(By the Associated Press)

Willamette	3	0	0	84	26
College of Puget Sound	1	0	1	39	6
Pacific	1	1	0	6	33

College of Idaho	1	2	0	36	47
Whitman	1	2	0	27	33
British Columbia	0	2	0	26	47

Two kingpins of the as-yet-young Northwest conference season clash head on this Saturday when the thrice-victorious Willamette Bears entertain College of Puget Sound in Salem. The Tacomaans have a win and a tie in two times out. The two clubs set the stage for this Saturday's battle over the week-end as Willamette, with the Johnny Slanchik-Marv Goodman passing combination clicking twice for tallies, pounded out a 27-7 triumph over College of Idaho and the Puget Sounders squeezed through with a 6-6 tie with Linfield.

The weekend clash pits the league's best offense against the best defense. The six points Linfield marked up Saturday being the first tallied against CPS.

In other tilts this weekend Pacific University meets Linfield in Forest Grove to determine which stays in the upper division; and University of British Columbia, now in the cellar as a result of Whitman's 21-13 triumph, entertains College of Idaho, another basement occupant.

Kittens Scratch Pacific J-V's

Out-gunned in virtually every department of the game, Pacific university's Jayvee football team absorbed a 36 to 0 thumping at the hands of Willamette's so-called second string on Sweetland field Saturday night. Coach "Bunny" Bennett's aggregation had the upper hand all the way, scoring in every period and racked up four touchdowns in the first half. The yardage was approximately 3 to 1 for the winners with the Willamette Bearkittens being credited with slightly more than 150.

Cece Conner carried the ball for two touchdowns, Burley two and Patterson and Fitzsimmons one each.

UCLA Bruins Hold Pace

San Francisco, Oct. 21 (AP)—After last week's rugged football sessions, involving an upset or two, the West Coast gridiron story today remains the same—the best team until beaten is the University of California at Los Angeles.

The UCLA Bruins, perched atop the Coast conference standings and four times winners over stout opposition, improved their position in the dash to the Rose Bowl with a 13-6 win over a surprisingly strong University of California eleven. The Bruins lined up 6 to 1 favorites. They were lucky to escape with whole skins.

Defeated, the Bears outplayed their southern cousins for a goodly part of the game at Berkeley which attracted some 65,000 fans. In some respects, the Bruins lost while winning. Their leading ground gainer and ace right halfback, Cal Rossi, suffered a broken right leg, above the ankle. And their clever field general, Southpaw Quarterback Ernie Case, went out of the contest with a broken nose.

Bruins Set Pace—Nevertheless, UCLA is setting the championship pace, unbeaten, and may have hurdled the toughest rivals, namely Oregon State, Washington, Stanford and California. Unless University of Southern California, pre-season conference favorite, has finally hit its stride.

Southern California heartened supporters with a six-legend comeback, after losses inside and out of the conference by overwhelming Washington 28-0. It was a resounding reply to the general question of what was wrong with a USC eleven that had bowed to Ohio State, 21-0, and to Oregon State, 6-0, the latter a league affair.

This week's headliner may give further light on the Southern California enigma. The Trojans journey to Palo Alto to take on the fast working Stanford Indians.

Having beaten everybody in the league except the San Francisco 49ers, the Bruins are perched at the peak looking down on seven clubs which have lost at least two each.

The winning ways have paid huge dividends at the gate, too. Yesterday as the Bruins beat back the threatening western sector second place Los Angeles Dons by 31 to 14, a crowd of 71,134 poured $158,186.32 into the cash registers.

Stanford outscored Santa Clara, 33-26 in a non-conference test Saturday. Santa Clara's hitherto struggling outfit being a bit of a surprise package in the free-for-all. Santa Clara seems headed for another fall in its engagement with UCLA at Los Angeles this week-end, non-league in status.

Other conference contests on the October 26 calendar send the up and coming California Bears against the Washington Huskies in the homecoming game at Seattle; Oregon State against Washington State at Pullman and Oregon against Idaho at Moscow.

