Salem Pair in Eugene Rites

From Eugene comes news of the marriage of Miss Mamie Wilkinsen, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. P. L. Wilkinsen of Gervais and Basil G. Tucker, son of Mrs. Alice Tucker of Salem.

The couple was married Sunday in the Baptist church parsonage in Eugene. Officiating minister was Mrs. R. W. Webster for the 2:30 o'clock afternoon ceremonies.

Attendants were the bride-in-law and sister of the groom, Mr. and Mrs. Wallace Parmelee of Eugene. For her nuptials, the bride wore a cedar shaded suit with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses and gardenias.

A wedding supper was held at the Parmelee home for the couple and close friends following the ceremony.

After a wedding trip at the Oregon beaches, they will make their home in Salem.

Mrs. Bert Macy has as her house guests this week her brother-in-law and sister, Mr. and Mrs. H. Claude Mayo of Walla Walla, Wash.

Dances took the main spotlight at Oregon State last week-end as the football team was in Berkeley for the California-Oregon State game. Friday night the freshmen gave a dance at the MU, Jack Slater was chairman of the dance which had the theme Komic Kapers. Saturday night was filled with house dances at the Kappa formal the theme was "Grecian Gardens" looking like a Grecian goddess was Joan Beakey in a luscious white formal trimmed in gold. Mary Lou McKay's escort was from Pendleton. Betty Manolis looked cute as usual in a pink plaid formal. she was escorted by Dutch Simmons Dick Galesdorf and Phyllis McGregor were a good-looking couple. Pete's formal was light blue trimmed in dark blue velvet. also in blue was Mary Reiman escorted by handsome Phi Delta pledge Bob Thompson.

"Winkem, Blinkem, and Nod" was the dreamy theme of the Tri Delta formal. Jane Acton looked stunning in a black chiffon dress as she danced with Bob Macy. Cieta Crabtree and her fiance were down from Stayton for the dance.

The ATO's caused quite an uproar Saturday night at their Indian dance. Everyone who went dressed in Indian costumes and put leg make-up all over themselves. Before picking up their squaws at one house, the warriors built a fire on the front sidewalk and did a dance around it.

Sparkling horseshoes prevailed at the Chi Omega dance. The rooms were all decorated in black with silver, sparkling horseshoes of different sizes on the wall. Corrine Wade, Avis Steimer, and Barbara McDonald were seen admiring the large horseshoe over the entrance to the dance. Looking smart in black dresses were Mary Ana Bollinger and Pat Viesko who were escorted by Travis Cross and Bill Carmody. Also there were June Young and Ralph Underwood, Evangeline McKinlay and Bill Egan.

"Sophistication in Black and Gold" was the theme of the Theta pledge formal. The main attraction of the dance was the dining room which was decorated with three huge phosphorescent murals. Pat Sears was in Corvallis for the dance. Oregon Staters are busy making plans for the big Homecoming next week-end. Highlight of the week-end will be the traditional Oregon-Oregon State football game, and we are looking forward to seeing many alums.
