

Tea Honors Two Visitors In the Capital

Thursday afternoon the Fairmount Hill home of Mrs. Sidney Kromer was scene of an informal tea at which a small number of friends gathered to honor the hostess' sister, Miss Jane O'Reilly, guest in the capital, and Mrs. Rudolph Prael, a newcomer here.

Miss O'Reilly, who has been making her home in Seattle, has been visiting in San Diego, Los Angeles and San Francisco on a vacation and is en route to her home in Washington.

Marion Wiest Shower Guest

Monmouth—Miss Marion Wiest was honored guest at a bridal shower held at the home of Mrs. O. A. Wolverton. Mrs. Edwin Jensen was co-hostess for the affair. Games were enjoyed during the evening followed by the opening of the shower gifts which were displayed on a table covered in pink organdy and overhung with a parasol covered in white.

At the close of the evening, refreshments were served from a table centered with a bowl of pink camellias, flanked by tall pink tapers. Mrs. William Wiest, mother of the bride-to-be, poured and Mrs. Lowell Brisbane assisted in serving.

Miss Wiest is to become the bride of Kenneth Brisbane, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lowell Brisbane on Sunday at the Monmouth Christian church.

Guests bidden to the shower included Mrs. Wiest and Mrs. Brisbane, Mrs. William Wiest, Mrs. Harold Buss, Mrs. Paul Meyers, Mrs. Bud Yung, Mrs. Carl Bond, Mrs. Lester Green, Mrs. Logan Wallace, Mrs. Charles Powell, Mrs. Hattie Schweizer, Mrs. Foster Hiltbrand, Mrs. James Marr, Mrs. Raymond Armstrong, Mrs. LaMar Hadcock, Mrs. Betty Wright, Mrs. Sylvia Cummins, Miss Betty Lou Elliott, Miss Donna Canuit and Miss Joyce Bowen.

Engaged—Miss Arlene De Atta Fromm, whose betrothal to Philip Judson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Judson, was told Wednesday evening.

Miss Fromm to Wed Mr. Judson

Revealed Wednesday evening at a party for which she was hostess was the engagement of Miss Arlene De Atta Fromm daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Fromm and Philip Judson, son of Mr. and Mrs. Lewis Judson of Salem.

No date has been set for the wedding, but it will be this summer. The bride-elect attended Salem high school and is now in the office of Dr. James L. Sears. Her fiancé served in the navy, attending Wabash college, Ind., with the V-12, and is now majoring in engineering at Oregon State college. His fraternity is Kappa Sigma.

Cards with the pair's names inscribed, hidden in single daffodils at each cover at Thursday's party, told the news.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Salstrom, Miss Pat Agee, Miss Jane Carson, Miss Harriet Huston, Miss Marianne Croisan, Miss Gloria Myers, Miss Sue Small, Miss Madeline Keene, Miss Gloria and Miss Barbara McClintock, Miss Kathy Moran, Miss Patsy Nickens, Miss Peggy Sears, Miss Peggy Paxson, Miss Doris Dixon, Miss Joan Randall, Miss Barbara Sundet, Miss Margaret Newton, Miss Meta Woolbridge and the hostesses.

At the dessert party Wednesday evening at the Fromm country home, tiny pastel Easter eggs tied with ribbon and with a picture of the couple, told the news.

Guests were Mrs. George Earhart, Mrs. Bill Masey, Mrs. Don Panek, Mrs. Henry Mattson, Mrs. Don Judson, Miss Caroline Helton of Portland, Miss Sylvia Mattson, Miss Frances Mattson, Miss Mary Elizabeth Reinhart, Miss Pat Keppinger, Miss Dawna Welty, Miss Rena Skaggs, Mrs. Mathias Crouser, Miss Alma Baal and the hostess.

Lyons—Mr. and Mrs. Walter Free of Salem visited at the home of Mr. and Mrs. William Fetherston. Mr. and Mrs. Free and Mrs. Fetherston attended school together in St. Francis, Kans., and had not seen each other since that time.

Woodburn—The regular meeting of the Settlemier Park association will be held Friday, March 28 at 8 p.m. at the library building. All representatives or alternates are urgently requested to be present.

Monmouth—Mrs. O. A. Wolverton attended the golden wedding anniversary and breakfast at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Persons.

Miss Hamilton Tells Troth to Courtney Jones

Event of Thursday afternoon was the informal party for which Miss Dolores Clement and Miss Dolores Hamilton were hostesses at the Clement home in East Wilson street.

Members of the college set were bidden to an afternoon of cards, during which tea was served. A bridal shower was arranged by the hostesses in compliment to Mrs. Edward Salstrom (Dorothy Bergsvik).

Surprise announcement of the afternoon was that of the engagement of Miss Dolores Hamilton, who is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Hollis Hamilton, and Courtney Jones, son of Mr. and Mrs. J. C. Jones of Salem.

No date has been set for the wedding, but it will be this summer. The bride-elect attended Salem high school and is now in the office of Dr. James L. Sears. Her fiancé served in the navy, attending Wabash college, Ind., with the V-12, and is now majoring in engineering at Oregon State college. His fraternity is Kappa Sigma.

