

Three Damage Actions Filed

Albany—Damages totaling $90,300 are asked in three cases filed Saturday in circuit court here, two of them involving the Southern Pacific Railway company.

The two cases in which the Southern Pacific and a railway engineer, H. R. Mix, are named defendants arose from the accident in which Mrs. Elsie Anne Pearce was killed at a grade crossing in Harrisburg, September 5, 1946.

Plaintiffs in these cases are James Allen Pearce and Beverly Anne Pearce, children of Mrs. Pearce, each represented by a guardian ad litem, Leonard F. Pearce, their father.

Damages of $20,050 are asked in the youth's behalf and of $20,150 in behalf of his sister, both of whom, it is asserted, suffered permanent injuries.

In the third case Mrs. Lois Elaine Hall asks damages of $50,000 from Harry C. Murphy et al, doing business as the Murphy Timber company, and Roscoe Morrison because of the fatal injuries suffered by her husband, Virgil Hall, when he was thrown from a truck owned and operated by the defendants on a private logging road.

The plaintiff alleges that the truck was carelessly driven in such a manner that it skidded. Hall was required to ride in an unsafe position behind the cab of the truck, the plaintiff asserts.
