

Road Boosters Given Reports

Stayton—Cascade highway reports and committee appointments for the year were the main items on the opening Lions club meeting for the winter at the clubhouse. Member's wives were guests for the meeting, and also assisted with the no-host supper.

L. E. Spraker, director of the Cascade highway association, reported that several meetings have been held during the summer and has advanced to where club and individual memberships are now being secured. The first step, it was pointed out, will be directed towards Linn county, their roads being the weakest link in the route of the Cascade highway which is designed to take the most direct route between Springfield and Portland. The club voted to take a $10 membership.

New committee appointments include: alternate, Kenneth Farwell, Marion Cunningham, Wendell Wedder; constitution and by-laws, Wedder; finance, George B. Dunne, P. M. Smith; convention, L. H. Wright, Charles Johnson, R. G. Wood, G. Schachtel, Ed Bell, Herman Doyle.

Memberships, Irvin Barbary, Kenneth Farwell, Kenneth Williams; program, R. G. Wood, L. E. Spraker, L. H. Wright, Ed Bell, W. A. Porter, Judge Grant Murray; publicity, L. E. Spraker, G. W. Ayres, Julian DeJardin; food and meeting place, Virgil Tuck, H. Darley, A. P. Hermosa, Clifford Liles.

Activities committee include: boys and girls, G. W. Ayres, Ed Bell, John Christensen; citizenship, Judge Duncan, Merion Cox, T. G. Fries; civic improvement, George Bell, W. P. Lessard; Charles Morgan; community betterment, W. Wedder, G. Schachtel, E. Williams; education, M. Van Brice, V. D. Bryson, Charles Morgan; health and welfare, H. A. Beauchamp, M. Cox, Julian DeJardin; safety, John Christensen, Walter Bell, A. P. Hermosa.

The group will meet at the cabin of V. R. Fuel up the North Santiam river at the next meeting. Wives are again to be special guests.

Highway Caravan To Follow Route

Lebanon—Plans are now underway for a caravan to start at Eugene and follow the route of the proposed Cascade highway to its terminal at Oregon City, according to Curtis Stringer, president of the Cascades Highway association.

The cavalcade will draw recruits from cities and communities along the route and will end with a banquet, speeches and varied entertainment in Oregon City. Date of the trek will be announced as soon as the committee in charge has completed plans, Stringer said.

Bates Will Remain Temporary Pastor

Silverton—Rev. C. Arthur Bates of the Oregon executive group of Christian churches is remaining in Silverton for the month as temporary pastor of the congregation. Mrs. Bates is with her husband. Rev. Bates gave two discourses Sunday on significant features of holy communion, in observance of national communion day.

Fairview Teachers' Club Opens Season

Fairview—The Teachers' club met at the home of Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Versteeg for the opening monthly meeting of the season, which is the beginning of the eleventh year of the club. There were 17 teachers present. The group divided into upper grade and primary round-table discussions. A covered-dish dinner was served. The next meeting will be held at the home of Mrs. Mildred Trent at McMinnville.

Business Changes Noted at Stayton

Stayton—W. W. Lessard announced this week that his son, W. W. Lessard, Jr., is now sole owner of the Coldspot meat market. W. W. Lessard, Sr., will operate the cold storage lockers. Young Lessard was in the navy for several years before his return here early in the spring.

Lyle McNamara, recent arrival from Longview, Wash., has purchased the Rendezvous confectionary from C. F. Davis. The new owner took possession this week.

Mr. and Mrs. Davis have operated the Rendezvous since April. The McNamara family, including Mrs. McNamara and two children, will occupy the house formerly occupied by the Davises on Third and Santiam. Davis has no plans, he said, except to take a vacation.

J. H. Wolf, for the past nine years operator of the Sublimity service station at that place, has disposed of his interests to Ray Rauscher. The new manager took over October 1.

Rauscher is the son of Mrs. Clara Rauscher of Sublimity. He enlisted in the navy during the first part of the war and later became a war correspondent and returned from overseas a year ago. He came from California the past summer after an illness.

Altar Society Opens Silverton Fall Year

Silverton—Mrs. Ralph Francis of South Water street was hostess to her fellow members of St. Monica's Altar society of St. Paul's Catholic church Thursday afternoon, with 37 guests attending the first meeting of the group for the club year. Father John Walsh assisted the program committee in outlining the features for the coming year.

Work was done on articles to be sold at the annual fall festival of the church, with plans to be completed for the affair later. Tentative date for the festival has been announced as Sunday, November 10. The first in a series of card parties to be sponsored by the society is announced for Sunday, October 13.

A pre-nuptial shower of gifts was given Miss Mehala Able, fiancée of Raymond Maurer. The November meeting of St. Monica's society will be at the Silverton Hills home of Mrs. Tony DeSantis. Mrs. Luigi De Santis is president of the society.

Stayton Clubs Open Season

Stayton—Plans for a joint meeting of the Lions club and the Woman's club were made Wednesday afternoon by members of the latter organization when the group opened its winter activities with an all-day meeting. Miss Eleanor Trindle, county home demonstration agent, prepared a luncheon for approximately 25 women who attended the meeting. She spoke on vitamins following the luncheon.

The two clubs will hold a no-host dinner Tuesday evening, October 15, at 6:30 o'clock. A speaker, to be named later, will talk on the basic school support fund bill and other measures which will appear on the ballot at the general election, November 5.

A membership tea will be given at the clubhouse Wednesday afternoon, October 30, at 2:30 o'clock, at which time newcomers will be special guests. Mesdames Clifford Likes, F. M. Smith, C. A. Beauchamp and Amelia Albus will be hostesses.

New committee appointments include: Christmas seal sale, Mrs. Henrietta Powell; Associated Country Women of the World, Mrs. Angus Ware; finance chairman, Mrs. V. D. Bryant; child welfare, Mrs. Angus Ware.

For the next meeting, Wednesday, October 30, the subject will be "Care of the Hair." Project leaders will be Sue Tuel and Margaret Cunningham will be in charge of the program. Mrs. Abbie Bell and Mrs. Olive Samples will be hostesses.