Cards with the pair's names inscribed, hidden in single daffodils at each cover at Thursday's party, told the news.

Guests for the afternoon were Mrs. Salstrom, Miss Pat Agee, Miss Jane Carson, Miss Harriet Huston, Miss Marianne Croisan, Miss Gloria Myers, Miss Sue Small, Miss Madeline Keene, Miss Gloria and Miss Barbara McClintock, Miss Kathy Moran, Miss Patsy Nickens, Miss Peggy Sears, Miss Peggy Paxson, Miss Doris Dixon, Miss Joan Randall, Miss Barbara Sundet, Miss Margaret Newton, Miss Meta Woolbridge and the hostesses.

Hobbs Home Is Au Revoir Scene

Mrs. Emery Hobbs entertained Monday evening at her home in Jefferson street with an informal dinner given as an au revoir to Lt. Col. and Mrs. Ira Wintermute, who left Wednesday morning following a leave in Salem.

They will return to their former base, Reno, Nev., for orders as to their future station.

Covers were placed for Lt. Col. and Mrs. Wintermute, Mr. and Mrs. G. Wallace Hug, Mr. and Mrs. Richard Cooley, Mr. and Mrs. Robert Pickens and the hosts.

Miss Maxine Landon, a student at the University of Oregon, is among those spending her spring vacation in the capital city. Miss Landon is the guest of her parents, Rep. and Mrs. M. M. Landon of Sweet Home.

Mystery Dinner Celebrates Fete

Stayton—About 90 attended the mystery dinner given by the American Legion auxiliary to celebrate the 20th birthday of Stayton post American Legion at the Women's clubhouse.

Welcome was extended by Mrs. Marian Miller, president of the unit, who introduced past-presidents of the unit and presented Charles Johnson who called upon the past-presidents of the post. Mrs. Stanley Krueger of Salem, auxiliary district II president, spoke as did Fred Lathrop of Portland, department commander of Oregon. Ira Pilcher, grand chef de gare, of the 40 and 8 club, was also introduced.

With a committee in charge of each item on the menu, the dinner was prepared without anyone knowing what the complete dinner would be. Hostesses were Mesdames Eva Humphreys, Margaret Johnson, Nellie Jones and Myrtle Pieser.

Mrs. Krueger again addressed the women and complimented them on their membership gain. Mrs. Miller conducted ceremonies in dedication of the flag recently purchased by the unit. A sum was donated to cancer control.

Youngsters to Celebrate

Lester, aged four and Eugenia, aged six, children of Mr. and Mrs. Leon Margosian, who celebrate their birthdays on Saturday, will be honor guests when their mother entertains that day at their home in Morning-side.

The youngsters will play outdoors and have ice cream and cake late in the afternoon.

From Portland will come Mrs. J. Frederick Johnson, Jacqueline, Jerry and Susan; Mrs. Eric Baumgardner, Jane and Robert; Mrs. Forrest Rieke, Forrest Neill and Mary Macklin; Mrs. W. Charles Martin, Ann and Robert; Mrs. Paul Pinckney, Leslie and Cynthia; from Camas, Mrs. Herman Estes and Libby and from Salem, Mrs. W. R. Speck.

Youngsters from Salem will be Tommy and Jimmy Barnett, Johnny and Marjorie Wenger, Kaye and Sandy Tomlinson, Susan Keech and the honor guests.

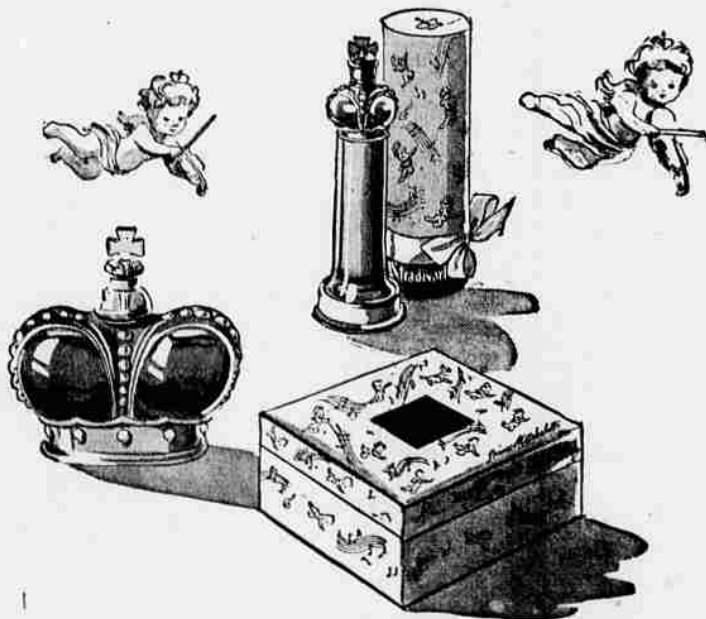

Lyons—The Woman's club met at the community hall for an afternoon of quilting and completing plans for the benefit to be held at the Rebekah hall Thursday evening. There will be games, a cooked food sale and a short program.

Monmouth—Mrs. O. A. Wolverton attended the golden wedding anniversary and breakfast at the home of her brother and sister-in-law, Mr. and Mrs. Walter M. Persons.
