concern needs two to three thousand square feet of floor space, either all on one floor or scattered over two or three.

The location need not necessarily be central, in fact, the operator would prefer to locate out of the high rent zone. However, water and sewer connections must be available. The proprietor will enter into a long term lease contract for a building already in existence or with someone who will construct a new one suitable for his line of industry.

Persons interested in providing housing for the man who has moved his family to Salem should contact the Chamber of Commerce.

Top Grade Cattle Break Price Record

Chicago, Aug. 21 (AP)—In the first session since livestock prices were announced as recon- trolled, effective Friday, top grade cattle leaped to another new record of $28.40 a hundred pounds live weight.

This was up 50 cents from yesterday's peak, the record for a day. Chief strength came from sharp eastern buyer demand on the scarcest supplies in years. As they did when OPA price control was in effect before June 30, big packers pulled out of the market almost entirely.

However, average good and lower grade cattle went in the opposite direction.

2 Pilots Killed In Plane Crash

Moline, Ill., Aug. 21 (AP)—Pilot Captain James Steen and Co-pilot Marvin Fox of a charter plane were killed and 10 passengers were injured, none seriously, early today when the craft crashed a mile south of the Moline airport while attempting to make an emergency landing.

The two crew members were thrown out of the plane. Steen was instantly killed and Fox died shortly after being taken to Moline Public hospital.

Two babies among the passengers were unhurt.

Passengers said one of the plane's two engines caught fire about 50 miles from Moline and that the pilot shut it off and headed for the airport. He circled the field three times, the last time only a few feet from the ground.

The plane was over the runway on the last round and when the pilot gunned the engine a wing dipped and struck the ground. The impact split the plane in half, hurdling some of the passengers to the ground.

Among those aboard the plane was Richard Crow, Fall Creek, Ore.

Cpl. Richard Brown Given Discharge

Returned to Salem following his discharge from the army at Fort Lewis, August 16, is Cpl. Richard O. Brown, Jr., son of Mr. and Mrs. R. O. Brown, Sr., of route 4. The corporal, who was in the armed forces for over two years, spent over a year and a half overseas and returned to the States August 10 from Japan, where he was on duty with the military police occupation forces.

Brown saw action in the battle for the Philippines and has the Good Conduct medal, the Philippine Liberation medal with two battle stars, the Victory medal, the Asiatic-Pacific theater ribbon and the Japanese occupation ribbon.

Then what happens but they see in the army newspaper Stars and Stripes this morning that dependents arriving in September would go into the new housing units and they would stay in their Quonset huts.

So they say they are "tired of having rank pulled on our husbands" who are all captains or lower grade, are they go off and call on Col. B. P. Thompson, executive officer for the headquarters and service group.

Thompson heard their beef in private and "it was not a very happy meeting," said Mrs. Ruth Williams, formerly of San Antonio, Texas.

Thompson came out of the meeting and said some of the complaints were justified, that these were the fault of the Japanese contractors, Japanese laborers, Japanese materials and a Japanese manager who was sacked last week.

The wives said they were going directly to Maj. Gen. Paul J. Mueller, General MacArthur's chief of staff, to complain about the "injustice of assigning better housing to late arrivals."

Small Plane Hit by Airliner

Seattle, Aug. 21 (AP)—All 21 passengers and a crew of three aboard a Northwest Airlines passenger plane arriving from Chicago and two men in a private plane escaped injury in a spectacular crash on the Boeing field landing ramp at 8:40 a. m. today.

Both planes were on the ground, the big ship rolling in to unload passengers and the small one, piloted by Ronald Taylor and accompanied by a flight student, Lee Miller, moving along the ramp to take off.

Witnesses said at the point of impact, a block south of the administration building, propellers of the big plane began cutting simultaneously at the tail and nose of the little craft. Taylor and Miller jumped out between the whirling blades and ran to safety.

The NWA pilot, John Paffinger, said he was unable to explain the accident.

"We had been cleared to land and to taxi in by the control tower," he said. "I don't know where that little plane came from."

Witnesses said the small plane was "chewed to pieces" at both ends but its cockpit remained intact. The propeller of the trainer put a dent in the transport's nose.

Civil aeronautics administration inspectors began an immediate investigation.

Discuss Zoning Annexed Areas

On September 10 at 8:30 p. m. in the city council chamber the city zoning and planning commission will hold a public hearing on proposed zoning of the new areas taken into the city by annexation at the recent special election, according to an announcement made at a meeting of the commission Tuesday evening.

At Tuesday's meeting the commission also gave preliminary approval to a petition of the Portland General Electric company asking for a change in zone 1 to 3 of block 40 in University addition where the company wishes to install one of its large transformers. Public hearing on this petition also has been set for the evening of September 10 at 8 o'clock.

The commission Tuesday evening also gave its approval to a petition asking for change of zone 1 of lot 7, block 10, from 1 to 3 where the Electric Cleaners wish to enlarge their plant. The commission will recommend this change to the city council.

Jefferson Trucker Killed in Logging

Albany, Aug. 21 (AP)—Virgil Norman Hall, 24, Jefferson, was killed outright yesterday when thrown from a gravel truck on the Murphy Timber company logging road 12 miles east of Seio.

Deputy Coroner John Summers said Hall, employed on construction of the private logging road, struck his head. The widow and a child survive.
