

Uclans Give PCC Hope Of Perfect Bowl Team

San Francisco, Nov. 13 (AP)—Coach Bert La Brucherie of UCLA's undefeated Bruins isn't claiming he has a "wonder team," but if his boys go to the Rose Bowl with a perfect record, it will be the first time the trick has been turned since the 1940 Stanford "wow boys" made it. Year-in and year-out the competition is so even in the Pacific Coast conference that a so-called mediocre record—from a national standpoint, that is—wins the bowl bid.

Stiner Heads West Seniors For Star Tilt

New York, Nov. 13 (AP)—Lon Stiner of Oregon State was chosen today as head coach for the West team in the 1947 East-West all-star game for the Shrine at San Francisco, and Andy Kerr of Colgate was named again to lead the East team.

Stiner, dean of Pacific Coast conference coaches, replaces O. E. Hollingberry, former Washington State coach, who has retired. He will be assisted by Homer Norton of Texas A. & M. and George Sauer of Kansas. Kerr's staff will be the same as last year—Bernie Bierman of Minnesota and Beattie Feathers of North Carolina State.

Players for both squads will be chosen from among star seniors on the nation's collegiate football teams.

After that comes Nebraska in an inter-sectional game. However, the latter game will have no bearing on the selection of the western representative.

While the Uclans take their breath against Montana this week, Southern California will rest its bruised scouting the Bruins in action against the Grizzlies.

In other conference games, Oregon and Washington tangle in a traditional northern battle that already has sold out the 43,000 seats at Seattle; Stanford entertains Washington State at Palo Alto; and Oregon State invades California at Berkeley. The Beavers with one loss and one tie in conference play are closest to USC and UCLA in the standings.

Cadet Guard Tops Nation

New York, Nov. 13 (AP)—Joe Steffy, Army guard, smeared Notre Dame men all over the place in last Saturday's "game of the year" at the Yankee stadium. For his stellar performance the cadet from Chattanooga was named today as the lineman of the week in the sixth Associated Press weekly poll of the season.

"Steffy was superb defensively amongst an array of outstanding stars," was the tribute to Steffy's feats by Herman Hickman, Army line coach, who seldom goes overboard on a player.

Steffy had the stiffest kind of opposition in the balloting from Ends Alton Baldwin, of Arkansas; Neil Armstrong, Oklahoma Aggies; Kelly Mote, Duke; and Jim Martin, Notre Dame; Tackles Ed. Champagne, Louisiana State and George Sullivan, Notre Dame; and Centers Chuck Bednarik, Pennsylvania; Dick Scott, Navy; Paul Duke, Georgia Tech and Bryant Meeks, South Carolina.

Only West Coast player nominated was End Paul Cleary of Southern California.

WU Gridders are Set For Southland Visit

A squad of 23 men, plus Coaches Walter Erickson and Elmer Schaaek and Trainer Gil Ogden, leave Wednesday night at 11:59 for their contest with the Whittier College Poets at Whittier, Calif., next Saturday night. They will reach Los Angeles Friday in time for a workout that afternoon. It will be the fifth meeting on the gridiron for the two institutions. Whittier won, 21-18, in 1936 while Willamette downed the Poets, 13-6, in 1937 and 33-7 in 1941. The fourth meeting was a scoreless tie.

Making the trip will be: Backs—Douglas, Lorenz, Slanchik, Furno, Pavlock, Hardy, Fletcher, Wickert; ends—Reeder, Goodman, Johnson, Bill Patterson; tackles—Jacobsen, Deoner, Neff, Ercolini; guards—Cookingham, Johnson, Bohnenkamp, Donovan and L. White; centers—Pat White and Bill Hill.

Two Squads Warm Up

Woodburn—In the first football game of the season, St. Benedict's school bowed to the St. Paul grade school team 19 to 6 last Thursday afternoon at the Rodeo grounds in St. Paul. The Woodburn parochial team scored their lone touchdown on a long pass from Joey Mellmer to Don Fieck, who ran 40 yards to pay dirt.

Dick Smith, Rasmussen and Kirk were the big guns in the St. Paul pass-consciousness scoring machine. Don Fieck and Harold Kottre were outstanding on offense for St. Benedict's while Joey Mellmer prevented two more St. Paul scores by great defensive play.

After work is complete on the school grounds at St. Luke's parish, a return game will be arranged on the Woodburn field.

