Dallas—Tentative plans for a centennial celebration to observe the founding of Polk county in a meeting of the Dallas Chamber

Marion Church Gets Convention

Jefferson—The Talbot school-house was filled to capacity Sunday afternoon at the Jefferson district Sunday school convention, with people interested in Sunday school work. More than 100 representatives from Sunday schools in the district attended. President Rev. Victor Loucks presided.

The Youth Center Gospel team of Salem presented a program. In the group were Herb Hanks, Jack Quixing, Almeda Quixing, Leona Friesen, Evelyn Clippell, Howard Wiens and Herb Hansen. The male quartet sang a group of songs, and the girls' trio also sang. Testimonies were given by each and Herb Hanks gave the convention message.

Ed Holland conducted a Bible quiz for the youth group and presented testimonies to several who gave the right answer. Willis Keithley led the song service, and Rev. Henry Turnidge read the scripture lesson and offered prayer.

It was voted to give the offering to the Gideon's, who are doing such a great work, giving testimonies to some of the grade school children.

Ivan Hadley gave the closing talk and benediction. Fred DeVries announced the county Sunday school convention to be held at Stayton, February 22. The next convention will be held at the Friends church in Marion.

Monmouth Home Econ Club Served Lunch

Monmouth—The Home Economics club met at the home of Mrs. Donald H. Searing. Mrs. Delmar Dewey and Mrs. Searing presented a demonstration of simplified cooking, preparing a quick, low-cost menu which was served. Following the serving of the meal, a discussion was held on short cuts in cooking and other household tasks. At the business meeting, conducted by the president, Mrs. Ellis Stebbins, it was decided to hold the next meeting at the city hall rooms, February 18 at 1:30 p.m. The subject for the day will be "Developing Good Taste in Clothing." The local club, although sponsored by the Civic club, conducts its program under the auspices of the Polk County home extension service.

Boy Seeks Freedom in Reno—Melvin R. Lewin, 9 years old, of Oakland, Calif., meets Reno, Nev., Police Officer James Franklin (center) upon arriving at stage depot. The youth made an unauthorized bus trip to Reno because "I was mad at my folks because they won't take me anywhere, and my hobby is traveling." The lad planned to divorce his parents in Nevada while en route to Chicago to be with an aunt. Bus Driver F. C. Yeager is at left. (AP Wirephoto)

Aurora Club Members Are Presented Awards

Aurora—James F. Bishop, Marion county 4-H club leader, visited Aurora grade school. He gave out awards to the members of the local 4-H Health club. Some of the members received four and five-year pins, but mostly one and two-year pins were given. Members who have served in 4-H club work four and six years were presented cards for services to the clubs.

Bishop's talk stressed chiefly the recent convention of 4-H clubs held in Chicago. He displayed a number of souvenirs he received while at the convention. Among these was a scrapbook autographed by all members there, and presented him by the leaders of the clubbers in Chicago.

Local leader, H. H. Eccles, won a 4-H leaders' pin for helping the students with their 4-H club work.

John Pfaff of Litchville, N. Dak., is spending a month in Silverton and Mt. Angel with his sister's family, the L. B. Scharbacks, and with his mother, Mrs. Marie Pfaff of Mt. Angel. The visitor is also with other relatives in this community. Another son of Mrs. Marie Pfaff and his wife, Mr. and Mrs. Carl Pfaff of Valley City, N. Dak., are arriving by plane this week to spend two months in Oregon and California.

School Merger Coming to Vote

Lincoln—A lively discussion was held at the meeting of Lincoln community club on the merits as well as the disadvantages of the consolidation with other school districts, which was led by Josiah Willis, Polk county school superintendent who was asked to attend and explain the new school laws enacted at last legislature. Willis said that some schools throughout the county had already adopted consolidation and that many others are seriously considering consolidation.

A motion was made by L. I. Mickey, a former teacher, that the tax paying voters of district No. 49 request that the Lincoln school board call a meeting of the district to a meeting for the purpose of considering, discussing and voting upon a consolidation and transportation school program, which was accepted.

Dallas Property Tax Subject for Forum

Dallas—Art Selander, chief appraiser of the state tax commission, will be the speaker at the Friday luncheon meeting of the Dallas Chamber of Commerce, according to Bill Blackley, secretary.

The speaker was invited to discuss property tax assessments in view of the fact that re-assessment of Dallas businesses and other property is expected in the near future and because of interest aroused in the property tax through proposals pending in the state legislature.

Ed. C. Dunn, county assessor, is arranging the program.

Hobby Show Planned By Stayton Auxiliary

Stayton—The American Legion auxiliary is planning a food and hobby show on Wednesday, February 19, at the Woman's club house, it is announced by Mrs. Nellie Jones, chairman of the activity committee. Tea will be served during the afternoon and evening.

Hobbies will be displayed, including the button collection of Mrs. R. D. Busey of Eugene, consisting of several thousand buttons, some of which are very valuable because of their rarity. Mrs. Johnson of Salem will also display a collection of buttons.</
