Knights Columbus Hold Yule Party

Mt. Angel—The Mt. Angel Council Knights of Columbus held its annual Christmas party following the regular business meeting with an exceptionally large membership present. Plans for an initiation to be held on January 19 was formulated. The program will begin with mass and communion for members, breakfast, and following the initiation a banquet will be served. Father William Frank, a missionary from India, where he was for 5 years, and who attended Mt. Angel College in 1931 and 1935, was introduced by the council chaplain, Rev. Damien Jentges. The sick committee reported that Joseph D. Hauth is still ill at his home; that Richard Foltz injured his hand at work on Tuesday morning; and that Fred Hecker of Woodburn, a former member of the Mt. Angel council K. of C. had suffered a heart attack and is at the Woodburn hospital.
