Brittan-Burger Marriage Vows Read in Mt. Angel

Mt. Angel — At an outstandingly beautiful ceremony Saturday morning at 9 o'clock, Miss Dorris M. Burger, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burger, became the bride of Luke R. Brittan of Silverton, son of Mr. and Mrs. H. F. Brittan of Woodburn. The marriage vows were exchanged at St. Mary's church, Mt. Angel, before the main altar, decorated with pink and white gladioluses, greenery and lighted tapers. Miss Pauline Saalfeld sang solos, accompanied by Miss Helen Keber, who played the wedding music for the marches and for the choir at nuptial mass. Rev. Vincent Koppert officiated and read the vows.

Miss Burger was given in marriage by her father. She wore a gown of white silk poplin, with low sweetheart neckline on fitted bodice, topped with a yoke of net, forming cap sleeves edged with a ruching of net. A three-strand string of pearls adorned her neck and she wore long white silk gloves. Her full length veil, with face veil, of illusion was embroidered on the edges and held in place by a coronet of pearls. She carried a shower bouquet of gardenias, rosebuds and stephanotis.

Miss Teresa Brittan of Woodburn was bridesmaid. She wore a gown of baby pink chiffon with fitted bodice, scalloped sweetheart neckline, puffed sleeves, with full chiffon skirt over taffeta. She wore a locket and carried a yellow nosegay with variegated shades of lavender asters, centered by a carnation and yellow daisies. Her headpiece was a white half-hat with pink ruffle of velvet and shoulder veil of net to match.

The matrons of honor were Mrs. Hal Bailey of Portland and Mrs. Kenneth Barnes of Portland, sisters of the bride, and Mrs. Lester Wells of Silverton, sister of the bridegroom. Mrs. Bailey wore a baby blue taffeta, Mrs. Wells wore an Alice blue taffeta gown, fashioned similarly, with fitted bodice, V-neckline, puffed sleeves. Mrs. Barnes wore a zircon necklace. Their headpieces were white half-hats with blue shoulder veils of net. Mrs. Barnes was gowned in a draped chiffon of salmon pink. The fitted bodice was topped with a square neckline and short draped sleeves. The flat crepe was topped by a full chiffon skirt. She wore a cross and chain and carried a nosegay of lavender asters identical to the bridesmaid's. Mrs. Bailey and Mrs. Wells carried pink nosegays of variegated shades, centered with carnations and daisies.

John Brittan was best man for his brother. The ushers were Hal Bailey, Kenneth Barnes and Lester Brittan. Twin sons of Mr. and Mrs. Lester Wells, Gene and Jack, served as altar boys.

Mr. and Mrs. Peter Burger served breakfast at their home immediately following the ceremony for the bridal party, their parents and Rev. Vincent Koppert, OSB. Covers were placed for thirty guests for dinner at the Mt. Angel hotel. Serving were Mrs. Isadore Schaffner and Miss Tillie Spionski. A square three-tiered wedding cake with an arrangement of salmon-colored gladioluses, gardenias and rosebuds centered the bride's table. Miss Helen Keber played selections and accompanied Miss Pauline Saalfeld, who sang.

Mrs. Burger wore a black cardigan suit of wool, black accessories and a corsage of salmon-colored gladioluses for her daughter's wedding. Mrs. Brittan wore a dusty pink afternoon dress with black acces-
