Jottings by Jean

Gay Adventure: Living at the Pensacola Naval Air station must be great fun for Lt. (j.g.) and Mrs. Stuart Nelson... the weather is glorious and exciting plans are seemingly always afoot... at this point, Stuart has something special for the near future... he is flying to Havana one weekend soon to play football on the Pensacola team against the University of Havana... Barbara hopes to go, too.

Pioneering, 1946: Mr. and Mrs. Leslie Avrit, friends of Mrs. Asabel Bush and many Salemites, are taking off for a brave variety of hard work... he has been coach and teacher at the Klamath Falls high school... but they wanted something different... so two weeks ago, he flew to Juneau, Alaska, where they will take up living and he coaching... she followed this week by car after a brief stopover with Mrs. Bush here... she'll take the car to Seattle, then ship it by boat and take the boat herself... to stay-at-homes, it seems like a long jump to make... but they have something many stay-at-homes can't possibly boast: a wonderful three-room apartment.

Harbinger: Falling leaves, cold snappy morning air and a spicy smell of smoke, as people get their fireplaces going once again... that, and canning, and youngsters starting off to school in brand new, squeaky shoes or coats they'll "grow into during the winter"... Summer makes the social life lag a little, too, and with the exciting beginning of fall, many new faces have joined groups about the town... many are those whom the stress of war took away and have now returned to home ground... Here with her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. William Bush, is Mrs. Donald Coons and her three-year-old son, Donnie... they've been living in Washington, D. C., where he was attached to the generals' staff... they lived in Washington 14 months... He, a lieutenant colonel, shipped for Hawaii on Tuesday, and as soon as he has found a place for them to live, they'll go over... the army won't have wives and mothers coming over until plans for housing them are complete.

Newcomer: Soft-voiced southerner is Mrs. Oscar Specht, who moved here with her husband in June... he is a former Silverton man... she was Esther Marie Proctor of Wynn, Ark., and Memphis.

Back Again: Mrs. Herbert Glaisyer, Jr., and her three attractive children, have a home in North Commercial street for a while... He's going to OSC, taking advantage of the army's offer to permanently commissioned men to finish their educations... in a year he will complete work in civil engineering... and they will probably go overseas... they were formerly stationed at Williams field, Phoenix, Ariz., with the air corps.

Miss Marilyn Nelson is vacationing at the home of her uncle and aunt, Mr. and Mrs. Kim Ellis, in Hollywood, Calif.

Mrs. Stuart Johns will entertain members of the sewing group of the Disabled American Veterans auxiliary next Friday for luncheon and all-day Red Cross sewing.

WED IN PORTLAND were Mr. and Mrs. Alvin LeRoy Flake. The rites took place September 8 at the First Unitarian church. She is the former Janet Elder, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Ivan Elder. He is the son of Mrs. E. B. Flake of Salem. They will live in Corvallis, where he will resume his work at Oregon State college. (Logan-Markham studio, Portland)

NEWCOMER TO SALEM SOCIETY is Mrs. Oscar Specht, the former Esther Marie Proctor of Wynn, Ark., and Memphis. She and her husband have moved here following his release from the army air corps upon completion of five years' service.

Stayton—Immaculate Conception church was the setting for an early fall wedding Tuesday morning, September 17, at 8:30 o'clock, when Miss Bernice Welter, daughter of Mrs. Agnes Welter, and Clarence (Joe) Maertz, son of Mr. and Mrs. C. C. Maertz of Scio, plighted their troth before an altar lighted with tapers and banked with pastel colored asters, dahlias, marigolds and greenery. Rev. Mathe-w Jones performed the nuptial mass before a large group of relatives and friends.

Miss Josephine Brand played the wedding music and accompanied the choir, which sang "Ave Maria."

The bride, given in marriage by her uncle and godfather, Albert Welter of Eugene, wore a dress of white nylon taffeta fashioned with a full skirt and court train. Her fingertip veil was held in place with a beaded crown. She carried a bouquet of pink rosebuds and white carnations with long streamers.

Mrs. Eleanor Welter, sister of the bride, was maid of honor. Her dress was of white chiffon and she carried a nosegay of pastel asters. Miss Lorraine Maertz, sister of the bridegroom, and Miss Helen Gisher were honor attendants, wearing white and carrying like nosegays of pastel shaded early fall flowers. Miss Delores Maertz, another sister of the bridegroom, was flower girl and she wore a white dress and carried a smaller nosegay similar to the bridesmaids.

For her daughter's wedding, Mrs. Welter chose a dark brown suit with brown accessories and a corsage of white carnations and pink rosebuds. Mrs. Maertz wore a black frock with gold accessories and a corsage of carnations and rosebuds.

A wedding dinner was given at the parish hall at noon for the wedding party and members of the family. A reception, also in the parish hall, was held in the afternoon for relatives and friends. Serving at the dinner and reception were Misses Dorothy Geschor, Margaret Lulay and Irene Austen, Mrs. Albert Welter, the bride's aunt, passed the guest book.

The couple left later on a trip to southern California. Upon their return, they will make their home near Scio.