Leslie-Parrish Series Goes on Stretch

When Leslie Gold and Parrish Gray football elevens trotted out on the Leslie gridiron Wednesday afternoon at 3 o'clock both sides were aiming for a successful completion of intra-mural rivalry that will reach a climax Friday night, November 22, when the two schools select all-star teams for a city championship scrap.

Thursday afternoon at 3 o'clock the Leslie Blues will meet Parrish Cardinals on Olinger field in a final football tussle for these two elevens.

Dads' Club Slates Football Banquets

Banquets on the order of king's festivals are in store for Salem football youth, gratis the ever-active Dads club.

On Monday, November 25, over 150 gridiron enthusiasts of the senior high eleven, the junior varsity and Parrish and Leslie players will gather with approximately 100 Dads. The site will be announced later, but banquet trimmings are assured.

Monday, December 2, Willamette varsity and junior varsity footballers will be feasted.

Clair Brown presided at the well-attended Dads club meeting Tuesday night in the senior high school. Football Coaches Walt Erickson, Elmer Schaaek and Harold Hauk gave short talks. Phil Blankenship played violin request numbers, and two football movies were shown members.

Dan Roskos of East Stroudsburg (Pa.) Teachers college tops the nation's collegiate football scorers today with 78 points.

Armory Fight Feature Pits Boxer vs. Puncher

Duane Hoag, termed the "durable" and a sort of perpetual motion fighting machine, will go up against a clever boxer in Snooks Lacey in Wednesday night's 10-round main event of the VFW card at the armory. And while none of the ringside experts has had the temerity to back Lacey as a possible winner via the KO route nevertheless, several of them believe the Negro featherweight will go the route, something no other opponent in the local arena has been able to accomplish.

Viking J-V's Visit Eugene For Tangle

Undeclared and noted for their peppery drive, Salem Viking football J-V's left for Eugene Wednesday noon and a gridiron encounter with Axemen jayvees, another once-tied and undefeated eleven.

Coach Loren Mort's squad has held no practice sessions since Friday of last week. The starting lineup will include: Culbertson and Reek, ends; Harbaugh and Johnson, tackles; Sproule and Barnhardt, guards; McKeel, center; Taylor, quarterback; Covalt and Osburn, halfbacks and Glenn, fullback.

Meanwhile, Coach Harold Hauk's Viking varsity squad slated a workout on fundamentals Wednesday. Preparations are in full swing for the season closing tangle with Springfield Millers on Sweetland field Friday night.

Cazzell Tips Mask

Wrestling fans got their money's worth in jam-packed action Tuesday night at the Ferry street armory ring as Ike Cazzell flogged a win over the Gray Mask with the second and decisive fall coming by route of several Mask-administered head butts to Referee Otis Clingman. Frank Hart and Billy Fox scrapper to a draw in the semi-final. Jack Lipscomb won over Sammy Kohlen in the opener.

Aurora—Miss Glendolene Vinyard, a national champion in archery, bagged a five point buck which weighed 230 lbs. after being dressed recently in the John Day country.

YANDLE WILL LEAD PRO BASKETEERS

The Salem professional basketball club, holder of a franchise with the Pacific Coast Basketball league, has named Len Yandle as coach. Yandle, a war veteran with service in the navy, coached the Portland Pilots last season and will direct the first workout of his candidates next Friday night at the YMCA. Frank Shone, team manager, announces that all home games will be played on the armory floor. The circuit consists of Salem, Portland, Spokane, Yakima, Tacoma, Seattle, Bellingham and Vancouver, B.C.

The title, held by Hoag, is not at stake and it is expected both contenders will come in a little over the featherweight limit. Hoag expects to out-last and out-punch his opponent. Lacey is making few predictions, other than Hoag will find it difficult to tag him freely.

The first preliminary will go on at 8:30, featuring Danny Steele of Salem and Jimmy Ogden of Portland. The six round semi-final a rematch between Davey Arndt, Portland, and Johnny O'Day, Klamath Falls, has all the earmarks of a natural and is attracting as much attention as the principal event. Arndt won with a KO when the pair met two weeks ago.

Two four rounders complete the card: Walt Bennett, Portland vs Sunny Jackson, Eugene; Kelly Jackson, Portland, vs. Ray Garcia, Denver. Indications point to a capacity crowd.
