Coast Negotiations
San Francisco, Oct. 28 (45)— Negotiations for settlement of the four-week-old maritime strike on the Pacific coast will be resumed at 3 p.m., today amid encouraging signs arising from the agreements ending the tie-up on the Atlantic seaboard A conditional offer to end the west coast strike was made over the week-end by Harry

Bridges, president of the Inter-national Longshoremen's and Warehousemen's union (CIO) and co-chairman of the commit-tee for maritime unity. He said he would call off the strike if employers would agree to submit to negotiation the issue of a separate contract covber schooners, and accept the
