

Bridge Events Are Planned

Bridge games form incentives for parties this week as hostesses plan events honoring their friends.

Mrs. Emory Hobbs entertained members of her contract club Wednesday evening at her home in Jefferson street. Following a dessert supper, bridge was in play. Additional guest was Mrs. Jack Price.

Mrs. Wayne Doughton will entertain at luncheon Thursday afternoon at 1:15 o'clock at her apartment at the Ulrich. Following the dessert, bridge will be in play.

Flowering quince and daphne will be arranged about the rooms, and covers will be placed for 12.

National president of the Woman's Relief corps, Mrs. Alice Larson of Minot, N. D., will arrive in Portland March 2nd, and make her official visit in Salem March 10. While in Salem she will be the guest of Mrs. Goldie Kyle, department president of Oregon. Arrangements are being made to entertain Mrs. Larson both in Salem and in Portland while she is in Oregon.

OREGON STATE COLLEGE

Campus Clippings

By Helen Paulson

Happy Oregon Staters danced to the music of Jan Garber and his band Saturday night at the traditional Lemon-Orange Squeeze following the Oregon-Oregon State game... before the dance, our basketball team won their eighth game of the season... couples seen at the dance were the Rollie Haags, the Bill Shinnis, the John Jermans, Joan Beakey and Roger Schnell, June Young and Ralph Underwood.

Mariann Croisan is among the last five contestants for Sweetheart of Sigma Chi... she will be guest of the Sigma Chi next Saturday at their Sweetheart formal when they will reveal the secret of which of the five Freshmen girls they have chosen for their sweetheart... Jim Arens was recently initiated into Alpha Sigma Phi... joining the rank of pledges on the campus are Harry Weidmaier who's pledging Kappa Sigma and Bill Burns a new pledge of Sigma Phi Epsilon.

Many Salem people were in Corvallis Sunday for the wedding of Avis Steimer and Bill McBee... Avis was a beautiful brunette bride as she came down the aisle in a white satin wedding dress... maid of honor, Doris Dixon, was dressed in blue while the bridesmaid, Cathy Moran, wore pink... here to help with the wedding were Barbara Sundet, Miriam Shellenberger and Gloria Myers...

Freshmen students were alarmed over headlines in the Barometer reading "Freshman Class Plays Guinea Pig"... upon reading the article, the freshmen (providing they have been Oregon residents the majority of their lives) found that they are going to be guinea pigs for a dental survey being made on the campus...

Monday evening Igor Gorin thrilled several thousand students and townspeople when he presented a concert in the Men's Gym... "Think on Me," "Figaro," and "None But the Lonely Heart" were among the many familiar selections he sang...

Tea to Fete Miss Newman

Highlight of Friday afternoon will be the tea for which Mrs. Gordon Hadley will be hostess at her home in Independence. The affair will honor Miss Marie Ann Newman, daughter of the Lester Newmans, whose marriage to Donald O. Wells of Independence will be an event of March 9.

A large number of Salem and Independence friends of the honor guest and her family have been bidden to the Hadley home. Calling hours are from three o'clock until five.

Receiving with the hostess, the honor guests, and her mother, Mrs. Lester Newman, will be Mrs. Orval Wells, mother of the bridegroom-elect.

Presiding at the urns for the first hour will be Mrs. Jack Stump of Monmouth and Mrs. I. M. Walker of Independence. The second hour, Mrs. Burton Myers and Mrs. Stewart Johnson will assist.

In charge of the dining room is Mrs. Robert Sears.

Assisting about the rooms will be Mrs. Edward Lebold, Mrs. B. E. Owens, Mrs. L. V. Benson, Mrs. Curtis B. Cross, Mrs. Raymond Bonesteel, Mrs. Frank V. Prime, Mrs. Dolph Craig and Mrs. Lewis Griffith.

The meeting of the West Salem Woman's club, scheduled for Wednesday evening, has been changed to 8 o'clock Thursday at the city hall auditorium. Speaker will be Mrs. Robert Thomas; her topic, interior decoration.

The ladies of St. Vincent de Paul parish are holding the last in a series of pre-lenten card parties Thursday evening at the St. Vincent de Paul hall.

The South Salem WCTU will meet Friday at 2 o'clock at the home of Mrs. Lillian Conner, 1645 South Church street.
