Bloody Struggle Seen for India

London, Feb. 21 (AP)—The British government left squarely up to feuding Hindus and Moslem leaders today the question of whether India intends to win independence in bloody civil war or through peaceful negotiations by the time Britain ends her reign over the rich sub-continent 16 months hence.

Prime Minister Attlee told the world yesterday that Britain intends to pull out of India by June, 1948, and at the same time appointed Admiral Lord Mountbatten, a great grandson of the first British empress of India, as viceroy to liquidate 200 years of British rule.

Some empire-minded conservatives and sections of the British press direly predicted that a bloody struggle for power in India would result from Britain's withdrawal.

Lord Templewood—Sir Samuel Hoare before he became a peer—presented a motion last night declaring that the end of British rule "is likely to imperil the peace and prosperity of India."

Debate was scheduled in the house of lords next Tuesday on the motion and in the house of commons the week after next. The delay was caused because the house of commons is scheduled to debate three other pressing British problems first—foreign affairs on the eve of Foreign Secretary Ernest Bevin's departure for Moscow, turning the Palestine mandate over to the United Nations and government handling of the grave coal crisis.

Portal Pay Ban Gets Approval

Washington, Feb. 21 (AP)—The house judiciary committee approved today a measure outlawing virtually all portal-to-portal pay claims.

The bill would also let employers advance as a defense against claims the contention that they acted in "good faith" they could offer it in controversies involving the wage-hours act, the Walsh-Healy and the Bacon-Davis acts.

The Walsh-Healy and Bacon-Davis act establish working standards which must be observed on government contracts.

The burden of proof in claiming "good faith" would rest with the employer.

Chairman Michener (R-Mich.) said the committee approved the bill "by a very large majority."

Questioned further, he said that there was not a formal vote—"not even a show of hands."

He said that, under present plans, the measure is scheduled to reach the floor for action next Thursday.

The senate judiciary committee met separately on its own version of a measure to ban portal pay claims, but failed to take final action. Members indicated questions had arisen concerning the constitutionality of some terms of the measure.

Lt. Hartwel Zehner

Funeral Rites for Salem War Pilot

Funeral services will be held at St. Joseph's Catholic church Saturday morning at 10:30 a.m. for Lt. Hartwel Zehner, former Salem man, who was killed in an airplane crash at Johnson field near Tokyo, Japan, January 21. Interment will be in the City View cemetery.

Lt. Zehner, an army man since December, 1941, saw service in the European theater with the Ninth air force during World War II and had been in Japan since July, 1946, as the pilot of a P-51 Mustang with the Eighth air force. He had 1600 hours of flying time.

Born in Portland, June 20, 1919, the officer came to Salem in 1920 and was a graduate of Salem schools. Residing here until 1938, when he went to Astoria to make his home he was connected with the Valley Motor company prior to leaving Salem. At the time of enlisting in the air corps Zehner was a salesman with the Lovell Auto company in Astoria.

Surviving are his father, W. T. Zehner of Coos Bay and a sister, Mrs. Dean W. Seiple, also of Coos Bay.

Czechs and Magyars To Break Impasse

Prague, Feb. 21 (AP)—A high source in contact with both Czechoslovakia and Hungary said today the two countries were expected within a week to break the impasse which has held up for several months the exchange of their respective minorities.

This source said Hungary would make the first move by resuming on a limited scale the transfer of Slovaks who have been held up since last fall in a dispute over quotas and other details for similar transfer of Magyars from Slovakia.

Czechoslovakia then is expected to halt the movement of Magyars from Slovakia to Bohemia and Moravia for employment as labor under the country's two-year plan, the informant said. This movement has been sharply criticized by Hungarians, some of whom charged the Magyars were being "sold" as slaves.

The two countries were authorized by the United Nations to work out the exchanges between themselves.

Salem Court News

Circuit Court
Order of voluntary nonsuit on motion of plaintiff filed in Clara E. Bonn vs. Bertha L. Miller and Harris Nelson.

Harold Snowden, who was to have been sentenced Thursday morning on his plea of guilty to being implicated in the burglary of the St. Paul liquor store last May was granted a continuance until Friday to give the court a chance to hear from the navy. It being alleged he is wanted as a deserter from that branch of the service. Snowden, after pleading to the charge turned state's evidence and testified against Willis King and Joseph Walkman who were jointly indicted with him. However, those two defendants were freed by the court on a directed verdict, the court holding that Snowden's testimony as an alleged accomplice lacked corroboration.

