Salem Girl Southern Bride

From California comes word of the marriage of Miss Isabelle Storsley, formerly of Salem, daughter of Mrs. Freda Obie of Salem, to C. Edwin Anderson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Charles E. Anderson of Glendale.

The rites took place at 9:30 o'clock the night of January 5 at Wee Kirk o' the Heather in Glendale.

The bride wore an aquamarine street-length dress with brown accessories and a corsage of red roses and white narcissus. Maid of honor was Miss Eleanor Lugenbeel, who wore a coral gown with gardenia corsage. James E. Stewart was best man and ushers were Donald and Harold Ransom.

Charles E. Anderson gave the bride in marriage. Flower girls were Jill Stewart, niece of the bridegroom, and Shirlee Anderson, sister of the bridegroom.

Rev. J. Donnell of the Episcopal church performed the ceremony and a quartet, Miss Vesta Rodini, Miss Ruth Burns, Mrs. Covert and Miss Edna Bird, sang.

The bride attended Beausejour schools in Canada and the bridegroom is a graduate of Yonkers high school in Yonkers, N. Y.

A reception was held at the bridegroom's parents' home. Following a wedding trip, the couple will be at home in Los Angeles, where both are studying under Mrs. Vesta Rodini.

Campfire Girls

Various Camp Fire organizations throughout the city held their regular meetings with the scribe for each group reporting her individual group activities.

The regular meeting of the Tando group was held at the home of Mrs. Hewitt, their guardian, with officers elected after the regular business meeting. Elected were: president, Beverly Kayser; vice president, Janice Feller; secretary, Norma Edwards; treasurer, Jean Hartwell and scribe, Roberta Boyer.

Meeting with their leader, Mrs. Lawrence Megquier, the Otykwa elected officers as follows: president, Barbara Farris; vice president, Jeannette Megquier; secretary, Frances McDonald; treasurer, Joy Bronson; scribe, Pat Megquier. The next meeting will be a skating party.

Cards were in play during the evening. Spring flowers set the decorative motif.

Guests were Mr. and Mrs. Arnold Parvis, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Farmer, Mr. and Mrs. Leonard Gottfried, Mr. and Mrs. Roy Rice, Jr., Mr. and Mrs. Robert Victor, Mr. and Mrs. Dan Hamilton, Mr. and Mrs. Fred Gephart, Mr. and Mrs. George Hauptman and Mr. and Mrs. Paul Shafer.

The Women's Bible class of the First Methodist church will meet for the January party in the Fellowship room of the church Friday at 2 o'clock. Mrs. Lena Lisle is hostess chairman.

Ruth Zahler Bride Friday Of Harold Ray Dickman

Silverton—In a beautifully arranged home setting Friday at high noon, Miss Ruth Edna Zahler, daughter of Mr. and Mrs. John Zahler of Mill street, became the bride of Harold Ray Dickman, son of Mr. and Mrs. Otto Dickman of Silverton. Rev. Arthur Charles Bates read the lines of the single ring ceremony before an altar banked with white and gold chrysanthemums, greenery and flanked by lighted tapers in candelabra.

The bride in a white afternoon gown, carrying a white Bible topped with a white orchid, was attended by her sister, Miss Frances Zahler, dressed similarly and wearing a shoulder corsage of white gardenias surrounded by red roses.

Edwin Zahler, brother of the bride, was best man for the bridegroom.

Mrs. Zahler, mother of the bride, wore a brown, gold trimmed afternoon dress and Mrs. Dickman, mother of the bridegroom was in pink, with white trim. Both wore identical corsages of Talisman roses.

For traveling the bride chose a gold dress with brown trim, brown accessories and brown coat.

Both Mr. and Mrs. Dickman are graduates of Silverton high school. Dickman spent eighteen months with the marine corps and since his discharge has been employed in Salem where the young couple plan to make their home.

Following the ceremony a dinner was served with the table centered by the wedding cake and low bouquets of pink and white carnations, for members of the two immediate families.

Noble Home Rites Scene

January 15, at 8 o'clock, the home of Mr. and Mrs. James T. Noble was scene of the marriage of Mrs. Stella Gould, daughter of Emmet Mason and the son of the Nobles, Earl.

Rev. J. M. Goodheart performed the double-ring rites before a gathering of the couple's friends and relatives. Lighting the altar tapers were Miss Joanne Fry and Miss Irene Cain, nees of the bride and bridegroom.

As bridesmaid was a cousin of the bride, Mrs. Leo Folz and best man by his brother was James G. Noble.

At the reception which followed the wedding, Mrs. John Fry cut the wedding cake and Mrs. Reva Davidson presided at the coffee urn. Serving were Miss Joanne Fry, Miss Irene Cain and Mrs. James G. Noble.

Following a wedding trip to the Oregon beaches, the couple will be at home in Salem.