Barring rainy weather, California's stout defense play coupled with an increasingly improved offense, may keep the Bears in the race with a win over Washington. Oregon State, walloped by UCLA but upset winner over Southern California, rates over Washington State, although the latter played undefeated Oregon to a 0-0 tie on a wet field last week.

Oregon, with two conference wins, a tie but undefeated, appears too fast for Idaho, which has yet to win in or out of the circuit, its latest being a 26-14 setback by San Jose (Calif.) State college.

Montana, playing a lighter conference schedule than the rest and loser in its only bid thus far in the standings, takes on Utah State at Missoula.

Keiser Takes Golf Crown—Knoxville, Tenn.—Herman Keiser of Akron, Ohio, won $2,000 first money in the Knoxville Invitational golf tourney with a 72-hole score of 291, three under par. Chick Harbert of Farmington, Mich., was second, one strike behind. Jim Ferrario and Dutch Harrison, Chicagoans, tied for third at 293.

Cleveland Browns Streak For All-America Honors—Cleveland, Oct. 21 (AP)—The All-American football conference's first race with the season half over, looks like a shoo-in for the unblemished Cleveland Browns.

The winning ways have paid huge dividends at the gate, too. Yesterday as the Browns beat back the threatening western sector second place Los Angeles Dons by 31 to 14, a crowd of 71,134 poured $158,186.32 into the cash registers.

Scoring stars of the game were Tom Jazinicke, sub halfback, who counted three times for the winners, and Quarterback John Ehrsam, who tallied twice.

Upsets Mar Records Of College Elevens

New York, Oct. 21 (AP)—The college football season, a cockeyed campaign in which surprises are a dime a dozen and nothing seems impossible, reaches the halfway mark this week with only a handful of major teams still clutching untarnished records. Many previously unbeaten outfits were engaged today in pulling themselves from the wreckage strewn across every section of the land in the past weekend's wave of upsets, and there was a strong possibility that similar embarrassment lay ahead for some of those who escaped.

Wharton Heads Boxing Card

Sugar Eddie Wharton, Portland's best welterweight, will headline the Veterans of Foreign Wars boxing card at the armory the night of October 30. He will meet Young Al Davis over the 10-round route. Wharton scored an impressive three round knockout over Lou Ballard of Boise on the card of two weeks ago and displayed considerable class while doing so.

Matchmaker Tex Salkeld announces that he is lining up a support card that will be a credit to the main event and currently is trying to sign the popular Chuck "Kid" Brown of Portland for the six round semi-final against a suitable opponent.

Both Wharton and Davis have been in serious training and will have little difficulty in making the weight of 142 pounds or under for the match.

perfect record in a try for a fifth triumph at Wake Forest, and Georgia, which kept its record clean by romping over Oklahoma A. and M., 33-13, will be at Furman for non-conference games in the South.

The Southeastern conference slate sends Kentucky to Alabama, Auburn to Georgia Tech, Louisiana State to Vanderbilt and Mississippi State to Tulane. Other top-notch contests will find Florida at North Carolina, Richmond at Washington and Lee, William and Mary at VMI and Arkansas at Mississippi.

Illinois, 27-21 victor over Wisconsin, will be at Michigan, which tied Northwestern 14-14, and Minnesota, which swamped Wyoming 46-0, will go to Ohio State, tied 14-14 by Purdue.

Quakers vs. Middles—Pennsylvania's Quakers, who kept their record clean by smearing Virginia 40-0, entertain Navy in another eastern headliner. The Middles, downed 21-14 by North Carolina for their third loss, should be ready to give somebody a trouble-some afternoon.

HIGH FLIERS TRIP BIRD ON TABLE

Some 40 pounds of turkey disappeared like magic late Sunday afternoon when Rev. Chester Hamblin, pastor of the First Presbyterian church, placed the festive bird before Willamette university's traveling football squad and accompanying coaches. The turkey and trimmings were served buffet style in the Hamblin home. While a resident of middle west Rev. Hamblin was quite an admirer of the University of Minnesota grid club and since coming to Salem has been an ardent booster of Willamette athletic squad.