A jury in Judge E. M. Page's court is hearing the trial of Charles G. Weston vs. Leo Clark and others involving an attempt to eviction from a Salem residence.

Order of dismissal on motion of plaintiff filed in Naomi M. vs. Gerald E. Butler.

Bradley Orders VA Staff Cut

Washington, Feb. 21 (AP)—Gen. Omar Bradley, veterans administrator, froze VA employment at or near its peak of 224,852 persons today and ordered all VA offices to begin strict economies.

The action apparently was Bradley's answer to congressional criticism that VA administrative expenses are excessive. In telegrams to 13 branch managers, he warned that outright cuts on the VA staff may be anticipated.

He told the branch managers that effective Friday night and until further notice, there will be no promotions within VA and no filling of vacancies except for:

1. Prior commitments.
2. Essential medical and hospital maintenance employees.
3. Isolated typists and stenographic vacancies that are absolutely essential.

Bradley also ordered immediate cessation of:

1. All travel for conferences and supervision of offices, hospitals and employees.
2. Overtime work except that ordered to reduce back-logs.

VA employment has risen to its present level from 46,303 in December 1943, and from 93,000 in December, 1945. Recent turnover of employees have averaged 5000 to 7000 monthly. VA officials said, however, they anticipate a decline in the number of resignations.

Johnson Named Butter Champ

Corvallis, Feb. 21 (AP)—The Oregon Dairy Manufacturers' association last night named William L. Johnson of the Farmers' Co-operative creamery, McMinnville, the state's butter-making champion.

His sweepstakes score was 94.58, a fractional margin over the second place winner, G. Brandt, Dallas Creamery company, with 94.17. Last year's winner, Ralph W. Gillette, Eugene Farmers' creamery, was third with 93.5.

In other contests, cheese-making honors went largely to Tillamook and Lincoln county men, although Don Cornwell, Willowa County Creamery association, took first place in the senior aged cheese division and C. A. Hutchens, Mount Angel co-operative creamery, was third in the same class.

First place award in ice cream making went to T. Lee Whittington, Peter Pan Products, Jennings Lodge.

7 Hop Harvesting Machines Ordered

Hop Harvesters, Inc., organized to provide custom picking machines for hop growers have an order in for seven of the machines with the Stevens Equipment company, Salem, and work of manufacture is now in progress, states C. W. Paulus, secretary-treasurer of the concern. Other officers are Ralph Williams, president, and Howard Elsmann, vice president.

The concern had initially contemplated having 10 of the machines constructed. It is the plan now to locate machines a mile and a half north of Independence, north of Mission bottom and in the St. Paul area.

Contracts will be made with growers to haul their hops to the machines where the picking will be done, probably at first on a competitive basis, charge for picking being what it would be for picking by hand. Vines would be cut off and hauled to the machines. The contract with the equipment company calls for machines which will pick about an average of 4000 pounds green hops per hour, considered the equivalent of the work of from 160 to 200 pickers. Necessity of the machines became apparent last season from the lack of pickers which endangered the harvest.

School Districts Consolidated

The district boundary board Friday after canvassing the votes on the February 13 school consolidation election in the Woodburn area in which Woodburn, West Woodburn and Johnson districts voted to come into a consolidated district, but Hall, Grassy Pond, Union, Belle Passi and McKee voted against consolidation, declared that the three districts voting affirmatively are consolidated.

Also petitions were received at the meeting from Woodburn, Belle Passi and Hall asking for a new consolidation election for setting the date for this election for March 19. While in the previous election Belle Passi and Hall voted against consolidation the vote was so close the petitioners desire to take another chance at it and in event it carries on March 19 they will go into the other consolidation with Woodburn, West Woodburn and Johnson.

The boundary board Friday also received petitions from the Shaw and Rocky Point school districts asking that board to take a small section of territory out from the Shaw district and put it into Rocky Point. It was explained that the proposed change is also hooked up with a potential consolidation being proposed between Rocky Point and Aumsville. If the territorial change is made this will bring Rocky Point district contiguous to the Aumsville district and make consolidation possible.
