

Boots and Spurs

By Gloria Robinson

One of Salem's top cowboys met with an unfortunate and serious accident this week and landed in the hospital for a six-weeks' stay. Hank Hess was practicing roping calves at his home near Jefferson last Wednesday night, when his big horse, Cop, fell on him while working with a calf. Hank likes visitors so all you guys and gals scurry up and see him soon.

Newbrys Hosts Wednesday For Dinner

Senator and Mrs. Earl Newbry of Ashland were hosts Wednesday evening at the Grille room of the Marion hotel for a dinner honoring members of the senate labor and industry committee and its clerks.

Covers were placed for Sen. and Mrs. Eugene Marsh of Marshfield, Sen. and Mrs. Earl Balderree of Grants Pass, Sen. and Mrs. Merle Chessman of Astoria, Sen. and Mrs. Thomas Mahoney of Portland, Sen. and Mrs. Douglas McKay of Salem, Sen. and Mrs. Paul Patterson of Hillsboro, Mr. and Mrs. Jack McCullough, Mr. and Mrs. Walter Socolofsky, Mr. and Mrs. Lew Wallace, special guests and the hosts, Sen. and Mrs. Earl Newbry of Ashland.

Spending her spring vacation in Salem is Miss Mary Nadine Snellstrom, a student at Oregon State college, who is the guest of her parents, Rep. and Mrs. John Snellstrom of Eugene.

Guest this week with her daughter, Mrs. Donald McCargar and her family is Mrs. George Lawrence of Portland.

Social news: Tommy Allen has announced that an old time dance and basket social will draw out the Saddle club members and their friends on the evening of April 3. This dancin', eatin' and romancin' event will be held at the Roberts Grange with the Roberts orchestra giving out with the rhythm. Millie Lindeman is in charge of decoration, Peggy Turley is head of refreshments, Pat Coleman takes tickets and Vick Kelley will see to it that the ladies' baskets all get auctioned off to hungry, eligible males. Sounds like fun.
